God Cares About Us

Have you ever asked yourself the questions, Does God really care about me? Does He know what I'm going through?

I'm sure at one time or another all of us have felt like no one cared about us and the problems we were facing in life. Maybe there's even been a time when we thought God Himself didn't care.

God does care about us. Psalm 55:22 says, "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved."

We can cast our cares on God, and He will sustain us because we are in right standing with Him. If we will just commit our burdens to Him and keep walking with Him, His Word promises us that we cannot fail.

The enemy wants us to think about our problems and try to work them out ourselves. But once we begin to carry our burdens, then we really have problems! Difficulties may come, but we have to learn how to cast them on God so He can work them out!

There is a secret to living a peaceful life of happiness in the Lord. And it is cast all of our problems, burdens, griefs, and anxieties on the Lord! I didn't say that it would always be easy to do. It is probably one of the hardest things to do because problems have a way of grabbing our attention, and we want to try to figure them out.

You do not have to carry your burdens. There is One Who carried them for you, and His Name is Jesus. He can work out everything you commit to Him because He cares.

God wants us to be more than conquerors in life and not be weighed down with problems. We've loaded this issue with treasures from His Word to build your faith and strengthen your heart, so you continue fighting the good fight of faith. When you're done reading the magazine, pass it along to a friend. Don't forget to share your favorite quotes from this issue on social media. #RhemaWOF

THE BACKPACK OF LIFE

KENNETH W. HAGIN

IN THE U.S., most students are preparing to go back to school at this time. The start of a new school year can be stressful for them and their parents.

Nationwide, billions of dollars are spent every year on back to school shopping. One popular item is a new backpack. Nowadays, most kids carry backpacks and stuff them with their books and school supplies.

Have you ever seen a youngster with a backpack so loaded down that it was almost dragging on the ground? It can be so heavy that the child even leans sideways!

Life can be like carrying a weighty backpack. Each of us carries a heavy load from time to time, sometimes bigger than we can manage. No matter our age, we all deal with similar problems. Fear, worry, doubt, and discouragement try to keep us from fulfilling our purpose in life.

Hebrews 12:1 (NLT) tells us to, “strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us.”

The Bible story of a little boy and his lunch—five loaves and two fish—provides a good illustration of weights that can hinder us. Of course, he did not have a backpack, but we can see from this passage of scripture what should go in it to run our race successfully.

JOHN 6:5–13 (NIV)

5 When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?”

6 He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.

7 Philip answered him, “It would take more than half a year’s wages to buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!”

8 Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, spoke up,

9 “Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?”

WE NEVER KNOW HOW GOD WOULD LIKE TO USE US WHEN WE LEAVE THE HOUSE.

Let’s be prepared.

10 Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” There was plenty of grass in that place, and they sat down (about five thousand men were there).

11 Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

12 When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, “Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted.”

13 So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

Take the Junk Out

From reading this story, we can see the disciples were carrying some wrong mindsets and attitudes in their “backpacks of life.” It’s an example of what not to allow in our lives.

LACK OF COMPASSION. One thing we don’t need to carry is a lack of compassion. In Matthew’s account of this story, the disciples told Jesus to send the people away (Matt. 14:15). They didn’t even try to look for a way to help the tired and hungry crowd. They lacked compassion.

FEAR OF CHALLENGES. The disciples saw the crowd and feared the overwhelming challenge before them. They looked at the problem and forgot about Jesus.

DOUBT. The disciples didn’t believe that what they had was enough to meet the need. Doubt will defeat us every time if we only look at what we have or what we can do. But if we give both to Jesus, all things are possible.

QUESTIONABLE RELATIONSHIPS. We become like the people we hang out with. In this story, Philip didn’t think they could do anything, and Andrew agreed with him. They both doubted. First Corinthians 15:33 (NLT) says, “Don’t be fooled by those who say such things, for ‘bad company corrupts good character.’” We need to be careful of the people that we associate with. Befriending the wrong people can get us in trouble.

Fill Up With the Essentials

After we’ve emptied ourselves of the things that weigh us down, there are essential things we need to fill up with and always carry in our “backpacks.”

PREPARATION. The little boy was prepared for what he would encounter that day. Before leaving home, he probably thought, “I might get hungry. I better take some food with me.”

Everyone—adults and children alike—should ask themselves each day, “Am I prepared. Do I have what I need in my backpack for life today?” The Bible records that nameless young boy as one who made a difference in the lives of a multitude. We never know how God would like to use us when we leave the house. Let’s be prepared. Through Christ, we can provide an atmosphere that will cause others to be blessed.

ENCOURAGEMENT. It’s surprising how many people don’t have anyone in their corner rooting for them. Be the person who inspires and encourages others. Tell people you believe in them and that they can make it.

PERSISTENCE. Even though we may experience setbacks, we have to be persistent and continue to plan and push forward. If we’re going to get anywhere in life, we have to have an “I won’t quit” attitude.

POTENTIAL. What looked like a limited amount of food proved to have a huge impact when it was placed in the hands of Jesus. The young boy probably didn’t think he would be part of a miracle that day, but the possibility was there. Every time we leave the house, the potential is there for us to be a winner and bless others.

Parents, grandparents, aunts, and uncles—you are the key elements in helping children to reach their potential. Speak words of life to them. Make sure they know their ability to make a difference in their world! Just like the little boy in the story made a difference in his world.

PURPOSE. Everyone has a God-given purpose. We may not know the name of the boy with the loaves and fish, but his purpose is recorded in history. Psalm 138:8 (MSG) says, “Finish what you started in me, God. Your love is eternal—don’t quit on me now.” If you don’t quit on God, He won’t quit on you. He will see you through and fulfill all the plans He has for you.

Through this year and beyond, let’s remove the things in our lives that weigh us down. Then let’s fill up with the things that are essential to winning in life. 🙏

Kindle the Flame Ignites Destinies

AS KINDLE THE FLAME 2017 came to a close by candlelight, the worship and words from Heaven burned strong in women's hearts. A word of prophecy came through Lynette Hagin:

"There are some of you, not just a few, that are going to be placed in positions that you're going to influence some leaders in the land.

"Get ready in your spirit because you're going to stand before leaders. As you stand before them, it's going to change some situations.

"So stay sensitive and walk in those doors when they're presented. Now you're going to feel intimidated. You're going to feel, 'Oh God, I can't go there,' but the Holy Ghost can. He's going to open doors. When He does, walk in. Listen to My Spirit, and I'll tell you when to talk . . . what to say and what not to say.

"Little by little, you'll draw them in. . . . It'll be a strong hook, and it will change not only this nation, but it will change nations!"

Catherine felt the words come alive in her heart. They were for her! On the long flight back to Zambia, she pulled out a journal and began to ponder the words inscribed in her spirit. She reflected, "God, I know that word is for me. I'm not sure what it means. I'm giving this to You and Your timing."

Two months later, a letter arrived from the President of Zambia. He informed Catherine, then a lawyer, that he would be appointing her as a judge of the High Court of Zambia. At 38 years of age, Catherine was surprised! No one under the age of 40 had been appointed before. But she was not surprised that God's word of prophecy came to pass. She knows He put her there to influence her country.

Hear From Heaven

Every year, the Spirit of God flows at Lynette Hagin's Kindle the Flame Women's Conference. God's gentle heart meets women right where they are and invites them to a new place in Him. It's a refreshing getaway for renewal. Hearts and bodies are healed, destinies are sealed, and souls are both mended and recharged with the Word and the Spirit.

Last year, Catherine traveled halfway around the world to KTF as a lawyer, and today she influences her nation as the Honorable Lady Justice Catherine Mulenga Lombe Phiri of the High Court of Zambia. What does God have in store at Kindle the Flame this year? Join us September 27–29, 2018, and find out! (See pages 6–7 for all the details.)

RHEMA IS A SPOKEN WORD, A PLACE, AND A WORLDWIDE FAMILY.

Follow the Dream

RHEMA USA GRADUATES 44TH CLASS

RED- AND BLACK-ROBED graduates flooded the Cox Business Center arena in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on Friday, May 18, 2018. The pomp and circumstance of the academic procession included international flags representing the countries of the students. Proud family and friends celebrated with cheers, cowbells, decorated signs, tambourines, and even air horns!

Rev. Earl Glisson, a 2000 RBTC graduate, was the keynote speaker. He is the founder and senior pastor of Anchor Faith Church in St. Augustine, Florida. Rev. Glisson fanned the flame already burning in the graduates to follow their dreams.

You have been trained. You have been equipped. The Apostle Paul could have been here now, but he's not. God assigned this time to you! You are the one God chose to send into the world for such a time as this! It's all planned out. All you have to do is follow the Spirit of God.

I was destined for Rhema. How do I know? Because in 1950, God told Kenneth E. Hagin, "Go teach My people faith." And I was the "people" God was talking about! In 1973, Brother Hagin spoke by the Spirit of God and said a Bible school would start, and in 1974, Rhema began. I was in that voice! Then at the 1979 graduation, he prophesied, "Tramp. Tramp. Tramp. What is that sound I hear? It's the sound of feet going forth with the Good News." That was the sound of my feet!

Understand this—your destiny and purpose will not be achieved unless you follow the line of legacy that has gone before you, and you stay connected to the place where God inserted you.

Dreams are not birthed in perfect environments. So it doesn't require a perfect environment for them to come to pass! When you get a dream, you have to talk about it. But when you begin to cast the vision of God's destiny for your life, know that it will meet resistance. At times, something will come beside you to court you with a competitive alternative. Don't give in to a substitute. It's not worth it! Stay with what God told you to do.

Dreams take time to accomplish. Until then, take up Kenneth W. Hagin's motto, "I cannot be defeated, and I will not quit!" You have to have that same tenacity.

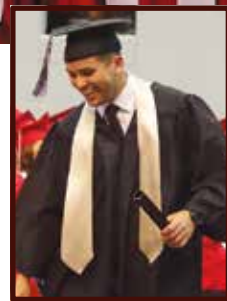

Brother Hagin often prayed, "But Lord, I'm just one man. How am I going to get this message out?"

The answer to that question is in the Tramp, Tramp, Tramp prophecy. "What is that sound I hear?"

Dreams are not birthed in perfect environments.

So it doesn't require a perfect environment for them to come to pass!

—REV. EARL GLISSON

As if orchestrated by an unseen hand, the graduates began to stamp their feet. Holy awe and expectation rippled through the arena as the question resounded amidst the sound: tramp, tramp, tramp. Rising to a pitch of power and determination, the graduates erupted in bold shouts as Rev. Glisson gave them a send-off with the command, "Go into all the world!"

That moment launched the presentation of the class of 2018. Rather than giving traditional diplomas (given to the graduates later), Kenneth and Lynette Hagin "passed the baton" to the students. These special runner's relay batons bear the inscription:

I commit today to carry the baton of revival to this generation.

I will carry the banner of faith and God's power to a lost and dying world.

This is my time to do all God has called me to do!

Tassels on the academic caps were symbolically moved. Students transformed into alumni. Challenging years of preparation turned into readiness. "Rhēma" transitioned from a spoken word into a place to train and now into a worldwide family of Rhema alumni.

As commencement ended, graduates recessed by the light of candles and torches through the array of flags. It was a powerful send-off for the 44th graduating class to the next steps in their God-adventures—dreams ready, the world waiting. 🕯️

CHOOSING

→ peace

TYPICALLY WHEN MANY of us think of peace, we think of being comforted by the Holy Spirit during a time of tragedy. We pray for peace, and it helps us in our time of need. There are times, however, when the turmoil and anxiety in our lives seem endless. And we need peace for more than just a moment, day, or week.

In John 16:33 (NLT) Jesus said, “I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”

Bad things are going to happen. There’s no way around it. Jesus told us ahead of time so that we wouldn’t be surprised. He wanted to prepare us, so when hard times come, our response is peace. Jesus was letting us know that in Him, we could live in perpetual peace. However, the choice is ours to make.

Finding Peace

Living a lifestyle of peace is not passive; it’s active. Psalm 34:14 (NIV) gives us instructions on how to always have peace. “Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.” Pursuing something means to seek it over an extended period. Pursuing peace, therefore, is a lifelong process.

If you played the game hide-and-seek as a child, then you know you had to work to find what was hidden. You had to seek it out, run around, look under things, and maybe go into scary places.

DENISE HAGIN BURNS

Peace can be hidden because life can hide it. Even if something traumatic isn’t going on in our lives, just the busyness of everyday life can conceal our peace.

That’s why scripture says to seek peace because it can be easily hidden. Finding peace is more than saying, “I found it! It’s mine.” We have to pursue it all the time.

You Decide

Experiencing peace boils down to making a decision. Colossians 3:15 (NLT) says, “And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts.” We can allow fear, anxiety, sadness, busyness, strife, and anger to rule. Or we can let peace reign supreme and let it be how we answer every situation and thought. Sometimes it might require more than a daily choice. We may need to make an hourly or even an every-five-minute decision, depending on what we are going through.

LIVING A LIFESTYLE OF PEACE

#RhemaWOF

Mind Control

You may think that living in continual peace sounds great, but you're wondering how you can get to that place. For many, the struggle with staying in peace has everything to do with their mind. Our heart knows that we have the Greater One, the Prince of Peace living inside of us. But our mind gives us problems, because it always wants to side with fear, anxiety, and "what if."

WANT MORE?

This article was adapted from Denise's Winter Bible Seminar 2018 Tuesday morning session. Go to bit.do/continual-peace to watch it in its entirety.

What often keeps us anxious are the imaginations that get lodged in our mind. We start wondering, "What if this happens? What if that happens? And if that happens, is this going to happen?" That is an imagination gone wild!

The remedy for unrestrained thoughts is found in Second Corinthians 10:5, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ."

We can't live in the "what ifs." That's not letting peace rule. If a thought doesn't line up with God's Word, it needs to be cast down and thrown out immediately. This is why spending time in scripture is crucial. If we don't, then we won't have any Word stored in our heart to combat the thoughts that come against us.

Truth or Trash

This is how peace can rule in our heart. It's not going to bubble up inside of us on its own. The enemy will try to bombard our mind with trashy thoughts that aren't true. But we have to determine what's truth and what's trash because the trash is what keeps us out of peace.

Often when scripture talks about peace, it also speaks of joy. Romans 15:13 (NIV) says, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."

When we trust God and let His peace reign in our heart, we will not only have joy, but we will also have hope in the midst of hopeless situations. When we think there is no way that any good can come out of our circumstances, God can turn them around. He finds ways to make good come out of them no matter how hopeless they seem.

First Peter 5:7 (NIV) tells us to "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you." God cares for us. He knows the torment that living in worry and fear can bring. He doesn't want that for us. When we cast our cares on Him, we give Him our concerns, and He gives us His peace. It doesn't get any better than that.

As we let God's peace dominate us and as we keep our eyes on Him—even though things around us may be going crazy—we will

Even if something traumatic isn't going on in our lives, just the busyness of everyday life can conceal our peace.

have peace. Focusing on Jesus causes us to see how He is working in the middle of our storm. He can do things that we've never imagined.

No matter what we face, God wants to be close to us and walk beside us. If we let the peace of God rule in our heart, He will come so close to us that we won't be able to fathom it.

God does not always make our storms go away, but He promised to always be there for us. He has shown us how to have peace, joy, and hope in the middle of our darkest times. All we have to do is choose it. We are one decision away from living a life of continual peace. ♥

CONFESSION OF GOD'S WORD BUILDS FAITH

Timeless Teachings
of Kenneth E. Hagin

WHENEVER THE WORD “confession” is used, we instinctively think of confession of sin. But that is the negative side of the word. There is a positive side, and the Bible has more to say about the positive than the negative.

Confession is stating something we believe in our hearts. It is giving evidence to something we know to be true. It is testifying to a truth we have accepted.

Confession at Work—Preaching the Word

In Mark 16:15, Jesus said, “Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” God works through us by His Word on our lips.

We carry the Word to the lost. If we don’t, then we waste our time praying for God to do something. It would be useless to pray for an unsaved person if we do not carry the Gospel of salvation to him.

In obedience to Christ’s command to go into all the world and preach, the disciples preached the Word everywhere. And the Lord worked with them, confirming the Word with signs following. But He didn’t do anything until the disciples preached the Word.

Signs don’t follow an individual; they follow the Word. Give the Word out, and the signs will take care of themselves. You don’t follow signs. Signs follow the Word.

God moves only in line with His Word and has magnified His Word above His Name (Ps. 138:2). We cannot expect to get help from God if we are taking sides against His Word, even though it may be an unconscious act on our part. We should treat the Word of God with the same reverence we would show to Jesus if He were present with us.

Confession Dispels Fear

Have you ever noticed, when reading the Bible, how many times God told His children to “fear not”?

When Jairus wanted Jesus to heal his daughter, the Lord said to him, “FEAR NOT: believe only, and she shall be made whole” (Luke 8:50). When Jesus preached to His disciples, He said, “FEAR NOT, little flock; for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom” (Luke 12:32).

When the Lord appeared to Isaac in the Old Testament, renewing the covenant He had made with his father Abraham, the Lord said, “FEAR NOT, for I am with thee, and will bless thee” (Gen. 26:24).

If God had just said, “Don’t be afraid,” and had left us there, we might say, “I can’t help being afraid.” Not only did He say, “Fear not,” but He also said, “I am with thee.” Can we really believe He is with us and still be afraid? No, if we are afraid, it is because we doubted Him.

You may be facing a problem that seems impossible. Instead of talking about how impossible it is, look to Him Who is inside you and say, “God is in me now.” You’ll find your confession of faith will cause Him to work on your behalf. He will rise up in you and give you success.

The Master of Creation is in you! You can face life fearlessly because you know that greater is He Who is in you than any forces that may be arrayed against you. This should be your continual confession.

Confession Increases Faith

There is no faith without confession. Confession is faith's way of expressing itself.

Faith, like love, is of the heart—of the spirit. And we know there is no love without word or action. We cannot reason love into people, nor can we reason love out of them. It is of the heart. Since faith is also of the spirit or heart, we can safely say that there is no faith without confession. Faith grows with confession.

Remember, faith never grows beyond your confession.

The confession of the believer does two things for him. First, it identifies him. Second, it sets the boundaries of his life. He will never have more than his confession.

MARK 11:23

23 For verily I say unto you, That WHOSOEVER SHALL SAY unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall BELIEVE THAT THOSE THINGS WHICH HE SAITH shall come to pass; HE SHALL HAVE WHATSOEVER HE SAITH.

If we say we can't do something, then we can't. But if we say we can, then we can. According to Mark 11:23, we can have whatever we say or confess—whether it is belief or unbelief, success or failure, sickness or health.

The reason the majority of Christians—although sincere—are weak is because they have never dared to confess who and what they are in Christ. They must find out how God looks at them and then confess it.

These privileges are found mostly in the New Testament Epistles, because they were written to the Church. When you discover all that God has for you, boldly confess what the Word declares you are in Christ. As you do this, your faith will abound.

The reason faith is held in bondage is that you have never dared to confess what God says you are. Remember, faith never grows beyond your confession. Your daily confession of what the Father is to you, of what Jesus is doing for you now at the right hand of the Father, and of what His Holy Spirit is doing in you will build a solid, positive faith life.

You will not be afraid of any circumstances or diseases. You will face life fearlessly, as a conqueror. And to be a conqueror you must confess you are one: "Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us" (Rom. 8:37).

In Romans 10:10, we see in capsule form God's law of faith: "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." In seeking anything from God, we must first believe in our heart, because the Word said it. Then we must confess with our mouth that it is so.

Believe it; confess it; receive it. "Whosoever shall . . . BELIEVE that those things which he SAITH shall come to pass; he SHALL HAVE WHATSOEVER HE SAITH" (Mark 11:23).

As you study Scripture and learn what the Word says you are, who you are, and what you have in Christ Jesus, start confessing, "Yes, that's mine, according to God's Word." Although it may not seem real to you at first, you will soon find that faith's confession creates reality. ♥

Correspondence Bible School

THE PURPOSE OF RCBS

During the 1960's, Kenneth E. Hagin found that many people attending his meetings did not know the Bible. They were not victorious in life because they were not grounded in the Word. Rev. Hagin saw the need to start a correspondence course so that people who are not called to full-time ministry could grow in their knowledge of the Bible. Rhema Correspondence Bible School helps people accomplish this goal. Students become grounded in the Word of God so they may be a pillar in their church and a lighthouse in their community.

“I see all these people,” says Paul. “They’re all going to go somewhere. I want to make sure they go to Heaven.”

DRIVEN BY COMPASSION

COMPASSION FILLS Paul DeNeui’s heart when he visits nursing homes, assisted care, and mental health facilities. He ministers to those suffering from physical illnesses, many of whom are nearing the end of their lives.

When the residents gather in the facility’s meeting room, a lot of them are hooked up to IVs. It can look like Paul stepped into a hospital intensive care unit rather than the common room of a nursing home. Many are discouraged, lonely, and afraid of life after death.

Paul sees these men and women through the lens of God’s love. He has been commissioned to shine God’s light and bring His everlasting love wherever he goes.

Crisscrossing the beautiful state of Oklahoma in his Nissan Versa, Paul, a 1995 Rhema graduate, visits 38 facilities every month. Compassion moves him to tell men and women about Jesus—their friend, healer, restorer of dreams, and giver of joy and hope. It’s Paul’s mission to make sure they are given the opportunity to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

“I see all these people,” says Paul. “They’re all going to go somewhere. I want to make sure they go to Heaven. This could be the last time I have a chance to talk to them. If they don’t know Christ, that’s critically important.”

Here are the stories of some of the men and women* he has met across the Sooner State.

The Sound of Music Once Again

PAWNEE, OK. Sarah had been a successful opera singer, traveling the world and singing before many. Also an accomplished piano player, she once led praise and worship at a church. Now, far along in her life, Sarah is in a nursing home. For a long time, she didn’t sing or play the piano. She felt like the past was just that—the past.

Whenever Paul visits Sarah’s facility, she listens attentively as he shares who they are in Christ and what Jesus did for them on the cross. One day when they began to sing hymns, Sarah joined in, and the room was filled with a beautiful operatic voice.

Sarah’s face lit up that day. Afterward, she told Paul that when they were singing, she felt like she was ministering along with him.

“She was using her voice again, and she hadn’t done that for a long time,” shares Paul. God dropped in Sarah’s heart a new purpose for her life. No one comes to her nursing home on Sunday to minister. Suddenly, Sarah knew what she could do.

“There’s a piano here,” she said. “I think I’m going to start playing it and leading songs on Sunday afternoons.”

Sarah now blesses her fellow residents every week with her wonderfully dulcet singing.

God restores dreams.

‘He Needs a Miracle!’

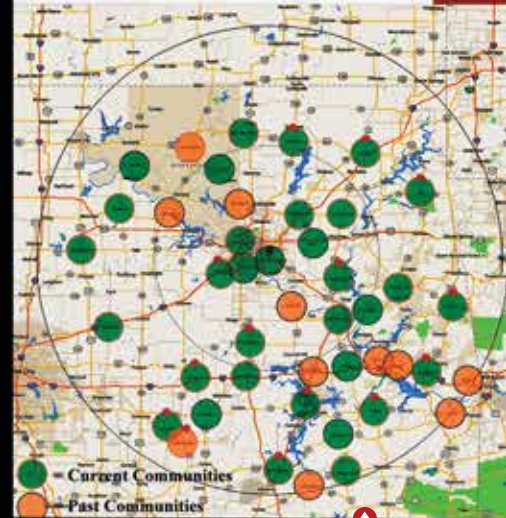

SPIRO, OK. Michael is a regular whenever Paul ministers in his facility. Michael is always in a Geri chair and always has lots of tubes and wires connected to him. His feeble body reflects the destructive effects of disease. A nurse wheels him to the meeting room for the services.

One day as Paul was preaching, Michael stopped breathing. Nurses rushed to his side and quickly wheeled him out of the room.

Of course, this caused a lot of commotion. The residents were in shock.

▶ PAUL TEACHES NURSING HOME RESIDENTS THEY STILL HAVE A RACE TO RUN.

▶ A MAP OF THE COMMUNITIES WHERE PAUL IS SHARING THE GOOD NEWS.

▶ WARNER FACILITY WHERE IT ALL BEGAN.

“Everybody,” Paul said redirecting their attention. “He stopped breathing. He needs a miracle, and we’re going to pray.” Paul prayed and spoke to Michael’s body—that the power of God would flow through it and that he would live and not die.

A few seconds later screams of joy were heard coming from the hallway. Michael had revived!

God gives life to the dead.

Thrilled to Be Baptized

MUSKOGEE, OK. When Susan heard the Good News, she was ecstatic. She wanted everything the Lord had for her.

One day after the service, she anxiously approached Paul wanting to be baptized that day. He was willing but didn’t know where in the facility he could perform the baptism. After checking with the activities director, she took him to a shower room that had a whirlpool tub with a patient lift attached to it.

Perfect! Several residents crowded into the room to watch the special occasion.

Susan was strapped in the chair. The lift raised her up and slowly lowered her into the water.

Paul prayed, and Susan bent forward, lowering her face and head into the water. When she sat back up, she was thrilled, just thrilled!

God sees and provides.

‘I Can Hear God?’

WARNER, OK. While most of the people Paul ministers to are elderly, 15 to 20 percent are younger. They’ve been injured—usually in car accidents—and can’t take care of themselves.

Kerri was in her early 20s when a car accident left her with a broken neck. She had limited use of her hands but could not move her legs at all.

One day Paul was sharing on how to be led by the Spirit of God. After the service, Kerri approached him and said, “I’ve never heard God’s voice.”

“You probably have but didn’t know it,” Paul responded. He began sharing with her the different ways God speaks to us, including getting “checks” in our spirit.

Tears began streaming down Kerri’s face. “I was standing in front of my friend’s house, and they said, ‘We’d be glad to take you home.’ I had that little check not to get in their car. Are you telling me that was God?”

“Yeah,” Paul said soberly. “He was trying to protect you, trying to help you.”

“If I had known that was the voice of God, I wouldn’t be here today.”

The young girl continued coming to Paul’s services. She loved the Lord and grew in her faith. Kerri passed away a few years after meeting Paul. He officiated her funeral.

God makes Himself known.

An Everlasting Love

The compassion of God drives Paul to strengthen the saved and save the lost. He shines the light of the glorious Gospel in the facilities he visits. He does this freely, without charge. Residents are finding hope and healing, and they are finishing their race with joy!♥

THIS IS ONLY A TEST

CRAIG W. HAGIN

WHAT DO YOU do when you're facing trouble? I don't know how I would make it if I didn't have God! Every time it seems like the devil is hitting me left and right, something comes up on the inside—the Word.

My grandfather, Kenneth E. Hagin, always said that the number one reason why people do not get their needs met is they don't read the Bible. God's Word can't make a difference in your life if you're not reading it! If you know the Word, you can act on it and know what to do when you face obstacles.

James 1:2 (NLT) says, "Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy." You will have trouble. That's just life. You will face difficult situations, but each one is an opportunity for great joy!

Choosing Joy

Joy is an emotion. People express joy at sporting events. Throughout the game, they jump up and down, thrilled when their team scores! Are we that joyful about God?

You can choose to have joy even when you don't feel joyful. In adverse circumstances, joy is a choice. How do you choose an emotion? You look at things from a different perspective.

When you look at your situation from a problem or trial standpoint, you won't have joy. All you see is the bad stuff happening around you.

The Bible tells us to look to Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith (Heb. 12:2). When you look to Christ and remember who you are in Him, you'll know that it's not about you. It's about Him. Nowhere in the Word does it tell you to figure out how to get through a trial. It's not your responsibility to lead and guide yourself through adversity. All you need to do is trust God and believe in Him.

When Moses came to the Red Sea, it looked like there was no way out—water in front and the enemy coming from behind. If he had given up, he and the Israelites would have died. But they continued. The sea split open, and they walked right through! Then it closed back on Pharaoh's army.

Without a test, you can't have a testimony.

#RhemaWOF

It comes down to how you see things. What about your situation? If you keep looking to God, you will see a miracle.

Losing Joy

Philippians 4:4 (NLT) says, "Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice!" Notice the word always. It means all the time, in everything always be full of joy—not ordinary human emotion, but the joy of the Lord.

In adverse circumstances, joy is a choice.

It's common in Christian circles to hear someone say, "I've lost my joy." But if you're losing your joy, then you're not always full of joy. Losing joy is not biblical!

In Acts 20:24 Paul says, "But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy." You can't finish your course with joy if you lose it along the way!

The reason we lose our joy is that the thief comes to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10). The enemy wants you to be preoccupied with the test or trial. But God wants you to be full of joy—it's your strength!

When you know who you are in Christ Jesus, you will see things from God's perspective. He will never leave you nor forsake you. Whenever you're facing a test, you're not by yourself. You have the God of the impossible in you! Everything that seems impossible to you is possible with Him, so what are you concerned about?

Testing

When we are traveling on crusades, sometimes we have to set up a sound system. I say into the microphone, "Testing—one, two, three." What am I doing? I'm testing the equipment before the event. Testing is preparation. It isn't the main part.

Many people run into a test, and they quit! But it's only a test. Don't quit during the test! If you do, you're never going to see the things God has for you. And remember, without a test, you can't have a testimony.

In the sports world, there's kind of a test. It's called practice. Some teams probably can win a few games without practicing, but they'll never be champions. They'll never make it to the big game. When you practice, you're ready.

When it comes to the spiritual world, practicing is reading the Word and getting it on the inside. Whatever you put inside comes out when you are squeezed! If words like "I'm a failure" come out of your mouth, the Word is not coming out! Don't let the test stop you from getting where God wants you to be.

Don't Freak Out

Have you ever been watching television and been interrupted by the Emergency Alert System? In the United States, it breaks into TV programming with a series of loud beeping noises followed by the announcement: "This is a test of the Emergency Alert System. This is only a test. If this had been an actual emergency. . . ." Am I afraid? No. I'm never alarmed; I know it's a test.

If you would realize that troubles in life are only tests, you won't freak out. It's about perspective. Remind yourself that it's only a test. Open your mouth, and begin speaking the Word of God that pertains to your situation.

When you know the Word and who you are in Christ Jesus, there will never be an emergency. You'll only have tests, and tests are temporary. Don't get upset, and don't lose your perspective. Know that you are victorious and that you serve a God that loves you! He cares about the details of your life and will make extraordinary things happen when you trust Him. Keep standing on the Word and keep your joy, even in the middle of terrible circumstances!♥

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

REQUESTING AND RECEIVING

AS JESUS was preparing the disciples for His departure, He said to them, "In that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. Until now, you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full" (John 16:23–24 NKJV).

I have used these scriptures as a guideline all my life. I always take whatever requests I have to the Heavenly Father, believing that He will grant them. It is thrilling and deepens my relationship with Him as I see my requests answered.

However, in practicing this, we sometimes predetermine how God will grant our request. Often because of delays or the request not being granted as we thought, we become disappointed and disillusioned.

Recently I presented my request to God. I applied the principles I learned in Mark 11:23–24, "For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, what things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them."

However, the outcome was not what I expected. When this happens, it could shake the faith of a young believer. Being a Christian who has practiced these principles for many years, I continued to trust in my Heavenly Father. I knew that He knows the future and must have a better plan.

As I patiently put my trust and confidence in Him, I experienced a miracle that the Father put together for me. His way was far better than my plan.

Romans 8:28 (NLT) says, "And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them."

Not everything that happens in our lives is good. You have probably heard the saying, "Life is not a bed of roses." I never understood why roses are referred to as an easy life. Although they are beautiful and can smell wonderful, they have thorns. In addition, if you prick your finger by one, it hurts.

We all have our share of trials, struggles, and pains. However, I am so thankful that as we place our trust in the Heavenly Father, He will be with us through every situation in our lives. Not only will He be with us, but He also will lead us safely out of destruction into victory.

I'm reminded of the story in Mark 4:35–41 (NKJV), "On the same day, when evening had come, [Jesus] said to [the disciples], 'Let us cross over to the other side.' Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him. And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, 'Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?'

"Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace, be still!' And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. But He said to them, 'Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?' And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, 'Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!'"

Just remember, God is in your boat of life. No matter what storms you may encounter between the request you make and the answer you receive, if you will keep your faith, trust in God, and do not fear, you will reach the other side safely. God will turn around for your good everything that may seem disastrous at the moment.

I don't know what you are going through, but as I sat down to write this month's "Seed Thoughts," the words flowed. The Lord impressed me to say to you, "Whatever you're going through, just believe Me, and you will go through the situation unharmed and victorious."

Please send me your good report. I love hearing from my readers.♥

ARE YOU A

We all have cares in this life that we are tempted to worry about. But the Bible tells us in 1 Peter 5:7 to cast (or throw) all of our cares upon the Lord. Now, when it comes to throwing off cares, there are three different kinds of people: the Yo-Yos, the Boomerangs, and the Hot Potatoes. The Yo-Yos are the folks who throw off their cares, but they still have a string attached and pull their cares right back to themselves. The Boomerangs throw off their cares, too, but they plan on their cares returning back to them and, sure enough, they always do. But the Hot Potatoes know that if they hold their cares long they'll get burned, so they are quick to throw off their cares and keep them off. Remember this: If YOU hold on to YOUR cares . . . JESUS can't!
