Giving Thanks Is Powerful!

Throughout the United States this month, Thanksgiving is observed. Typically, family and friends gather and turkey dinners abound. Football games blare as we fellowship and gain a few pounds. But most of all, Thanksgiving should be a day when we give thanks to the Lord!

We can thank God for the great things He has done for us. He delivered us from the power of darkness (Col. 1:13), redeemed us from the curse of the law (Gal. 3:13), and gave us access to the throne of grace (Heb. 4:16). Because of what Jesus did at Calvary, we can enjoy all the benefits of God!

One of the most powerful things you can do is thank someone for what you have received from them. Another powerful thing you can do is give thanks for what you're going to receive. That's what faith is! Thanking the Lord for promises that have not yet manifested in your life is an excellent way to demonstrate your trust in Him.

When pain racks your body, begin to thank God that by Jesus' wounds you were healed (1 Peter 2:24). When your pockets are empty, thank Him that He meets all your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus (Phil. 4:19). You're not giving thanks for the problem—you're giving thanks in spite of the problem. But you can't thank Him for long without saying, "Father, it's great to be alive!"

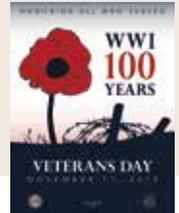

Giving thanks creates power in your life that enables you to overcome any problem. Let's take every opportunity to shout to the Lord with a grateful heart. And this Thanksgiving, remember to thank Him!

From our family to yours, have a blessed Thanksgiving—both in the U.S. and Canada (October 8).

November is also a time when we honor the men and women who have bravely served in the armed forces. If you see someone on active military duty or know a military veteran, let them know how thankful you are for their service to our nation.

Kenneth W. Hagin

VETERANS: Thank you for your service to this country. We know it is because of you that we have our freedom. God bless you.

Special Report:

Known for his ability to shift the atmosphere and bring joy on the scene, Phillip Slaughter shares how God shifted perspective in him.

THE PRISON DOOR IS OPEN

“The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me, because the Lord has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound.”

—ISAIAH 61:1 (NKJV)

KENNETH W. HAGIN

THE PHRASE, “the opening of the prison,” is God’s figurative way of saying that we have been released from the bondage of Satan. That includes sin, sickness, disease, and torment—everything that is involved with Satan’s prison house.

The prison door was opened through the redemptive act of Jesus Christ. And whatever we need—spiritually, mentally, emotionally, or financially—has been provided by that act.

The Truth Sets You Free

Even though the prison door is open, the devil has been successful at keeping countless people inside. Many of them have accepted Christ as their Savior and have received salvation. They have received the spiritual benefits of the redemptive plan of God.

But the devil has kept many of these Christians hoodwinked regarding the physical inheritance that is theirs. He has said to them, “Oh yes, that’s all part of it. But it’s in the sweet by-and-by that you can experience the power of God, healing, and all the other benefits included in your salvation. One of these days—when it’s all over—then these things can be yours.”

Why did Jesus open the prison door for us? According to Moffatt’s translation of Isaiah 61:1, it was “to tell prisoners they are free, to tell captives they are released.”

How did Jesus open the prison door for us? By bearing the punishment for our sins. We see that in Isaiah chapter 53.

Young’s Literal Translation of the Holy Bible records the last part of Isaiah 53:6 as “Jehovah hath caused to meet on him, the punishment of us all.”

In Deuteronomy chapter 28, all sickness is listed among the punishments. And God tells us in Galatians 3:13 that we have been redeemed from those punishments.

In Rotherham’s translation of Isaiah 53:10 we read, “He laid on him sickness.” Matthew 8:17 (NKJV) says, “He Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses.”

The Debt Is Paid

Jesus paid our debt. And because He did, we do not have to pay it.

The verdict had been reached—man sinned and fell short of the glory of God. A great redemption would be required if man was ever going to fellowship with God again.

Thank God, Jesus stepped up and said, “I’ll endure the pain of the cross. I’ll endure the stripes on My back. I’ll endure the crown of thorns on My head. I’ll endure the shameful death of sin and disease so mankind can be free.”

Today we don’t have to suffer, because Jesus Christ suffered for us!

How then are we going to get out of this prison? The first and most important thing is to know that the door is open!

Freedom Scriptures

Jeremiah 1:12 (ESV) says the Lord watches over His Word to perform it. Take time every day to meditate on these scriptures and speak your freedom in Christ!

2 CORINTHIANS 3:17 (AMP)

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty [emancipation from bondage, true freedom].

JOHN 8:36 (AMPC)

36 So if the Son liberates you [makes you free men], then you are really and unquestionably free.

ROMANS 6:22 (NIV)

22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life.

ROMANS 8:1-2 (NIV)

1 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus,

2 because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you free from the law of sin and death.

PSALM 119:45 (NLT)

45 I will walk in freedom, for I have devoted myself to your commandments.

Right thinking creates right believing. And right believing creates actions that will release us from prison.

Don't allow the enemy to deceive you with his lies any longer. Begin to renew your mind with the truth of God's Word. Meditate on it, and speak it over your life. As you do, you'll begin to experience the freedom that is yours in Christ. 🛡️

If you think you are locked in a room but have not checked the door, you could sit there for hours wishing you could get out. You may have heard a "click" when the door closed. And you simply accepted what you heard as the door locking instead of walking over and checking it.

Faith must know what the Word says before it can act.

What did Jesus say in Luke 4:18 (NKJV)? "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach." Moffatt's translation of the Old Testament counterpart of this verse reads, "The Lord Eternal . . . has consecrated me, and sent me with good news for wretched men . . . to tell prisoners they are free, to tell captives they are released" (Isa. 61:1).

Bound No More

Jesus is saying, "I have opened the prison doors. You don't have to be bound anymore."

Jesus also used the word bound when a crippled woman came into the synagogue. He said, "Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound . . . be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?" (Luke 13:16 NKJV).

Satan is the one who bound mankind in sickness. But Jesus redeemed us and set us free!

All sickness is called "oppression." Acts 10:38 (NKJV) tells us, "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him."

Faith must be in two places before we can get out of prison. Romans 10:8 (NKJV) says that the word of faith "is near you, in your mouth and in your heart."

What is Paul talking about? He's saying that he speaks with his mouth the things he believes in his heart.

If our thinking is wrong, we'll remain in prison, even if we know the door is open.

A NEW PERSPECTIVE

PHILLIP SLAUGHTER ▶

The atmosphere did an about-face, and the entire spirit of the service changed.

WAILS PIERCED the air incessantly. The church was filled with mourners distraught over the untimely death of a loved one. Nurses were on hand to attend to those overcome with grief. But neither they nor the preachers could calm the atmosphere.

Phillip Slaughter—a 1989 RBTC graduate and 1993–2004 Rhema Singers & Band member—was a classmate of the deceased woman. He was slated to sing at her funeral, number four on the program. Three ministers preceding him were unable to quiet the pandemonium of screams, tears, and despair. Phillip wasn't surprised by the anguish expressed, but he knew that God had something better than sorrow and heartache to bring to this gathering.

"God, how can I sing in this chaos?" he silently pleaded. "What should I do?" Phillip got quiet and dug a little deeper into his heart to hear God's voice. As he took the microphone, he knew what to do. But instead of singing, he began to speak.

"It's joy time now," Phillip stated with simplicity and compassion. "Scripture says that 'weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.' It's important before you leave this place today that you know how to tap into the joy of the Lord." The initial words did not seem to have much impact.

His voice cut through the commotion with bold authority, "Now everybody say JOY because that's where we're going. We're going toward joy." The Holy Spirit and the congregation kicked in!

Phillip continued, inspired with just the right words to lift people's hearts, "She came to this altar and gave her heart to the Lord just a few weeks ago. Think about the fullness of joy that she's enjoying right now! Now everybody say JOY and let's celebrate with her!"

The atmosphere did an about-face, and the entire spirit of the service changed. Reflecting on that day he thought, "I could have created a riot!" But instead, God did what He does so often through Phillip—shift the atmosphere and help people experience a new perspective.

PHILLIP MINISTERED WITH RHEMA SINGERS & BAND FOR 11 YEARS.

NOW PHILLIP MINISTERES AROUND THE WORLD AND BRINGS GOD'S FREEDOM TO PEOPLE EVERYWHERE HE GOES.

A Shift in Perspective

One very personal experience shifted Phillip's perspective forever. As he took the stage to sing before a well-known minister preached, he was already aware that he shouldn't get the service "all ramped up." With the mellow teaching style to follow, he wasn't surprised when he felt led to sing "Amazing Grace."

As the melody floated through the auditorium, Phillip felt as if he came out of his body. He watched himself sing from a place high up in the air. It was as if God said, "I want you to see from My perspective. I want you to see the anointing that I've placed on your life. It will manifest in this environment."

Enveloped in what he can only describe as a "God place," Phillip recalls a total shift in the service. Instead of preaching, the minister received words of knowledge for people and ministered powerfully to those who were sick.

Many approached Phillip afterward and said, "Something happened with you. Your singing was different!" But he didn't share what occurred with anyone. He knew by listening to Kenneth E. Hagin talk about similar experiences that such things should be treated as sacred.

Phillip laughs, "I still don't know how to explain it to this day!" Yet that unexplainable, sacred moment marked his life and ministry. "It took the 'entertainment side' out of me," he says. Whenever the temptation to perform rises, an internal reminder rings, "No, this is a 'God thing.' This is the anointing on me."

Shifting away from performance and into God's perspective has become a way of life for Phillip. Not only does he personally live this way, but it is how God uses him to draw other singers, musicians, and ministers into deeper things. Phillip goes there first and lets them see another place.

Healing Encounters

In another perspective shift, God challenged Phillip and said, "You've been around healing. When are you going to do something?" Traveling in ministry with Kenneth E. Hagin and others, Phillip was familiar with the tremendous healing anointing on their lives.

Even so, Phillip had never really flowed in ministry along those lines, and the Lord's question was a challenge for him.

But God wouldn't let the matter rest and reminded him of the people suffering with sickness at his home church. God kept speaking inside, "You have something. When are you going to use it?"

As a result, Healing Encounters began. Phillip's gentle simplicity shines as he describes the premise. "There's no hype, no music, nothing. It's as elementary as possible, even down to the wording. We're just doing the basics. 'God is good.' 'God's not mad at you.' And we see people get healed."

Each encounter is usually three days with a one-hour teaching each day. Phillip focuses on God's Word from the standpoint of what it can do for people when they're not at church. He shows them how to tap into the Word for themselves.

Unless the Holy Spirit leads, there is no laying on of hands or personal ministry. Phillip presents a practical perspective to the attendees: "This is what you get when you're lying at home, not feeling well, and you open the Bible. There's just the sound of your voice reading, 'The Lord is my Shepherd.' This is how you're going to recover."

Testimony after testimony comes back as people learn to work one-on-one with the Word of God. Tumors disappear. Hips are healed. Surgeries are no longer needed. Kidneys are working.

One woman came to the sessions in the late stages of cancer. She was in bad shape, but she grabbed on to the Word. The sessions made it easy for her to see that healing was already "done." She stopped "trying to get it." Her perspective shifted, and she learned to walk in what Jesus finished. She is totally cancer free today!

Another woman came to Healing Encounters barely able to move. Everyone there saw God's goodness work in her. The cane she relied on is now a thing of the past. She's excited and can't get enough of saying the phrase, "God is good!"

More to Come

Those familiar with Phillip's ministry know that a shift into joy often blossoms wherever he goes. Whether he plants the Word through music, teaching, or demonstrations of the Spirit of God (which could be anything from prophecy to prayer to miraculous breakthrough), people experience newfound freedom. ♥

God's Healing Mercies

Timeless Teachings
of Kenneth E. Hagin

MANY PEOPLE have the wrong impression about the nature and character of God. They imagine Him as some mean fellow sitting up in Heaven with a big flyswatter. They think the minute they make a mistake God is going to swat them!

Psalm 145:8–9 tells us that God is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger, and great in mercy to all people. The phrase, “full of compassion,” can also be translated merciful. In other words, to be merciful means to be full of compassion.

Many people think of God's mercy only in relation to salvation for sinners. Thank God, His mercy is extended to them, but there's more to God's mercy than just the provision of salvation for sinners.

Healing is also a manifestation of God's mercy. Looking at the miracles of Jesus in the Gospels, we see how He was moved with compassion toward a suffering humanity. The story of the leper in Mark 1:40–41 shows how compassion moved Jesus to heal the leper. The word compassion could also mean “tender mercy.” One definition of mercy is “a blessing that is an act of divine favor or compassion.” In other words, compassion or mercy was what motivated Jesus to heal that leper and make him clean again.

If you will begin to see healing as a mercy of God and not try to base obtaining healing on works or anything else but your faith in God's mercy, you will make progress in your walk with God.

Psalm 145:9 says, “The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.” Are you one of God's “works”? If you are in Christ (Eph. 2:10), you are God's workmanship—one of God's works. The Bible says that His mercy is over you!

If you read through the Book of Psalms, you'll see how the psalmists often wrote about God's goodness and mercy. They always magnified this aspect of God's nature and character.

Another manifestation of God's mercy is seen in the Old Testament. We see in Second Chronicles 5:13 how the trumpeters and singers were as one praising and thanking God. They lifted up their voices saying, “For he is good; for his mercy endureth forever.”

What happens when you magnify God's goodness and mercy? Verse 13 and 14 go on to say, “the house was filled with a cloud . . . So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud.” Their praises brought a manifestation of God's glory and power.

YOU CAN'T COME IN CONTACT WITH THE mercy of God WITHOUT
IT AFFECTING YOUR LIFE.

God's Compassion and Mercy

While returning to Tulsa on I-70, a 2017 Rhema USA graduate came across a horrendous accident. It involved a semi-truck and a man that committed suicide by running into the path of the oncoming truck. Our hearts go out to individuals who feel their situation is so hopeless. Yet from the following testimony, we see how God extended His hand of mercy to a man in his final moments.

"I was driving home when cars in front of me began veering around something. As I got closer, I saw a man lying in the middle of the road. I felt strongly impressed by the Lord to stop and help. I knew this was a kingdom moment.

"I was the first one on the scene. The man was in terrible shape. His body looked damaged beyond repair, and he was bleeding profusely. But he was still breathing. A sense of urgency arose in my spirit, and I heard, 'Minister salvation right now!'

"I leaned down and loudly said, 'Hey brother, right now, you need to accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior.' The man began making noises as if he were trying to talk. I said, 'As I pray, you pray this in your mind, and pray from your heart. Repeat after me.' I led him in the sinner's prayer.

"About that time, a police officer arrived. I stepped back as he began administering first aid. Then I heard the officer say to the man, 'Don't leave me. Stay with me.' He began performing CPR. Firefighters and paramedics then arrived on the scene. The paramedics took over but weren't able to resuscitate him.

"When I went back to my vehicle, I was hit with a note of victory—a note of peace. Reflecting on the situation, I received a greater revelation of the love and tenderhearted mercy of God. The extent that He will go for one person. God's mercy really does endure forever."

—Brett

The Glory Cloud

Many times in my meetings I found that in magnifying God's mercy, especially His healing mercy, I would see the glory of God. I particularly remember one time in Colorado where the glory was evident. After I closed that meeting and returned to Tulsa, I received a letter from a woman who had attended the services with her husband.

She said her husband had a severe heart condition and, medically speaking, was beyond help. This woman went on to relate that her husband didn't want to attend the meeting, but she kept after him until he finally agreed to go.

The woman wrote, "Almost the entire time you were preaching, my husband kept saying, 'I don't believe a word of it! He's just hypnotizing those people.'" The woman said she just prayed quietly for her husband.

She wrote, "You stepped back onto the platform, waved your hand, and people started falling under the power of God. My husband said, 'It's going all over me!'"

The woman asked him what he meant. He answered, "That power he's talking about! It's going all over me."

The man was healed by God's healing mercy! He went back to the heart specialist for an examination and was told, "Somebody up there likes you. You have a brand-new heart!" The woman who wrote me the letter said, "My husband is a new man, not only new physically, but also new spiritually! He's been born again!"

You can't come in contact with the mercy of God without it affecting your life. Through faith in God and His Word, you can receive the mercies of God that include forgiveness of sins, healing for your body, and deliverance from anything that would oppress you. You can obtain whatever you need from your Heavenly Father because He is the Father of mercies!♥

Rhema's Healing School Q&A

HEALING SCHOOL is a place where the sick are healed through the teaching of the Word. Trained Healing Technicians, who are sensitive to the flowing of the Spirit of God, minister God's Word to those who attend. And they expect every person to be healed.

When speaking of Healing School, Kenneth E. Hagin said, "Come and stay until you get healed and have your faith built up enough to stay healed." If you are thinking about coming to Healing School, here are answers to our most frequently asked questions.

WHAT HAPPENS IN A HEALING SCHOOL SESSION?

Morning Healing School covers faith, healing, and other subjects. Teaching is coupled with one-on-one ministry by the Healing Technicians. Those who attend benefit from an up-close, personal touch. They can ask questions and receive help with specific needs.

When Rhema Bible Training College is in session, afternoon Healing School includes praise and worship. Like morning Healing School, it is geared to help people receive their healing—now!

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO ATTEND?

Healing School is offered free of charge.

WHO CAN ATTEND?

Morning sessions of Healing School are open only to the sick and those who accompany them. Afternoon sessions are open to the public.

WHEN IS HEALING SCHOOL HELD?

Healing School runs morning and afternoon sessions year-round. Morning meetings are held at 9:30 a.m. in the Prayer and Healing Center.

Afternoon sessions are held at 2:15 p.m. From September through May, afternoon Healing School meets in the Student Development Center 1 (SDC 1). From June through August, the sessions are held in the Prayer and Healing Center.

HOW LONG SHOULD I COME FOR?

We recommend that you attend for at least a week and encourage you to stay for as many days as possible.

DO YOU PROVIDE CHILDCARE?

No. Childcare is not provided during Healing School services. To help you receive the most out of every session, we recommend that you arrange childcare for infants and small children.

MY CHILD IS IN NEED OF HEALING. CAN HE OR SHE COME TO HEALING SCHOOL?

Yes. If your child needs healing, you may bring him or her to Healing School to receive personal ministry. Or, if you prefer, you may attend alone.

HOW DO I REGISTER?

Registration is not needed for afternoon Healing School. Those who attend morning Healing School will register in the Prayer and Healing Center before the session.

DO YOU HAVE ANY LODGING ON THE RHEMA CAMPUS?

No. People who attend Healing School must obtain their own lodging and transportation. There are several hotels close to the campus where you can stay while you are here.♥

"The doctors told me I would never give birth because of a fibroid tumor that blocked my entire womb. After coming to the morning Healing School, I WAS COMPLETELY HEALED. I thank God Who has made it possible for me to give birth!" —MALITHA

"I suffered from depression, severe intestinal pain, and back and neck pain for many weeks. I attended morning Healing School where I received the Word and hands were laid on me. IT'S ALL GONE! Praise God!" —GEORGE

"I had ringing in both of my ears for a couple of decades because of ear damage. After hands were laid on me, there is NO MORE RINGING IN BOTH EARS!" —SHARON

"WE MUST SEE OURSELVES IN CHRIST! HE HAS ACCOMPLISHED ALL THAT WE NEED! Healing is ours! AND WE MUST TAKE WHAT IS OURS. BY HIS STRIPES WE ARE HEALED (1 PETER 2:24)."

THE POWER OF WORDS

You have to entirely believe that your situation will change when you speak to it.

#RhemaWOF

HAVE YOU EVER noticed when Jesus spoke, circumstances changed? His words healed the sick, withered a fig tree, and quieted a raging storm. He didn't lay hands on anyone or say a prayer in these situations. Jesus simply spoke and it happened. Do you know you can do the same? Let's look at three times where Jesus spoke and things changed.

The Servant

The first account is of a Roman centurion in the village of Capernaum. (See Matthew 8:5–13 NLT.) The officer was seeking help for his ailing and paralyzed servant. When he saw Jesus, the officer went to Him. He told Jesus the terrible pain his servant was in and begged Jesus to heal him. Jesus replied, "I will come and heal him" (v. 7 NLT).

The officer thinking of his own faults and weaknesses said, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come into my home" (v. 8 NLT).

Before we go any further, it is important to know that what the centurion said is bad theology. It's not okay to feel unworthy based on your mistakes and failures. It doesn't matter what mistakes you have made or how bad you have been; you are worthy to have the Lord come to your house. You are worthy because He died for your sins, and He loves you.

The account of Jesus and the Roman officer continues. The officer believed there was something Jesus could do that was just as effective as coming to his house. "Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed" (v. 8 NLT).

Jesus was amazed. He had never seen faith like this in all of Israel. Everywhere Jesus went people were begging, "Jesus, touch me! Jesus, heal me!" But all the officer wanted was a word. He understood authority. He knew that Jesus only had to speak the word, and it would change the problem.

"Go back home," Jesus said. "Because you believed, it has happened" (v. 13 NLT). The soldier's servant was healed that same hour.

The Storm

Another account also happened in Capernaum. (See Matthew 8:23–27 NLT.) Jesus and His disciples were in a boat when a fierce storm arose. Jesus was sound asleep. The disciples woke Him up saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown" (v. 25 NLT).

Jesus said, "Why are you afraid? You have so little faith!" He then "got up and rebuked the wind and waves, and suddenly there was a great calm" (vs. 26 NLT).

Everything quieted down when Jesus spoke. Why? Because He believed that what He said would happen. Jesus didn't think it might happen or say it would be nice if it did happen. He was fully convinced that whenever He told the waves to calm down, they would. And Jesus got what He believed.

Jesus gave us this same authority. We can imitate Him and get the same results. He tells us this in John 14:12 (NLT), “I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works, because I am going to be with the Father.”

We can do the same things Jesus did. Our circumstances will change when we speak to them. Jesus gave us His power and authority to speak in His Name.

The Fig Tree

While in Bethany, Jesus saw a fig tree that wasn't bearing fruit and cursed it. (See Mark 11:12–14, 19–25 NLT.) He said, “May no one ever eat your fruit again” (v. 14 NLT) and walked away with His disciples.

The following day the disciples saw the fig tree had withered away. Shocked, Peter told Jesus, “The fig tree you cursed has withered and died!” (v. 21 NLT). Jesus used this opportunity to teach His disciples that they can speak to anything and see it change.

“Have faith in God,” Jesus said. “I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. But you must really believe it will happen and have no doubt in your heart” (v. 22–23 NLT).

While sharing this, Jesus pointed to a literal mountain. He wanted His disciples to understand that even if they had the biggest problem imaginable, it could be destroyed through their faith by the words they speak.

Jesus told them not to have any doubt in their hearts. If you don't think anything is going to happen when you speak to your situation, you have doubt in your heart. If you are only 85 percent there, there is still doubt. You have to entirely believe that your situation will change when you speak to it.

Speak to Your Mountain

Do you have a mountain you need to move? A body that needs to be healed? Why don't you speak to your situation now?

God is waiting on you. He is waiting for you to get bold and say, “I'm tired of this mountain sitting here. I'm tired of looking at it. I'm tired of the pressure.” Now speak to it. It doesn't matter whether it's a physical, financial, or an emotional mountain—big or small—it has to move when you speak.

It's not up to you to figure out how the mountain is going to move. God will take care of that. Trust Him. He will move your mountain. All you have to do is speak to it. And in the same way that Jesus' spoken words healed the paralyzed servant, withered a fig tree, and quieted a violent storm, your words will change your situation. ♡

Commanding Power

KENNETH W. HAGIN

THE SAME JESUS who sailed on the Sea of Galilee and walked the streets of Jerusalem is alive today. He's still doing the same things now that He did then! If He is not, you and I are sadly mistaken. If God and Jesus are not the same today as they were yesterday, and if they will not be the same tomorrow as they are today, we are fooling ourselves.

Not only is Jesus Christ the same today, the gifts and operations of God are also just as strong today as they were in the Early Church!

People wonder why we aren't seeing what the Bible says: that we would do greater works than Jesus did (John 14:12). It's because Christians are not moving in all the gifts of the Spirit. We are operating in a few of the gifts—prophecy, tongues, and interpretation—but we are letting the other gifts lay by the side of the road. WE NEED TO FAN THE FIRE OF REVIVAL WITH THE MIGHTY HOLY SPIRIT until we have the moving of the gifts of the Spirit so the Word will work as it's supposed to!

Pray? Confess? Or Command?

We talk about who we are in Christ, how much faith we have, and what we can believe God for. That's good. But why don't we start doing what the Bible says to do?

I'm not depreciating the need for prayer, but when we rise from prayer, believing we have been heard, we must do what Jesus did in John 11:41–43. He went to the grave of Lazarus and commanded Lazarus to come forth. Notice that He didn't pray!

When Peter looked at the beggar at the gate called Beautiful, he didn't pray, "O Lord, heal this man." Instead he said, "I can't give you money, but I'll give you what I have." He then commanded, "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk" (Acts 3:6).

THERE IS A "COMMANDING POWER" THAT EVERY SPIRIT-FILLED, BLOOD-BOUGHT CHILD OF GOD IS CAPABLE OF OPERATING IN. People run from place to place wanting to hear the Word. They run from one prayer meeting to another. Then they wonder why nothing is happening for them. I'll tell you why! After they've heard and prayed, they haven't commanded anything to happen!

Commanding is different than making confessions. Throughout the pages of the Gospels, we see Jesus commanding. In Mark chapter 4, when the disciples woke Jesus during the storm on the Sea of Galilee, did He get up and hold a prayer meeting? No, He looked out across the water and commanded, "Peace, be still" (v. 39).

When Jesus drove the money-changers out of the temple, the Bible says that He made a whip, turned over tables, and commanded the merchants to get out of His Father's house! (See John 2:13–17.)

Don't Be Pushed Around

When we deal with evil spirits, we must command them. If we don't, we will get run over. We can't quietly meditate and ask Jesus to do something. The devil will rake us over the coals.

No, when we learn who we are in Christ and how to use the gifts of the Spirit properly, we can tell the devil, "Get out of here! Desist in your operations!" Once we learn about the authority we have in Christ and begin to command, we won't be pushed around by the devil.

We can use the Name of Jesus. We have been given the highest Name that has ever been known to mankind. Through a power of attorney, it belongs to us. It's up to us whether Satan rules and reigns!

WE DON'T NEED TO BE AFRAID OF THE DEVIL. We've been doing a lot of praying and a lot of confessing, but we haven't been commanding. It's fun to command! Satan has blinded our eyes regarding our right to command. Jesus made it plain that we have the power to do it (Luke 10:19). God is waiting for us to act. ♡

The Team That Conquers Sickness

DOUG JONES

THE STORY of the paralytic in Luke chapter 5 has been a favorite of mine for years. I have marveled at the determination of these men and how they tried every possible means to enter the home where Jesus was.

LUKE 5:17-20 (NKJV)

17 Now it happened on a certain day, as He [Jesus] was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him.

19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst before Jesus.

20 When He saw their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

Can you imagine how this group must have felt when they were not allowed into the house because of the crowd? Most people would have stopped there, turned around, and gone home. But it was very apparent THESE MEN KNEW THAT HELP FOR THEIR FRIEND WAS INSIDE!

Suddenly, one of the men had the unconventional idea of climbing up on the roof, cutting a hole in it, and lowering the paralyzed man before Jesus! Verse 20 tells us of Jesus' reaction to this very unusual sight. It says, "When He saw their faith, He said to him, 'Man, your sins are forgiven you.'"

For years I have been captivated by the statement, "WHEN HE SAW THEIR FAITH." I concluded that the only thing involved with the man's healing was their faith. But after reading this account more closely, I discovered that TWO THINGS WORKED TOGETHER TO FREE HIM FROM HIS DISEASE. Not only was faith present, but in verse 17, it also mentions that "the power of the Lord was present to heal."

The Unbeatable Team

What was the power that was present? It must have been healing power because it healed the man!

Therefore, we must conclude that his healing was the result of faith and the healing power of God working together! THIS COMBINATION KNOWS NO FAILURE. No sickness can remain dominant in a person when faith and God's healing power team up and work together!

When our faith connects with God's power, recovery from sickness and disease begins! There was only one thing in those men's lives that kept their faith from teaming up with the power—the roof. It probably took some time and effort, but the obstacle was removed.

Anything standing between our faith and God's power must be identified and "ripped apart" if we expect to be free from sickness in our body. It may not be a roof, but most of us have something between our faith and the healing power, and that is a lack of knowledge.

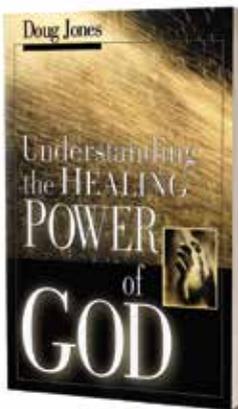

Ignorance concerning this second member of the healing team has been a reason many have failed to be freed from their infirmities.

I will never forget a woman who attended one of my services. As I spoke with her, she made a statement that I will never allow myself to forget. She said, "I REFUSE TO BE DESTROYED BECAUSE I DON'T KNOW!" May we all have the same determination and "tear off the roof" that stands between our faith and the healing power of God. Remember, this team never loses! ♠

CAMP MEETING

Campmeeting 2018 was a time of breakthrough and new beginnings. God's presence permeated the Rhema campus. People from across the United States and around the world came to feed on God's Word and experience the refreshing of the Holy Spirit. From Summer Blitz to Rhema Kids to the adult services, all ages experienced encounters with God. Here are some highlights from the week.

A Supernatural Breakthrough

KENNETH W. HAGIN

"The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

—Luke 18:27 (NKJV)

God specializes in the impossible. He comes through when all your hope is gone and breaks you out of the enemy's traps. Supernatural breakthrough is possible! God wants to break you out of your circumstances. When He speaks, things tremble. It's time to let the power of God bring you to a supernatural breakthrough. Victory is possible. Many people wonder when their situation will change. Instead of asking why, you must rise up and take hold of your victory. David faced many obstacles in his life, but he triumphed over them all. The same God that was with David is with you. God will deliver you!

Hear God's Voice

"Are you practicing your purpose? Be faithful with what God has for you now. Are you in the proper position? Eliminate distractions in your life. Are you in the proper place? Stay close to God. He has plans for you that you don't even know! If you practice the purpose that He has right now, He will lead you every step of the way—one step at a time." // LYNETTE HAGIN

Only Believe

"By Jesus' stripes you were healed (1 Peter 2:24). You already have been healed. You already have been set free. There is no question about whether you're going to get healed. You can't go get something you already have! John 14:14 (NLT) says, 'Ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.' Start saying what you want. It's that simple. Only believe." // CRAIG W. HAGIN

Pray Honest Prayers

"God wants us to bring our frustrations, disappointments, expectations, failures, dreams, anger, anxiety, and sadness and cast it on Him. Unload it on Him! GOD DOESN'T WANT THE 'POLITE YOU' HE WANTS THE REAL YOU. Until you are able to be transparent and get really honest with God, you've never fully opened up your heart to Him. And that is what He wants more than anything—your whole heart." // DENISE HAGIN BURNS

SPEAKERS

“THE HOLY SPIRIT TAKES THE WRITTEN WORD OF GOD AND WRITES IT ON THE TABLET OF OUR HEARTS. He’ll cause the Word to come alive on the inside of us and empower us to speak it out and walk it out. Then it will start to materialize in our lives.”

// CHARLES COWAN

“ ‘Behold, I will do a new thing’ (Isa. 43:19). It’s happening right now! GOD IS OPENING NEW DOORS. Don’t keep going over old things from your past. Forget about it. HE WILL USE YOU IN NEW WAYS AND GIVE YOU NEW STRENGTH AND ANOINTING. He can change everything!”

// MARK HANKINS

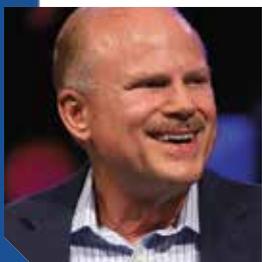

“It is God’s will for us to run our race to win. DETERMINE THAT NOTHING IS GOING TO STOP YOU FROM GETTING TO THE FINISH LINE. There will be some battles and hindrances but keep running no matter what it looks like. Be in it to win it!”

// DARRELL HUFFMAN

“Learn to minister to the Lord. When you’re singing psalms, hymns, or songs of praise, you create an atmosphere. IN ACTS 13:2, THEY CREATED THE ATMOSPHERE, THEN THE HOLY GHOST SPOKE. Sometimes the Lord is waiting on us. Take time and set the atmosphere—worship, reverence, and bless Him.”

// BILL RAY

“The way your spirit becomes the dominant force of your life is through your mouth. The Holy Spirit moves based on the words you speak. If you say what you see, you will see what you say. CONFESSION BUILDS A ROAD OVER WHICH YOUR FAITH CARRIES ITS MIGHTY CARGO.”

// DAVID SHEARIN

“Each time I attend Campmeeting, it causes my faith to grow deeply. I find myself at another level with the Lord.” // IKECHUKWU

“I volunteer because youth leaders changed my life—the same with Summer Blitz. It changed my life every single time. So I want to help other kids have that experience too.” // GREYSON

“Campmeeting reminds me of the importance of staying connected and feeding your faith.” // LARONDA

“[Summer Blitz] literally helps spread the Gospel to all four corners of the earth. People from all corners are coming here, and they are going to go back and spread what happened. It means so much to me because I get to be a part of that.”

// PRECIOUS

SUMMER BLITZ: CLIMB

Summer Blitz 2018 was an anointed week of worship and ministry for hundreds of young people. The speakers inspired and challenged the 6th through 12th graders throughout the week to climb higher and go to new heights in their relationship with God.

During one session, the following was prayed over students as they committed to pursuing God's plan for their lives.

"I pray the fire of the Holy Spirit would begin to burn in these young people beyond anything they conceived or imagined. I pray the Holy Ghost would sanctify this generation. Take these young people and fill them with Your glory, Your Word, and Your Spirit. Turn them loose in this world! In this room are the next great missionaries, evangelists, healing ministers, teaching ministries, and pastors." ♥

"YOU HAVE TO CONQUER FEAR BEFORE YOU GET TO ENJOY THE DESTINY GOD HAS FOR YOU. Whatever desire God has put on the inside, you need to go after it. It doesn't matter what stands in your way." // D.K. HALL

"OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT SHOULD BE MORE INTIMATE THAN THE DISCIPLES' RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS. We are supposed to rely on the Holy Spirit. It's in His DNA to be our helper, comforter, and counselor."

// BRAYDEN BLAUW

"Whatever struggle you are going through, God is with you. GOD WILL NOT FORSAKE YOU NOR GIVE UP ON YOU. You may not sense His presence, but as long you've accepted Christ in your heart, the Holy Spirit will never leave you." // CHRIS CAMPBELL

"Live a life against the grain. Be intentional about your relationship with God. DO THINGS ON PURPOSE THAT WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH HIM. No person can do for you what God can do for you." // KATY CAPLE

"Shame will tell you that you're not worthy to be in God's presence. But Psalm 34:18 (NLT) says, 'The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; he rescues those whose spirits are crushed.' WHEN YOU FLEE FROM GOD'S PRESENCE, HE PURSUES AFTER YOU." // MIKE CAPLE

"Whatever God's called you to do will be something you're going to enjoy. You can make an impact on people's lives. THE WORLD IS WAITING FOR YOU TO USE YOUR GIFT!" // SMILEY ELMORE JR.

"The way you climb high is by going low. God resists the proud but exalts the humble. He designed you to be a person of influence. GO INTO ALL THE WORLD AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE TO FOLLOW GOD." // KAIRA MCKINNON

"Life is a series of climbs. If you're not climbing, you're not growing. YOU CAN MAKE YOUR OWN PLANS, BUT THE LORD ORDERS YOUR STEPS. God can do a lot with a heart that trusts Him." // ASHLEY MORRIS

"There is a cost to climb. When you give God everything you are, He can give you everything He is. THE MOMENT YOU BECOME OBEDIENT IS WHEN GOD CAN BEGIN TO BLESS YOU." // ZACH MORRIS

"The Holy Spirit wants to have a place in your heart. He wants to become real to you, guide you, and speak to you. You have a purpose and a destiny. You're going to need supernatural help to fulfill that destiny." // KIRK DUBOIS

"What kind of impact will you have on other people's lives? Set a high standard in every area of your life. When you set the standard high, people will look up to you. You're not too young to be used by God." // JOE DUINICK

"Before the world began, God loved you. That means before you became a Christian, prayed a prayer, or read your Bible, God already made a decision to love you. That's something to base your life on." // TAD GREGURICH

"God never sets you up for failure. He always sets you up for success. Temptation is the work of the devil. You can win against the devil and temptation every time. There's always a way out." // TONY MCKINNON

"God is love, and people are attracted to love. You can't be love and be like the world. How do you get yourself out of conformity? The most powerful thing you can do is make your life God-governed." // DAN TAYLOR

Thoughts

// LYNETTE HAGIN

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."

BEING GRATEFUL

LIFE CAN GET rough at times. At the end of a bad day or even a bad week, you might feel as though everything in your life is falling apart. Nothing is going right, and you are overwhelmed. In those moments, you can become fixated on the negative circumstances facing you.

No one is immune from the feelings that come to them. You may be thinking, "Lynette, you mean you have experienced those feelings or thoughts too!" Of course, I have. I am human just like you. But how you deal with those feelings and thoughts determine whether you become a victim or a victor. Depression can consume you, or you can rise above the situation and become a conqueror.

Time and again in this column, I have emphasized the importance of listening to the Holy Spirit. My thoughts go back to one day in a really bad week. Everything that could happen seemed to have happened that week. I had some physical symptoms in my body. I had gotten very little sleep, and my desk was piled high with work that required many decisions. To top it off, I was also a mediator between several employees who were at odds with each other.

I had taken all I could take that week and still remain sane and positive. When I opened my mail that day, I encountered what we call "the last straw." Someone wrote the ministry complaining about one of our graduates. The letter was hurtful. It accused us of not training our students properly.

In these circumstances, I have learned the best person to vent to is the Lord. I had a royal pity party with God. I said to Him, "Lord, my husband and I have worked ourselves to the bone training these students, and all they are doing is messing up." I felt sorry for myself and continued grumbling for several minutes.

After a while, I stopped and sat at my desk in silence. For God to speak to us, we have to take time to listen. As I was sitting quietly, the Lord began to ask me some questions. Oftentimes in the Bible, Jesus answered people's questions with a question.

"How many graduates are you talking about?" He asked.

This was not the first time I had received a letter like that. So in detail, I proudly told God about every graduate I had received a complaint about. I named ten incidents.

The Lord asked, "Is that all the complaints you know of?"

I emphatically answered, "Yes Lord!"

"How many students have graduated from Rhema?"

I was good with statistics and quickly gave Him that information. This was many years ago, and I loudly said, "10,000 Lord, 10,000!" God knew I am good at math and proceeded to ask, "What percentage is that?"

If there had been a hole below my desk, I think I would have crawled in it. I realized what a mountain I had made out of a molehill. I was looking at the wrong percentage. I had received 10 bad reports, but we had 9,990 graduates with good reports.

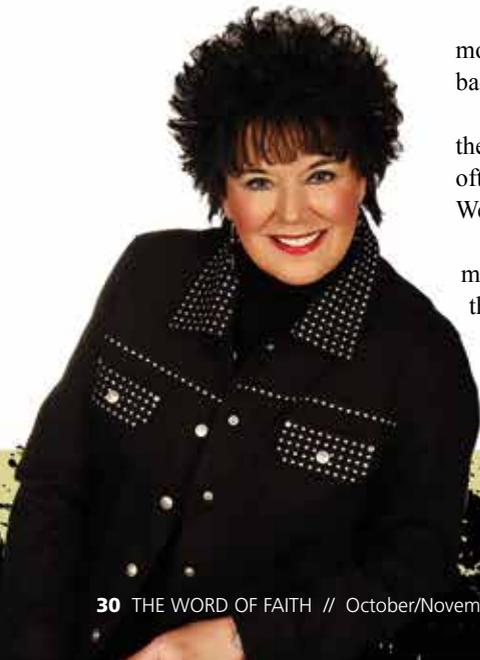

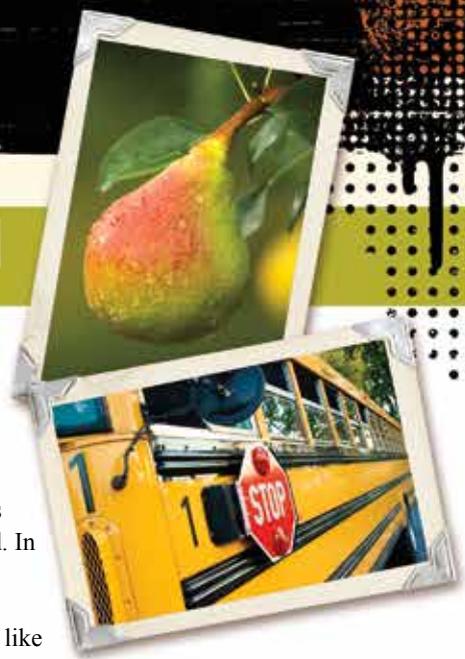

So often we concentrate on the few negative things that occur that we fail to be grateful for all the good things that are happening. I encourage you to daily find something you are thankful for. I often thank the Lord for a healthy body with eyes to see, ears to hear, legs to walk, and arms to use. We take these things for granted until something happens that impairs one of our faculties.

Several years ago, I fell and fractured my shoulder. The healing process made it necessary for my arm to be immobilized. I did not realize until that time how much you need both arms. After the accident, I began to thank God for two good arms.

I encourage you to live a life of gratitude. As a family, I suggest that at your mealtime every day, each family member expresses something they are thankful for. Gratitude is not only good for the soul, but studies have shown it can also boost your immune system.

And most of all, let's daily give thanks to the Lord for His provisions. ♥

ARMOR UP!

Young kids face big problems in today’s world. That’s why the Rhema Kids theme for 1st-5th graders was so relevant: “Put on the Armor of God—Be able to stand up to anything!” They learned how to combat life’s difficulties by using God’s armor. In the mornings, they made each piece of the armor: the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the shoes of readiness, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit. Every night more than 150 kids jumped into energetic praise and spontaneous worship. They often continued singing acapella long after the music stopped. Then they attentively absorbed the importance of each piece of armor. Many parents shared how their children talked in great detail about what they were learning in each service. Powerful times of ministry followed the teaching, and the love of God was felt by all. Kids who answered altar calls were visibly moved. Children voluntarily shared Bible verses or things that God had spoken to their hearts. It was a remarkable week!

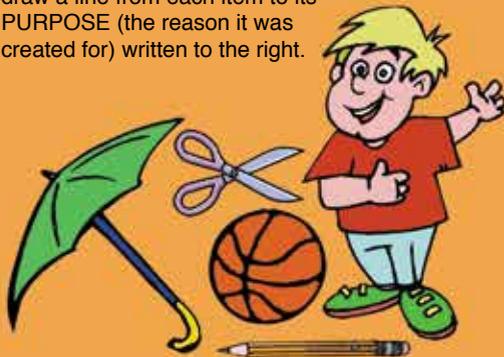

The Rhema Kids theme for preschoolers was “Talking with God.” Children learned that they can talk to God just like they talk to their mom and dad. They also learned that we can thank God for things He has given us, ask Him to help us, talk to Him when we are scared, and how to pray for others. Talking with God is a vital part of our relationship with Him.

Our goal was for our littlest ones to become comfortable talking with God and to understand that He is always close!♥

what's the PURPOSE?

Do you know what the word “purpose” means? Simply put, PURPOSE is “the reason a thing was created for.” Look at the items below and draw a line from each item to its PURPOSE (the reason it was created for) written to the right.

PURPOSES

- A The purpose of this item is to write on paper.
- B The purpose of this item is to keep people from getting wet when it rains.
- C The purpose of this item is to cut fabric and paper.
- D The purpose of this item is to bounce and to be shot into a goal.
- E The purpose of this item is to glorify God and to do good works.

That was easy, wasn't it?! Of course, each one of these items can be used for other things besides its intended purpose. For instance, you can beat a pencil on a drum and it becomes a drumstick . . . but that is not what it was CREATED TO DO! Isaiah 43:7 says that YOU were created for God’s glory, and Ephesians 2:10 says that YOU were “created in Christ Jesus for good works.” You have a PURPOSE! SO, DO WHAT YOU WERE CREATED TO DO!
