Stay Focused on Jesus

As Christians, our focus should be on Jesus and how we can please Him. However, many believers are focused on other people, their circumstances, and the everyday cares of life.

If we always look to a person, we will be disappointed. Everyone has imperfections, and at some time, they will let us down. Jesus, however, will never disappoint us! If we fixate on the surrounding circumstances, we can become discouraged and possibly doubt God's Word. Focusing on worries only distracts us from running our race! That's why we must keep our heart and mind fixed on Jesus.

Peter walked on water just fine—that is until he took his eyes off his Lord. When he looked at the crashing waves, he began to sink. But when Peter refocused his attention, Jesus rescued him (Matt. 14:25–31). Many people start out like Peter but become distracted along the way. Rather than keeping their eyes on the finish line, their attention veers from what they should be doing. Eventually, they fall out of the race.

How do we stay focused on Jesus? Through reading our Bibles and keeping it in our heart, mind, and mouth. Always remembering what the Word says keeps our eyes on Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith.

When we look at ourselves, we see our weaknesses, past failures, and the many excuses we make. But in looking to Jesus, we find strength, forgiveness, and the courage to run our race. No matter how much adversity comes our way or how many disappointments threaten to knock us out of the race, keeping our focus on Jesus brings us victory.

Maybe you feel as though you are “sinking.” Check to see if you have lost your focus. Turn your eyes back on Jesus and remember what He said about you, and you won't go under!

We trust that you will enjoy this magazine. May each article encourage you in your walk with the Lord and help you to remain focused on Him.

GENERATIONAL COHESION

DENISE HAGIN BURNS

GENERATIONAL COHESION IS a biblical concept. God wants the young and old to come together and support each other. When we understand how important generational unity is to the Lord, we can bridge the gap between the generations.

God's heart has always been for kids and youth. In Matthew chapter 18, the disciples were arguing about who was the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. They went to Jesus and asked Him to solve the dispute. He told them that unless they turned from their sins and became as little children, they would not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus said anyone who humbled themselves like a child was the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven (Matt. 18:1-4).

In that time and culture, children were considered low on the totem pole. They were almost nonexistent. For Jesus to say that a child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven was shocking. Even when it wasn't popular, God's heart has always been toward children and youth.

Passing the Baton

It is the older generation's responsibility to teach the things of God to the next generation. God designed it that way so future generations would know, trust, and obey Him.

PSALM 78:2-4 (NLT)

2 For I will speak to you in a parable. I will teach you hidden lessons from our past—

3 stories we have heard and known, stories our ancestors handed down to us.

4 We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the Lord, about his power and his mighty wonders.

PSALM 71:18 (NLT)

18 Now that I am old and gray, do not abandon me, O God. Let me proclaim your power to this new generation, your mighty miracles to all who come after me.

God commanded us to teach the next generation, not look down on them. But to effectively teach them, we have to understand what they are facing.

Generation Z

People born after 1996 are known as Generation Z or Gen Z. They are also called the iGeneration. I am excited about this group of young people. I believe they will usher in the Second Coming of Christ. But we need to understand them so we can know how to bridge the gap.

Generation Z has never known life without the internet or a cell-phone. Ninety-five percent of teenagers have a smartphone,* and they spend most of their waking hours online.

THIS GENERATION IS crying out FOR “relational” Christianity.

Sadly, Generation Z has more access to pornography than any generation before them. The majority have seen pornography online. In a culture where sexuality and gender are questioned, less than half consider themselves completely heterosexual.

After high school, more students leave the church than stay in it. They don't see how the Bible is relevant to their lives. During their school years, their lives are filled with activities. So much so that the average kid in a youth group only attends church 40 hours a year!

The Body of Christ can no longer bury its head and pretend these problems don't exist within the church. It may be uncomfortable to talk about, but we must address them or risk losing our young people to the world.

The church cannot fix the problem alone! To combat these issues, parents and the church must work together to teach this generation how to live in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Relational Christianity

When asked who they looked to for spiritual support, hands down, teens said their parents. They didn't go to their friends, youth leaders, or adults in their church. They followed what their parents did—not their words, but their actions.

It should make us pause and think about what we are modeling to future generations. Is it all talk? Or are they seeing our faith lived out in a way that is real and personal? This generation is crying out for “relational” Christianity.

Many high school seniors turn away from their faith after graduation. The reason is that no one taught them how to have a relationship with Jesus. They have been told how to act—what to do and what not to do. But they haven't been shown how to have an intimate relationship with the Lord and how to apply it to their lives.

I've worked with children and teens for a long time. I have found that Gen Zs are crying out for attention from their parents more than anything else. Their number one complaint and prayer request is “Can you pray for my mom and dad? They're always on their phone. I just want them to pay attention to me.” Time and again, they have said they want their parents to put down their phone and spend time with them.

“Distracted parenting” is a phenomenon psychologists are writing about. The overuse of technology and social media among parents is causing them to be distracted and disengaged from their children. Parents are physically present in their children's lives, but they are less emotionally attuned. It is affecting and shaping this generation and wreaking havoc in families. We can't afford to be distracted and miss teachable moments with our kids while Satan is attacking them like never before.

What is a teachable moment? It's bringing God into conversations when your children ask questions. This generation is looking for answers, and we have them.

This age group lives their life online, and they are addicted to seeing how many “likes” they have. It shoots off dopamine—a feel-good hormone—in their brain. Studies show that social media and the need for “likes” is changing

We Need to Pray

One day I asked the Lord how the Body of Christ could help this generation. He said that we need to pray. We must intercede for our youth so they will know the power of the Holy Spirit.

My grandfather, Kenneth E. Hagin, used to say, “A move of the Spirit will be lost if we don't teach it to the next generation.” There has never been a generation more in jeopardy of losing the power, the anointing, and the Spirit of God. The world has become loud while the church remains silent.

It is our job to raise up passionate followers of Jesus Christ. Parents, the church, and the older generations need to contend for our youth. We must get on our knees and fight the spiritual battle waged against them. Then the power of the Holy Spirit will not be lost to the next generation, and they will be prepared to usher in the Second Coming of the Lord.♥

When Justin McCulley enrolled in Rhema Correspondence Bible School (RCBS), he didn't realize it would change his life and ministry so much! He started an RCBS group in the church and now guides others through the enrichment he experienced in his life.

"My wife, Jessica, and I pastor a small congregation in rural Tennessee. Our church is growing again. It's almost as if our church has a different pastor than they had a year ago. It is largely due to this program. I am not the same! Thank you so much for the Rhema Correspondence Bible School!"

Fulfilling Destiny

JEN TRINGALE

I BELIEVE HEAVEN is on a grand tour of recovering and restoring lost “art.” God is the master artist. EVERYTHING HE CREATES HAS PURPOSE AND INTENTION ATTACHED TO IT. God is speaking to the gifts He placed on the earth saying, “What you are doing is good. But it is not the fullness of what I put in you!” He is pulling on the deeper reservoirs of divine destiny in each of us.

Although men and women of God have said yes to what He put in them, somehow they became stuck in a season. Maybe you are stuck in a season of your life, or you have been defined as doing one thing well. On the inside, something is saying, “There is more!” But only you and Heaven know there’s more to you than meets the eye.

TODAY THE ALARM CLOCK OF HEAVEN IS GOING OFF ON YOUR DESTINY! What you have been doing is good, but there is more. I believe we are living in an accelerated time of restoration. Restoration can be in motion two ways: reversing the deterioration of something and bringing something to completion. The season we are in requires the fullness of what God created us to be.

This is not the time to try fulfilling your destiny with one hand behind your back because you don’t want to make anybody uncomfortable. THERE IS A REASON GOD PUT EVERYTHING HE DID ON THE INSIDE OF YOU. It is time for you to stand up and declare, “I will be the fullness of everything God put in me!”

When you step into that fullness, you’ll find the power of the Greater One will restore the vision—the dream, the peace, the gift, the calling of God that you haven’t been operating in. Why? It’s time to recover and restore the fullness of everything God put within your destiny.

Restoration Is Priceless

A restored masterpiece is worth more than if nothing bad had happened to it. That’s because the work of restoration is also considered art. Yet the enemy tries to discredit you for what you’ve been through! He takes your mistakes and says, “See? You’re disqualified from fulfilling God’s plan.” The Spirit of God, however, would say, “Not so! Don’t you understand the work of restoration I am doing in your life is a work of art?”

People who are facing adversity may look at you and think, “What do you know? You’ve never been through anything.” But you can look them in the eye and say, “My life may look good now, but if you turned this ‘work of art’ around, you would see the restoration God has done in my life!”

GOD WANTS TO HONOR WHAT HAS BEEN DISHONORED AND RESTORE WHAT HAS BEEN BROKEN. Don’t you dare let the enemy silence you or tone you down. Don’t back away from the fullness of what God put inside of you! It’s an incredible thing to look another woman in the eye, walk into her place of darkness, and say, “I used to be here. Come on, I came to get you out.”

When that moment arrives, don’t back down or only be a little strong. Instead, stand in the fullness of who God made you to be and say, “I don’t have to dress it up pretty. I am not wearing a mask. God restored me. It’s the most powerful thing I have experienced. I am grateful for what He did in my life, and I will tell you about it day and night!”

Don’t discount or discredit the dream or the vision, the plan, the call, the office, the mandate, or the anointing God has put on your life.

This is a day where only the Creator, the master artist, gets the right to define who you are. Don’t discount or discredit the dream or the vision, the plan, the call, the office, the mandate, or the anointing God has put on your life. THE WORLD NEEDS YOU NOW MORE THAN EVER. 🕊

THE DEVIL OR THE FLESH?

Timeless
Teachings
of Kenneth E. Hagin

MUCH OF WHAT believers attribute to the devil is not directly the work of an evil spirit. Sometimes you hear preachers who want to cast this demon or that demon out of believers when demons aren't the cause of the trouble at all—it's human nature at work.

What people often call “works of the devil,” the Bible calls “works of the flesh.” Galatians 5:19–21 lists these as “adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like.”

In Ephesians 4:22–32, Paul lists some of the traits of the “old man” (the human nature without God): lying, stealing, corrupt communication, bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, evil speaking, and malice. He also describes some of the traits of the “new man” in Christ (our human nature after becoming born again): kindness, tenderheartedness, and forgiveness.

Put Off the Old

The Bible tells us how to deal with the body and soul. We are to “put off” the old man with its fleshly lusts. And we are to “put on” the new man in Christ.

EPHESIANS 4:22–24

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

Who is supposed to put off the nature of the old man? You are. God won't do it for you. You will have to put off envy, bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking. You aren't dealing with evil spirits when you put off these tendencies. You are just dealing with your flesh.

Too often believers try to take the easy way out and blame everything on Satan. That's one side of the ditch. On the other side of the ditch, they can't lay everything off on the Holy Spirit either. The Holy Spirit prompts us and gently leads us, but we have to yield to Him and respond to His instructions. We still choose to do what is right or wrong. When we decide to do wrong, that's not the devil making the choice. Ultimately, we determine to whom we yield—Satan or the Holy Spirit.

Put On the New

The only way you can put on “the new man” is to renew your mind with the Word of God. As you “put on” Christ, you will walk in the Spirit of God and not in the flesh where you are easy prey for Satan.

If you didn't have your flesh and its carnal nature to deal with, you wouldn't be human. As long as you are alive, you will have your carnal nature to contend with. I am persuaded that Christians have more trouble with their flesh than they do with the devil!

Fortify Yourself

Here's a list of additional scriptures to study!

Matthew 5:29–30	Galatians 5:16–17
John 17:16–18	Ephesians 2:1–3
Romans 1:24–28; 5:5–8, 12–14; 6:6–7, 11–16, 19; 12:1–2	Philippians 2:13; 4:5
1 Corinthians 9:27	Colossians 3:8, 12–14
2 Corinthians 6:16–17; 12:21	1 Thessalonians 4:1, 3–7
	James 4:1–4

A fellow came to me one time and said, “Brother Hagin, I want you to pray that I won’t have any more trouble with the devil.” I asked, “Do you want me to pray that you will die? The only way not to be troubled by the devil is to die and leave this world!” A lot of the trouble this man thought was coming from the devil was nothing more than his flesh. He had not learned to distinguish the difference.

The flesh—our unredeemed nature—has never been born again. The lusts of the flesh have nothing to do with a “spirit” of lust. The flesh has its own appetites or “fleshly cravings.”

1 PETER 2:11

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.

If you allow your flesh to dominate you, you will always have trouble in your soul—your mind, will, and emotions. And that will give Satan an open door.

JAMES 1:13–15

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

If an evil spirit is trying to work through your flesh, you have authority over it! The devil and evil spirits have no dominion over you as long as you’re walking in line with the Word and are doing what you’re supposed to do with your flesh.

Way of Escape

Every Christian has the same way of escape from falling prey to the devil through the lusts of their flesh. But not every Christian takes the path provided, which is crucifying their flesh. Why? Because it hurts to deny the flesh. And no one can do anything about your flesh for you.

..... You have to mortify or crucify it yourself (Gal. 5:24; Col. 3:5).

Visit rhema.org/studycenter for free resources to help you live a triumphant Christian life!

People who are always trying to cast out a devil want the easy way out. It’s easier to get someone to try and cast a demon out of you than it is to “kill, put to death, or subdue” your flesh with its lusts and affections. It hurts to do that! But you can’t cast the flesh out. You have to crucify the deeds of the flesh.

The promises in God’s Word are given to us so we can escape the corruption of worldly lust. Keep full of the Word and full of the Holy Spirit!

2 PETER 1:4

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

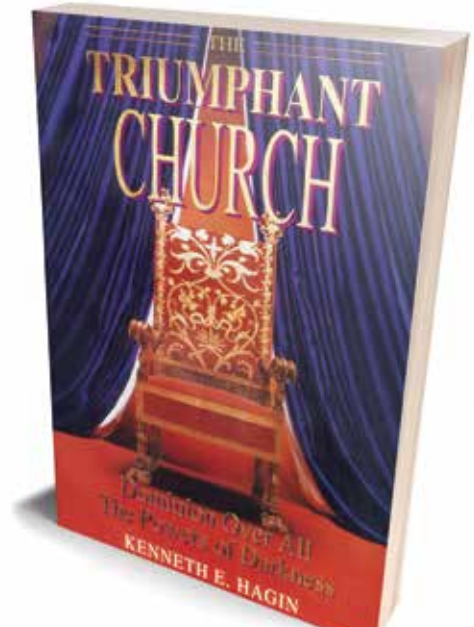

The greatest “war” we will ever engage in is not with the devil but rather between our flesh and spirit. We ultimately decide to yield to the Holy Spirit and walk in line with the Word. ♡

TOGETHER to see men, women, and children saved, healed, and set free. It takes partnership.

You see, SUPPORTING THE GOSPEL IS JUST AS IMPORTANT AS DELIVERING THE GOSPEL. We need partners to help us reach more people with the message of faith and accomplish all that God has called us to do. We need you!

If you're not a Rhema Word Partner, there's no better time than right now to get involved! Will you join with us and help carry the Gospel to lost and hurting people around the world? Will you make a difference?

Rhema USA Graduates 45th Class

BRASS HORNS BEGAN their musical proclamation, “Crown Him With Many Crowns,” as the distinguished array of Rhema Bible Training College instructors entered the Mabee Center in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on Friday, May 17, 2019. The academic procession continued with flags representing the USA, RBTC, and the 15 countries of the 25 international students. By the time the graduates set foot on the red carpet, the arena was in an atmosphere of anticipation and honor.

Dean Tad Gregurich welcomed the cheering crowd and noted, “This marks the 45th graduation of Rhema.” Cheers heightened, then softened as a prayer was offered over the 277 graduates and the divine purpose causing each of them to walk boldly into the future. “GET READY WORLD, HERE COME THE FAITHFUL,” Dean Tad concluded. The arena erupted. Praise and worship followed with dancing gowns and bobbing caps keeping time in victorious celebration.

Special recognition for nations, families, military veterans, and Word Partners had people on their feet in gratitude. The last acknowledgment went to Rhema alumni. They are who these students hope to become. And what a legacy they have left over the past 45 years! Throughout the recognitions, the crowd stood to their feet with an ovation of applause and salutes.

The School of Worship brought a soul-searching song asking, “Who will go?” and answering with, “Here am I. Send me.” One student rose with hands raised, and a sea of red- and black-robed students followed in heartfelt consecration. “Use me for Your glory,” they sang with abandon.

When Kenneth W. Hagin introduced the speaker, Rev. Matt Beemer, a 1992 RBTC graduate, the sense of every heart yearning to be sent was nearly tangible.

My Time. My Generation. My Harvest.

Not everybody who started the journey with you is here tonight. But you are here! That says something about you. Not only are you interested in what God has for you, but you know how to go to a place of finishing as well.

I believe the Rhema family has moved into a place of going like they’ve never gone before. You are part of a Rhema family that is influencing and changing the world! It’s your time! It is also your generation, and it’s your harvest!

Jesus wanted to see a finished work. He said, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work” (John 4:34 NKJV). He is looking for the great completion to the Great Commission. You get to be a part of that. AN APOSTOLIC “GO” IS ON THIS CLASS! AND IT’S ON YOU.

Jesus immediately began speaking about the harvest after talking about finishing God’s will (v. 35). It’s ripe. It’s ready. It’s here now. Finishing is connected to harvest. Every generation has had the opportunity and ability to reach the lost of that generation.

Do you think we can do it? [A resounding yes erupted from the crowd.] Three billion people are waiting for men and women like you to tell them about the love and light of Jesus. It’s part of our destiny to help prepare for the return of Jesus. He can’t come back until the Gospel is preached in every place. (See Matthew 24:14.)

Hearts burning, the graduates were launched into the next steps of their destiny. Following the examples of dignity and determination found in Rev. Kenneth W. and Lynette Hagin, they were presented with runner’s relay batons bearing the following inscription:

I COMMIT TODAY TO CARRY THE BATON OF REVIVAL TO THIS GENERATION.
I WILL CARRY THE BANNER OF FAITH AND GOD’S POWER TO A LOST AND DYING WORLD.
THIS IS MY TIME TO DO ALL GOD HAS CALLED ME TO DO!

The graduates recessed by the light of candles through torches and the array of flags. With the cadence of their feet, the message of the night echoed, “It’s my time! It’s my generation! It’s my harvest!”

MATT BEEMER

THE Fear OF THE LORD

LYNETTE HAGIN

THE FEAR OF the Lord is a powerful spiritual force. It can keep us on the right path in life, and it can keep us out of trouble. The fear of the Lord is so important for our well-being, and yet it seems to be lacking in the church world today.

What is the fear of the Lord? It is a reverence for God and the things of the Lord. It's a deep respect for the holiness of God and a godly fear of displeasing our Heavenly Father.

It is not the kind of fear some people have experienced because they believe God is waiting to punish them when they make a mistake. A genuine reverence for the Lord should be motivated by our love for our Heavenly Father. We love God so much, and we're so deeply grateful for everything He's done for us that we desperately want to please Him. And we don't want to do anything that would hurt or displease our Father.

I thank God that the fear of the Lord was instilled in me from the time I was a child. Growing up, we were taught to have a godly respect for the things of God. We were taught that you should show reverence for the house of God because it is sacred. I believe we would experience more of God's power and presence if we would reverence Him more and get back to that godly fear of the Lord!

God Is Always With You

When I was a little girl, my daddy told me, "Honey, God is with you every moment of the day. You may hide something from your dad, but you're never going to hide it from the Lord." So I developed the guideline early in life: if God were here with me, would I be doing what I'm doing right now?

We would all be more careful about our words and actions if we had the attitude that our Heavenly Father is with us at all times, and He sees and hears everything we do and say.

When you think about the Lord seeing everything you do, it might cause you to wonder if He would be pleased with what you've been doing today. Knowing that He hears everything you say might make you examine the words that come out of your mouth when you get upset.

Guard yourself continually. Always keep in mind that God is looking at you. It's not worth engaging in activities that are displeasing to Him. The cost is too high, and it could damage your relationship with your Heavenly Father.

Keep Your Conscience Tender

Every day I make an effort to keep my conscience tender to the Lord. I want it to prick me immediately if I stray from the things God desires me to do. Why? Because it's the convicting power of God that leads, guides, and directs me throughout my life.

Growing up, I remember how the preachers would deliver fiery sermons about Heaven and hell and the consequences of sin. By the time they had finished preaching, the entire congregation was ready to flock to the altar and repent. We knew we were already right with God, but we wanted to get right with Him again to be on the safe side!

I don't sense the fear of the Lord in our services the way I did during my early years. In some cases, I believe people's consciences have become hardened, which may be one of the reasons why their prayers aren't being answered.

You may have realized that your conscience has become seared. You may be so hardened in certain areas that it doesn't bother you when you do something wrong. That's a dangerous state to be in. God has placed your conscience within you as a guideline. If you're not sensitive to your conscience and the leading of the Holy Spirit, you are going to miss out!

God is always trying to lead and guide you. If you want to experience all the good things He has prepared for you, you must keep your heart tender to Him.

"Go and Sin No More"

Some people have trampled on their conscience for so long they don't have any idea how to have a godly, holy fear of their Heavenly Father. But thank God, our conscience can be restored!

There are several things we can do if we want our conscience to become more tender to the Lord. First, as we continually obey

If you've asked God to forgive you, know that He has. However, always remember the words of Jesus—go and sin no more (John 8:11).

bring the things of the world back into your life. Don't entertain those temptations again.

Stay Close to the Savior

There are many reasons why we should desire to have a fear of the Lord operating in our lives. The most important reason is that we love our Heavenly Father and want to stay close to Him. Our relationship with Him should be the most precious thing in the world to us. It should be so important that we wouldn't want anything to come between our Savior and us.

As we maintain a conscience that is tender towards God, it will strengthen our relationship with Him. And the more we honor and reverence the Lord, the more we'll experience His presence and miracle-working power!♥

Fight Right

JOHN DAVID ROMICK

MY BROTHER AND I went to a boxing gym. We thought we were good—until we got there! We became examples of how not to fight. But we learned and started getting good. We found that IT'S NOT ONLY ABOUT HOW HARD YOU FIGHT—IT'S ALSO ABOUT HOW WISE YOU ARE DURING THE FIGHT.

Christians have fights, or challenges in life. Sometimes we think if we have enough faith, we can get to a place where we do not have any problems. That's not what Jesus said! He said in this life, in this world, we will have affliction. But He also tells us to take heart because He has overcome the world (John 16:33).

Don't overlook the fact that there will be fights. There will be problems, so we must learn how to fight. But it's not fighting out of emotion. It's fighting out of revelation based on the knowledge of who we are in Christ and what we have. We learn. And then we move on in our fight.

Pablo With a Problem

The revelation the Apostle Paul had of who we are in Christ was incredible! And yet it seems to me that Paul had a little problem with problems. He never seemed to have a great day. It would start well, and then—he's shipwrecked. Another day would start great, and then—he's getting whipped. Everywhere he went, Paul was what we call in Spanish, "a Pablo who always has a problem."

In Acts chapter 27, Paul was a prisoner on a boat going to Rome. He warned the crew about the weather, but they ignored him. They were caught in the storm and adrift at sea for days. In verses 21–22, Paul tells them they should have listened to him but encourages them to take heart. "We're going to be fine," he says, "but we're going to lose the boat."

That's not the message we like to hear! We want to hear, "Everything is fine. The best days are ahead." We want to hear that we're going to save the boat and have another boat—a bigger boat—the greatest boat ever!

But if we set our affections on the things above, we won't care if we lose the boat. EVEN IF A PROBLEM HAS REPERCUSSIONS, IT DOESN'T MATTER. WE STILL HAVE JESUS. And God will keep on supplying all our needs according to His riches in glory.

If we really know who our Father is, we will be a lot calmer! While the crew was looking for a way out and throwing things overboard, Paul you get bigger and stronger. You are strong in the Lord and the power of His might! That same spirit that raised Christ from the dead—the same spirit that destroyed Satan—lives in you.

Fight with attitude: "My foundation is in the Word, and God's Word will never pass away! You may see me struggle, but you will never see me quit!" Faith is loud. Faith is persistent. And faith will cause you to praise—all the time. It will encourage others to fight too.

People are watching to see how we respond. Are we acting like problems don't exist? Or are we acting on what we believe during a didn't look for a way out. Instead, he looked up.

Faith Is Loud

JUST BECAUSE YOU FACE PROBLEMS DOESN'T MEAN YOU ARE ANY LESS A FAITH PERSON. Faith needs to be heard over your circumstances. If the circumstances get loud, you get louder. If the situation gets tough, then you get tougher. If the devil gets mean, then you get meaner. If the problem gets bigger and stronger, then battle—and winning? BATTLES ARE OPPORTUNITIES IF WE FACE OUR PROBLEMS AND FIGHT RIGHT. They showcase the One who lives inside of us—a testimony that we are children of God.♥

RHEMA IS A SPOKEN WORD, A PLACE, AND A WORLDWIDE FAMILY.

A Father's Approval

PICTURE THIS: a seven-year-old boy steps into the batter's box. He waits patiently as the pitcher goes into his windup and delivers a pitch. With a fluid swing, the young boy makes contact and drives the ball to left field for a base hit. As the boy stands on first base, he looks to the nearly full bleachers. Everyone is clapping for him. Some even yell, "Nice hit, Jeff!" But the young boy is oblivious. He is looking for one person. Then their eyes meet. Jeff tries not to smile when his father gives him a thumbs-up from the stands.

Many children look to their fathers for approval. But ONCE WE ACCEPT JESUS AS OUR SAVIOR, WE HAVE A HEAVENLY FATHER WHOSE APPROVAL WE DON'T HAVE TO SEEK. He loves His children no matter what. It's impossible for Him to love them any more than He already does.

The Bible says, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3:16 NKJV). WHEN WE BELIEVE IN JESUS, WE BECOME GOD'S CHILDREN (Gal. 3:26), AND WE ARE TRIUMPHANT (2 Cor. 2:14)!

God gave what He treasured the most—Jesus, His only Son—to show how much He loves us. His gift of eternal life is free to those who believe it is true. Have you accepted His gift by believing in Jesus as your Lord and Savior? If not, you can! Pray this prayer from your heart:

Father,

I believe You love me and that You sent Your only Son to die for me. I turn from my way of doing things, and I turn toward Jesus. I receive the free gift of His life in exchange for my old life. I place my faith and trust in Jesus alone to save me.

Thank you, Jesus, for dying for me and forgiving all my sin. I receive and confess You as my Savior and Lord. I want to follow and serve You all the days of my life. Let today be the beginning of my new journey as a member of Your family. Thank you for being the way for me to come home. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer, welcome to God's family! We have some materials we would like to give you to help you get started in your walk with God. E-mail us at partnerservice@rhema.org or call us at 1-800-54-FAITH (543-2484). ♡

Practical Steps to Help You in Your Walk With God

- Get a Bible and read it every day. The scriptures are God's words to you! If you don't know where to begin, start in the New Testament or search for a Bible reading plan online.
- Cultivate your new relationship by talking to God. You can't have a close relationship with someone without spending time with them. The same is true with God. One way to do that is by keeping an ongoing conversation with your Heavenly Father.
- Find a gathering of like-minded people. Millions of people around the world have made Jesus their Lord. You are not alone. Find a congregation of believers—a Bible-believing church—and get to know your brothers and sisters in Christ. They will be a source of encouragement to you as you learn what it means to have God as your Father!
- Tell others what Christ has done for you. Share what happened to you and how your life has changed. Not only will it reinforce what you now believe, people may also get born again!

THE POWER OF Patience

KENNETH W. HAGIN

ONE OF THE missing ingredients to receiving from God is that little word, “patience.” I think few Christians realize its importance! You need patience to be an overcomer. Jesus said, “In your patience possess ye your souls” (Luke 21:19). He also emphasized, “He who endures to the end shall be saved” (Matt. 24:13 NKJV). Some things don’t happen overnight, and it takes patience to get there.

Impatience is probably the main reason why prayers go unanswered. You can pray and believe God. But if you become impatient, you begin to wonder and get out of faith. Then the prayer can never be answered!

There are things that happen instantly, like being born again or filled with the Holy Spirit. But when you pray for loved ones, finances, jobs, and such, you must be prepared to keep expecting until you receive an answer.

JAMES 1:3–4

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

Have you ever prayed for God to meet your need and had to wait for days, weeks, months, or even years? If you keep patiently expecting, God will see that it happens.

Sometimes it is hard to be patient and keep believing what the Bible says when you don’t see anything happening. The devil says, “See? I told you your prayers wouldn’t work. Ain’t no use in you going on.” He’s just jabbering at you. That’s when you patiently keep saying, “The Bible says it, and I believe. Therefore, it will happen.”

The Power of Shall

God never promised to answer our prayers instantly. But Jesus did say, “All things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive” (Matt. 21:22). He never promised us instant healing or miracles but said, “They shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover” (Mark 16:18).

Many scriptures use the word “shall”—you shall have, shall receive, shall find. Let me ask an important question: Is that word present or future tense? It’s future! It is going to happen. If you believe God, it shall take place. When? Maybe right then. Maybe the next minute or hour. Maybe the next week, month, or year.

We all want the “shall” to be right now. That’s not our prerogative—it’s God’s. We are simply to believe what the Bible says and let God take care of how and when it happens.

IF YOU KEEP
patiently expecting,
GOD WILL SEE THAT IT HAPPENS.

For example, when it comes to healing, you could recover instantly or over time. I find that most people are healed gradually. And I've seen hundreds of people give up on their healing before they leave the building where they were prayed for. If the pain and symptoms don't go away immediately, they say, "I didn't think it would work anyway." Others patiently believe and are healed.

In praying for our loved ones to get saved, we must be patient while God works in their lives until they are willing to serve Him. God never forces people to become born again against their will. Many Christians pray wrongly for loved ones. I've heard them plead, "Lord, save them!" Jesus already died on the cross for their salvation. A better way to pray for the lost is to ask the Lord to send laborers across their paths so they might hear and believe.

The Power of Believing

A lot of people want to start believing when they get the answer. But why would you believe for something once it is there? If you have it, you don't need faith for it! You believe for something you don't have yet.

Next month I will be on an airplane flying to a Living Faith Crusade. I believe that now. But when I get there, I don't have to believe it anymore. There's no reason to be in faith after I'm there! "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Heb. 11:1).

When Lazarus was sick, his sisters sent Jesus a message asking Him to come quickly. Although He agreed, He stayed where he was two more days before leaving. When He arrived, Lazarus had died and been in the tomb for four days. Martha said, "If you had been here sooner, my brother would not have died!" Jesus told her, "Everything will be all right if you can believe." And it was. Lazarus was raised from the dead. (See John 11:1–44.)

Jesus wasn't in a hurry. He reminds me of my dad, Kenneth E. Hagin. I remember praying at home for different things when I was a kid. I wasn't sure if God would answer our prayers. Dad never worried or became impatient. Sometimes I would say to him, "I wonder if we're going to get that need met." He would hold up his hand and say, "Don't worry about it."

The Power of Faith

One time as a kid, we had a particular need and prayed about it at the dinner table. The day arrived when money had to be at the bank, and we didn't have anything yet. I was sure it would come in the mail. When the mail arrived, nothing was there. The doorbell rang, and I thought it must be the money! It was just someone stopping by. Dad didn't get excited about it. He said, "It will be all right."

I will never forget this. Shortly before the bank closed, a special delivery letter arrived. It contained the money we needed! Dad went to the bank and took care of that need. If he had listened to some of us in the family, his faith could have been nullified! It sure didn't happen on my faith—I wondered how it would happen!

Paul said in Hebrews 10:23, "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised)." Faith is a force that is built into you by knowing and believing God's Word. It enables you to hold on until you receive what you have asked of God.

Believe God to meet your need, and let Him take care of doing it. Impatience nullifies your prayers and faith. Patience gets your prayers answered! ♥

Thoughts

// LYNETTE HAGIN

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

BE CONTENT

I SEE PEOPLE who live their entire lives in a state of discontentment. Regardless of how much they accomplish, they are never satisfied. Yes, we should have goals, but it is equally important to be satisfied and contented in your current state.

I often see couples who are never enjoying the various stages of their children's lives because they are rushing to experience the next phase. In writing to the Philippian Church, Paul had some wise words to relay.

"How I praise the Lord that you are concerned about me again. I know you have always been concerned for me, but you didn't have the chance to help me. Not that I was ever in need, for I have learned how to be content with whatever I have. I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little. For I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength" (Phil. 4:10–13 NLT).

It is believed that Paul was imprisoned when he wrote to the Philippians. He was expressing his sentiments to the church at Phillipi for the gifts he had received from them. He went on to say, "But you understand that I am not dependent on this. Regardless of my situation—whether good or bad—I will be content because God gives me the strength to press through the situation."

Contentment is defined as: "freedom from care or discomfort; gratification to the point where one is not disturbed or disquieted although every wish is not fully realized." The Greek word translated content means "to be master of the situation; to be a victor; or to be a conqueror of circumstances." It is essential to realize that you can be a conqueror of your circumstances and, therefore, be contented in those circumstances.

Of all the men in the New Testament, Paul is my favorite. His writings encourage me. In everything Paul experienced—being beaten, stoned, imprisoned, and shipwrecked—he looked at every situation in a positive way.

To be contented the way Paul meant is one of life's greatest victories. He was a master of his circumstances. Too many people have this in reverse. They allow their situation to master them. Your destiny is determined by the decisions you make and the attitude you take. As the saying goes: when life gives you lemons, make lemonade.

How can you live in continued contentment? First and foremost, you must be committed to following God wholeheartedly. Matthew 6:33 (NKJV) says, "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." We must allow God to be first in our lives.

I have also relied on the following verses:

"Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass" (Psalm 37:4–5 NKJV).

Commit means to hand over for safekeeping. Who better could you hand your life over to but God who will always lead you down the right path? When you commit your ways to Him, He will bring the desires in your heart to pass in His time.

Be content with the talents God has endowed you with. Don't always wish you could do what others are gifted in. I have always admired people with artistic ability. That is certainly not my talent. I used to cringe in elementary school during art class. I have no skill in that area.

But rather than being discontented with myself, I concentrate on the talent God has given me. Organizational skills are what I am gifted with. Organizing events or establishing office procedures comes with no effort on my part.

I encourage you to evaluate the talents God has given you. Be content with them and strive to improve them. As I concentrated on what God gifted me with, I have far exceeded what I thought my ability was in those areas. And most of all, always keep a positive attitude regardless of the situations you may find yourself in. ♥

What Are You Planting?

Here's a riddle for you: What looks like it's dead but if you bury it, it comes alive? The answer . . .

"a seed." You may not realize it, but farmers aren't the only ones who plant seeds. You've probably planted some seeds today without even knowing it. The words you say and many of your actions are just like seeds that get planted and later come up as a crop. Paul tells us in Galatians 6:7 (NCV), "Do not be fooled: You cannot cheat God. People harvest only what they plant." So the question is, "What are you planting?" Let's put it this way: If you want to harvest watermelons, don't plant spinach seeds! Likewise, if you want people to speak nicely to you and to treat you right, then don't go around speaking harshly to others and treating them wrong. You'd be planting the wrong seeds! So be careful what seeds you plant . . . because one day soon, you'll have a harvest!
