It's Going to Be Okay

When I was a teenager and someone complained about something, we often said to them, "Don't sweat the small stuff."

I understand life can sometimes reach a point where it's overwhelming—like one burden after another. If you listen to the news or look around, there is plenty to get upset about. We often fail to realize that the hardships we face are like mirages. That's because everything is subject to change!

I'm not trying to belittle what you may be facing. But sometimes in the middle of a trial, we forget how small our problems are compared to how big God is. Life is full of troubles that can make you break out in a sweat if you focus on them.

When you look at your circumstances, you may become discouraged. If you look at yourself, you may become disappointed. If you look at others, you may get disillusioned. But if you look to God, you will be delivered!

Even in the worst-case scenario, God still removes your burdens and blesses you. If you have a problem, He has a promise! In a time of crisis, God cares! When you're hurting, God is healing. When you're anxious, He will give you assurance. In times of lack, your Heavenly Father will provide. When you're disappointed, He reminds you of your destiny! Even in times of death, the Lord will deliver you into His presence.

I don't care how loud the enemy screams in your ear, "It's not going to happen this time." Hold on to your confidence in God, put your trust in His Word, and you will come out victorious every time.

So instead of fretting, focus on the Lord's faithfulness. Instead of pondering your problems, press into His promises. And instead of wallowing in worry, worship your wonderful Deliverer.

Remember, God is greater than any problem you will ever face. Compared to what He can and will do, everything else is small. So don't sweat it!

4 Following Your Dreams

LYNETTE HAGIN

God inspires ordinary people with extraordinary dreams. He is a Master at doing the impossible! Let Him ignite your dream.

10 Take God at His Word

KENNETH W. HAGIN

Whose word do you trust? We act in faith on what people say all the time. But we can trust God's Word even more!

24 How to Hear From Heaven

KENNETH E. HAGIN

If you want to experience intimacy with the Lord and hear His voice, spend much time ministering to Him. Here's how!

SEED THOUGHTS Page 30

You Are Going to Make It

CRAIG W. HAGIN

Everyone goes through tests and trials in life. It's how you respond that makes the difference.

LYNETTE HAGIN

DREAMS ARE POWERFUL forces—especially the ones you hold in your heart. Are your dreams burning bright? Or have they been extinguished because of disappointments you have experienced along the way? It's time to ignite your God-given dreams.

Jeremiah 29:11 (AMPC) says, "For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome." GOD WANTS TO TRANSLATE HIS THOUGHTS INTO YOUR DREAMS. His plans are wrapped up in the desires He has placed within you.

My First Dream

We all imagine future accomplishments. Many times it starts as a child. When I was only six years old, a dream to be married burned in my heart. And not only that, I knew I had to marry a minister. It was a driving force that I desired.

MY DREAM WAS IMPORTANT TO ME BECAUSE I KNEW MY FUTURE WAS CONNECTED TO IT. I was consumed with it. So much so that when I dated, I never allowed myself to become emotionally attached to anyone who wasn't preparing for ministry. Why? I knew my destiny was involved.

The Dream I Didn't Want

Then God placed another dream in my heart, but I wasn't so sure I wanted it! He spoke to me about my future: "Part of

IT IS NOT ABOUT THE SIZE OF YOUR ABILITY—IT'S ABOUT THE size of your God.

your ministry will be ministering to women. I will gather a group of women around you, and together you will accomplish great things."

I never liked women's conferences. The ones I attended seemed like pity parties, and I like victory parties. "I don't want that dream," I told the Lord.

"That's why I placed this dream in your heart," He replied. "I want to see some victory parties. There are mighty things I need women to accomplish for Me, and they cannot do it feeling sorry for themselves. I want you to pick them up and put them on the road of victory instead of despair!"

After several years, I surrendered to God's call to minister to women. As soon as I did, He said, "I'm thankful you obeyed, but now is not the time."

"But what if I get out of the mood by the time You want me to do it?" I asked.

"You must wait," He responded.

WITH DREAMS, THERE IS A WAITING TIME, A RIGHT TIME, AND A WRONG TIME. God may have given you dreams, but if you try to accomplish them in the wrong season, they won't be successful.

The Lord led me down many paths before He said, “Now is the time!”

Today, that dream is still happening. Every year at Kindle the Flame Women's Conference, I get tears in my eyes when I see the women God brought together. It's just as He told me: “I will gather around you an army of women who shall be women of balance. They will know how to balance womanhood, motherhood, and the assignment I have called them to do.”

What's Your Dream?

Think back to when God spoke to you. It may be years ago and hard to remember! Because of difficult circumstances, your dream may have dimmed, but God wants to kindle it again.

Paul wrote in Second Timothy 1:6 (AMPC), “That is why I would remind you to stir up (rekindle the embers of, fan the flame of, and keep burning) the [gracious] gift of God, [the inner fire] that is in you by means of the laying on of my hands [with those of the elders at your ordination].”

The word kindle means “to stir up, excite, or ignite.” Stir up that dream again. Once it is kindled, here are some pointers to keep it burning bright.

1 BE CAREFUL WITH WHOM YOU SHARE YOUR DREAM. God doesn't always tell you the details of how it will come to pass. So don't share it until it's time. God told me, “Let Me unfold the plan before you reveal the plan.” His timing is not our timing.

2 HOLD FAST IN THE SILENT YEARS. What do you do when it seems like God is nowhere near? It's okay to express how you feel to your Heavenly Father. In Psalm 13, David poured out his heart and received his breakthrough by praise. As you hold fast and praise God (rather than questioning Him), He will minister to you as you worship Him.

3 DON'T BECOME JEALOUS WHEN THE DREAMS OF OTHERS HAPPEN FIRST. It's easy to focus on what God seems to do for others and not for you. You may ask why, but that's exactly where the enemy wants you. Don't lose focus on your dream. It will happen if you don't give up.

4 OFFENSES WILL HINDER YOU. One of the deadliest traps the devil sets is to get you offended. Don't let offenses in; forgive instead. Remember that the great faith verses in Mark 11:23–24 are followed by verse 25: “And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.”

5 GO DOWN THE ROAD GOD IS LEADING YOU ON. Taking detours only delay your dreams. Pay close attention to your Heavenly Father's directions. Don't rush through life by taking shortcuts. God has a chosen path for you to follow. And don't complain about the ride, but enjoy the scenery.

DREAMS ARE HAMPERED BY MAJORING ON MISTAKES.

Forget your failures. You cannot redo history. And you cannot move ahead when you are dragging the past with you! God wants you to look forward. He erased your past. Forgive yourself and press ahead.

DON'T ALLOW YOUR LIMITATIONS TO KEEP YOU FROM FULFILLING YOUR DREAMS.

God inspires ordinary people with extraordinary dreams. It is not about the size of your ability—it's about the size of your God!

And finally, don't hide from God's mission for you—even if it has been clouded by adversity. It's time to revive those desires within, and follow your dreams!♥

Take God at His Word!

KENNETH W. HAGIN

WE USUALLY TAKE people at their word. If your employer told you that you were receiving a significant raise, you would be overjoyed! You would probably be so excited that you would call someone and make plans to celebrate, “My boss raised my salary! Let’s go out!” Or you may tell your spouse, “We can get the car we’ve been wanting!”

WE ALL REACT LIKE THAT WHEN WE HEAR WORDS WE TRUST. We might not have the money yet, but because we count on what was said, we operate in faith. Because we accepted someone’s words as truth, we act! How much more should we believe the Word of the One Who created the universe?

Here is another example. When a hard-working young man finally hears the football coach say to him, “You deserve a starting spot Friday night,” he is thrilled! He’s not even in the game yet, but those words create excitement in him. He anticipates that starting spot, and once on the field, he goes wild!

GOD’S WORD SHOULD CREATE MORE EXCITEMENT IN US THAN A COACH’S WORDS OF FAITH AND ENCOURAGEMENT. We can trust what people say, but yet we have difficulty believing and acting on the Bible! How much of a more sure testimony do we have in scripture?

God’s Word Is Sure

NUMBERS 23:19 (AMP)

19 God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken and will He not make it good and fulfill it?

ISAIAH 55:11

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

God simply wants people to trust what He has said. That is why many Christians have trouble receiving from Him. They don’t take Him at His Word and then try to do everything in their own strength. They have never learned just how trustworthy the Word of God is!

ROMANS 4:20–21 (AMP)

20 But he [Abraham] did not doubt or waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong and empowered by faith, giving glory to God, 21 being fully convinced that God had the power to do what He had promised.

Ready to take God at His Word? Visit rhema.org/studycenter to discover what He has to say about faith, family, finances, healing, and many more topics.

We act in faith all the time when it comes to trusting what people say.

HEBREWS 10:23 (AMP)

23 Let us seize and hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable and trustworthy and faithful [to His word].

2 CORINTHIANS 1:20

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

Bank on It!

You probably have a bank account. You would never write a check if you didn't believe there was money in your account, would you? On the other hand, if you are sure you had enough money, you wouldn't hesitate to write the check!

ACTIONS ARE BASED ON BELIEFS. The same holds true in the supernatural realm. We believe that what God said is true. So we act on His Word—knowing that He is faithful and trustworthy and can be depended upon.

We act in faith all the time when it comes to trusting what people say. Along this line, I remember one time I rented a car when I was traveling. After leaving the rental agency, I noticed that the car's gas gauge registered empty. I turned around and went back because the gas tank was supposed to be full when I rented it.

The people at the desk told me there was a problem with the fuel gauge on that particular vehicle. When the tank was full, the indicator still registered empty. Based on those words, I drove out of the parking lot and headed to my destination. I believed that what they said was true. I didn't drive the car based on what I could see, because all visible evidence pointed to an empty gas tank.

If we can trust in and respect the words of people, how much more should we believe the Word of God? LET'S LEARN TO ACT ON WHAT OUR HEAVENLY FATHER SAYS IN SIMPLE FAITH AND OBEDIENCE. Let's take God at His Word! 📖

FAITH IN ACTION

The Power of God's Word

Without exception, every time Jesus' words were believed and acted upon, the results were always miraculous. The disciples had to learn that they could believe and act on what Jesus said, even when it seemed to contradict the circumstances.

For example, in Luke chapter 5, Jesus told Peter to let down the nets to catch fish. Peter initially protested because they had fished all night without catching anything. Nevertheless, Peter recognized the authority in Jesus' words, so he acted on them. It seemed foolish, but he still obeyed.

The result was God's miraculous abundance and provision—so much that they were astonished and had to have help from their partners on the shore to bring in all the fish! There is a biblical principle in this for all of us. As we obey the Word of the Living God, we will experience abundant provision in our lives too.

1. Find scriptures that give God's perspective on your need or condition.
2. Choose to believe God's Word.
3. Then act on the promise and release the power of the Word into your life. (One way to act on a verse or passage is to speak it!)

The Cinderella Seven

KENNETH W. HAGIN

I'VE BEEN INTERESTED in track and field since my school days. From the time I was in grade school, I can remember running races with every kid in town. As a youngster, I dreamed of running in track meets.

In my junior year in high school I went to a Christian boarding school. Soon after enrolling, I discovered that the school didn't have a track team. It seemed like my dream was gone.

But I talked it over with some of the other boys, and we gathered together a few guys who were interested in running track. We tried to get the basketball coach to be our coach. He didn't know anything about track so he said no. Our history teacher liked sports, so he coached us.

I'll never forget that pitiful assemblage of 13 boys and one history teacher. We looked like a circus. No one had on the same kind of running shorts. Our jerseys were blue and gold. Some boys had red shorts on. We didn't look too good.

Can you imagine this ragtag bunch of kids out on the field with all the other teams in their classy uniforms!

One time at a meet, we started practicing our relay hand-offs for the 880 relay. Everybody else had nice, hollow batons. We were passing back and forth a broomstick I had cut up. That's all we had.

The thirteen of us had a dream. We dreamed of running, and we wanted a team. At first our dream was just running races. It wasn't long before we started winning!

That's when our dream got bigger. We dreamed of running in the state track meet.

Everybody knows that a team without an experienced coach or the right equipment should not make it to the state track meet. That just shouldn't happen. But seven out of our 13-man track team went to state. The newspaper called us "The Cinderella Seven."

Our dream was fulfilled on May 18, 1957. The starting gun cracked at 9 o'clock sharp. One minute and 37 seconds later, the 880 relay was over. I will never forget it as long as long as I live.

I was 20 yards from the fellow I was to hand the baton off to, and I started seeing white spots in front of my eyes. My lungs were burning from lack of oxygen, and my legs felt like rubber.

BUT SOMEWHERE DOWN ON THE INSIDE OF ME WAS A DREAM: A DREAM OF WINNING. When the white spots began to appear, an incident from the past flashed through my mind. I went back to the only day my dad was able to see me compete in a track meet.

I imagined I was coming off that curve, churning with everything I had, when down by the finish line I saw my dad reach out. I heard him holler, "Come on, boy! Come on, boy!"

With his words ringing in my ears, I reached back, got strength from somewhere deep within, and finished. Our team won the meet that day!

I want to encourage everyone whose dream seems to have been obliterated by circumstances: The finish line is just a little further ahead!

The time for your victory is now!

DARE TO BELIEVE YOUR DREAM. When it seems like the devil has shattered it, reach down, pick up the pieces, put the dream back together, and continue driving for success. NOW IS NOT THE TIME TO QUIT. KEEP STANDING AND DREAMING YOUR DREAMS.

I can see Jesus Christ leaning out across the finish line hollering, "Come on, man! Come on, woman! Just a few more steps and you've got it made! Don't lose your dream now! Run to victory!"

It's time to take your impossible dream and with God turn it into something possible. The time for your victory is now! 🏆

It's Not Too Late!

As September draws near, there is still time to enroll in the fall semester at RBTC. But don't wait too long; classes start in a few weeks! Why not take a step today to start reaching your potential in God?

15 Scriptures to Pray Over Your Children

IN THE U.S., most students are getting ready to go back to school. The start of a new school year can be stressful for both kids and parents. Billions of dollars are spent on back to school supplies. But more than having pencils and notebooks is making sure kids are spiritually prepared for the challenges they will face at school.

One of the best ways to help them is through prayer. We should never underestimate the importance and power of speaking truth over our children's lives. Pray God's Word over (and with) your children today and every day. 🙏

How to Hear From Heaven

MANY OF THE bad things that happen—or good things that should have happened but didn’t—are often a result of a failure to pray. That’s why learning to wait before the Lord and praying out the mystery of God’s plan for your life is so important!

The Bible says that when you pray in tongues, you are praying mysteries to God.

1 CORINTHIANS 14:2

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

The Moffatt translation says you are praying “divine secrets in the Spirit.”

Sometimes the Holy Spirit will impress you to pray about certain things concerning His plan. You will sense an unction or “urge” to pray. But if you ignore His promptings and busy yourself with natural affairs, that anointing will lift. And you may wonder if you ever sensed His voice to begin with!

Determine to always stay sensitive to the Holy Spirit’s gentle promptings. It may take time to discover His guidance and direction for your life. So remain before Him until your mind is quiet. THIS REQUIRES WAITING LONG ENOUGH IN PRAYER FOR YOUR PHYSICAL SENSES AND EMOTIONS TO BE BROUGHT INTO CAPTIVITY, SO THEY DON’T DOMINATE YOUR THOUGHTS. Then you will be able to hear from your spirit.

Spending time with God in praise and worship will quiet your mind and strengthen your spirit. That’s why devoting much time ministering to the Lord will greatly aid you in developing your spirit! Linger in His Presence and worship Him for everything He is and has done for you.

Ministering to the Lord means to drink in of His glory and let Him saturate every part of your being. It helps you to hear from Him! For instance, Acts 13:2 says, “As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said.” YOU CREATE THE ATMOSPHERE IN WHICH THE HOLY SPIRIT CAN SPEAK TO YOUR HEART! When you spend time just loving Him, it’s much easier to quiet your thoughts and emotions and focus on Jesus.

Be Still and Know

Determine to develop your spirit and always follow the Holy Spirit's leading. As you do, you will be able (in greater and greater degrees) to walk in victory and experience the fullness of the Father's plan for you.

- 1) Get still on the inside
- 2) Meditate on God's Word
- 3) Pray in the Spirit

If you do these three things long enough, you will get deeper over into the Spirit and be able to differentiate between your soul and your spirit. You can become so attuned to the Holy Spirit that you will know exactly what He is saying to your spirit as you seek Him for guidance and direction.

It takes time to quiet yourself. Psalm 46:10 says, "Be still, and know that I am God." Let your body and mind become quiet. Allow your emotions to subside until they don't color your thinking. Once everything is still, listen way down in your innermost being to what the Holy Spirit is saying. Even if your mind seems foggy, the Lord will enlighten your spirit and give you the guidance you need.

Don't permit spiritual laziness and stop short of what the Lord is saying deep within. If you are spiritually lethargic, you could end up following your own soulish desires, thinking all the time you were following God's plan!

Who's Talking?

Learn to distinguish between your soulish thoughts and desires and the Lord's leading in your spirit. To do that, YOU MUST BECOME WELL-GROUNDED IN THE WORD, which is the only way to distinguish between soul and spirit (Heb. 4:12). Becoming established in what God said will also help you recognize the voice of Satan and the subtle lies he speaks to your mind to deceive you (John 8:44; Rev. 12:9).

Remember that God speaks to your spirit, and what He says lines up with His Word. Always examine your leading in the light of the Bible. God will never lead you one step beyond the principles in His Word!

INVESTIGATE YOUR MOTIVES FOR WHAT YOU ARE CONSIDERING. Ask yourself: Why do I want to do this? Is it for a selfish benefit or because someone else is doing it? Is this something my soulish nature wants to do or something God wants me to do?

Sometimes it takes a lot of time in God's Presence to settle those questions. You can't always do it in one session of prayer. It may take long seasons of waiting before the Lord to get your motives pure and priorities sorted out according to the Word. THEN YOU CAN DISTINGUISH BETWEEN THE CLAMORING OF YOUR SOUL AND THE VOICE OF YOUR SPIRIT. You will be able to tell the difference between your desires and what God wants for you. Then from deep inside, direction and guidance will rise up. You will say with confidence, "Now I know what to do!"

How the Bible Plays a Role

Constantly feeding your spirit by meditating on God's Word and fellowshiping with the Lord is critical to developing spiritually. As you diligently seek Him for guidance and direction, you will see and understand God's plan for your life.

Many Christians miss it by staying in the mental and physical realms—forgetting that the spiritual realm is the ground out of which all else grows! When they become agitated, they run to people for counsel. But if they would only stop, get quiet, and fellowship with the Lord, they would hear Him speak. Peace, contentment, and satisfaction would flow from their spirit into their minds and emotions. Their questions would simmer down and become as nothing. Even their bodies would respond in joy and health!

IF YOU WANT TO BE LED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT, ALWAYS BE WILLING TO RESPOND TO HIS LEADING, EVEN IF IT DOESN'T AGREE WITH YOUR REASONING, EXPECTATION, OR DESIRES. Stay teachable and open to anything the Lord tells you. He will show you His ways and direct you into His plan!♥

Praying for Our Pastors

KATE MCVEIGH

“ASK NOT WHAT your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country.” I remember learning that famous quote in school. President John F. Kennedy said it during his inaugural address on January 20, 1961.

I think more people would be saved and ministered to if Christians had that same attitude today. “Ask not what your church can do for you, but what you can do for your church.”

Believers often look for ways to be blessed rather than ways to be a blessing. BUT REAL JOY COMES FROM PUTTING OTHERS FIRST INSTEAD OF OURSELVES.

If we want to get the most out of our church, we can be a blessing by praying for our pastors and their families every day. We should pray that God would give them wisdom and keep them strong. Let’s ask the Lord to give them the right messages whenever they speak. And instead of talking about something we don’t agree with in our church, pray! Ask God how we can help them.

Pastors Are Only Human

Pastors are people too. They are human, and they’re not perfect. Sometimes ministers have bad days, just as we do. They don’t always do everything right. That’s why we should cut them some slack and pray for them.

Some people have the idea that ministers only pray, read their Bible, and study 24 hours a day. I will never forget the time someone called and asked, “Are you studying? Are you praying? Are you fasting today?”

“No,” I said. “I’m eating popcorn and watching Little House on the Prairie!” I couldn’t believe how shocked may even be legitimate. However, IT IS NEVER OUR PLACE TO SPEAK NEGATIVELY OR GOSSIP ABOUT OUR PASTOR, CHURCH, OR LEADERSHIP.

The last thing we should want is to be used by the enemy to cause trouble or harm in church. We have all said things at times we wish we hadn’t. The best thing to do is ask for God’s forgiveness and never do it again. We should never let the devil draw us into the trap of gossiping about anyone in leadership.

In fact, we should run from those who spread rumors and cause division (Rom. 16:17). People who gossip and complain probably aren’t praying. The people who pray usually don’t talk about others or complain! When we get in God’s presence, He changes us. Petitioning God on behalf of our pastors will cause the anointing in the services to increase.

Pray the Word

It is important to pray God’s Word and His will—not our will—over our pastors. What we think needs to be changed may not be what needs changing at all. Here are some scriptural ways to intercede for them.

PRAY FOR:

- Insight and Revelation—Ephesians 1:16–19
- Help in Preaching the Word—Ephesians 6:19; Colossians 4:3; Isaiah 10:27
- Blessing—Deuteronomy 28:1–8; Isaiah 1:19
- Divine Appointments—Psalm 37:23
- Every Need to Be Met—Philippians 4:19; 2 Corinthians 9:8
- Protection—Psalm 91:10–11; Isaiah 54:17
- Supernatural Wisdom and Holy Spirit Guidance—John 16:13; James 1:5; Colossians 1:9

There is power in prayer, unity, and working together! Our pastors can’t do it alone—they need our help! 🙏

[Editor’s Note: Kate McVeigh is a respected evangelist, author, and teacher of the Gospel. This article was adapted from her book 12 Ways to Be a Blessing to Your Church.]

PASTOR APPRECIATION

Sunday, October 11

Petitioning God on behalf of our pastors will cause the anointing in the services to increase.

#RhemaWOF

she was! She thought all I ever did was read my Bible and pray!

Our lives need to be balanced. The Lord wants us to pray, work, rest, and have time for recreation. We, including our pastors, need balance in every area. God wants everyone to enjoy their lives (1 Tim. 6:17)!

Pray Instead of Gossip

Sometimes when people see things that aren’t quite right in their church, they have a tendency to talk about it. Negative things may irritate them, and their concerns

YOU ARE GOING TO MAKE IT

WHEN GOING THROUGH tough times, the first thing that usually happens is your emotions take over. You get mad, upset, cry, and worry, among other things. But let's look at a better way to respond.

JAMES 1:2-7 (NLT)

2 Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy.

3 For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow.

4 So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

5 If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking.

6 But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind.

7 Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord.

James is pointing out that after your emotions have set in, remember what the Word says and who to trust in.

Choose Joy

At some point in your life, you will experience disappointment. When that day comes, you have a choice. You can throw in the towel and let Satan win. Or you can consider the problem to be an opportunity to experience great joy.

It's not easy to be joyful in the middle of a trial. Joy isn't a natural emotion in periods of difficulty. But that's when you can't forget what the Bible says. The Greater One lives in us, and He is greater than the devil who is in the world (1 John 4:4). The Word also says, "The joy of the Lord is your strength" (Neh. 8:10). Whether you have joy is up to you. Regardless of what happens, the devil cannot steal your joy unless you allow him.

Don't Worry, Be Happy

It is a lot more fun to live life joyfully than worried. I was thinking about how happy my granddaughter always is. The reason is that she has nothing to worry about. My granddaughter knows that no matter what, her family will take care of her.

As Christians grow in the Lord, they seem to forget that God will help them come what may. They forget how good He is because they are too busy looking at their problems. But if you look to and put your trust in the Lord, He will take care of you.

We have all seen people who laugh at inappropriate times. It might seem wrong to laugh when things in our lives are crummy, but that's exactly when you should! Someone may ask, "Why are you laughing when everything is going bad in your life?" When you count it all joy, you can confidently say, "Because I know the Greater One. My God has not brought me this far to let me down. I will make it through to the other side! I don't have to worry because my trust is in God."

THE LORD, HE WILL TAKE CARE OF YOU.

Faith Under Pressure

The time to dig in your heels and not be moved by what you see or feel is when it appears that your situation isn't changing. Many fights are longer than expected, and you have to endure for a season. Keeping the right attitude, choosing joy, and trusting in the Greater One will cause your faith to grow and your endurance to develop. The next time the enemy comes at you with everything he has, it won't be a big deal because you will know what to do.

Ask for Wisdom

No matter how educated someone is, no one knows everything. And in some situations, you just aren't sure what step to take. That's when to ask the One Who has a solution for every situation. When you ask God for wisdom, He will generously give you what you need and not make you feel bad for asking.

Throughout scripture, Christians are encouraged to ask of God. Yet many times when trouble comes knocking, in addition to not counting it all joy, they don't ask the Lord for help.

James 4:2 (NIV) says, "You do not have because you do not ask God." In John 15:7, you are told to "ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." Someone may say, "Well, God knows I need help." It is true that He is all-seeing and all-knowing, but He is waiting for you to ask!

Don't Be a Spiritual Teeter-Totter

After petitioning God, it is crucial to put your faith in Him alone and don't look back. James 1:6 tells us that wavering is what keeps people from receiving what they have asked for.

Many people are what I call "spiritual teeter-totters." They are up one day and down the next. This happens because they listen to the lies of the devil instead of what God said. James says that a person who wavers should not expect to receive anything from God (v. 7). So if you've been up and down, decide today to get up and stay up!

The bottom line is this: when your trust is in the Lord, the issue is settled. When you have done all you know to do, then stand (Eph. 6:13).

You Win

Your situation may seem huge to you, but it's not to God. Renewing your mind with the Word will cause you to see the problem from His perspective.

God is giving you every opportunity to have joy. The choice is yours. Psalm 30:5 says, "Joy cometh in the morning." However, you don't have to wait until the morning (until the test is over). You can have joy now because the Greater One has taken up residence in you. You win because Jesus has already won.

When troubles and disappointment come this year, next week, or in the next hour, understand that it is only temporary. Don't pay attention to what the devil is saying. Instead, choose joy, ask God for wisdom, dig in your heels, and don't waver. See your situation through God's eyes. He has everything under control. Know that as you trust Him—you are going to make it! ♥

BEING THANKFUL IN HARD TIMES

I HAVE BEEN reflecting back over the last several months. Life has certainly not been my normal. Because of the pandemic, our traveling schedule was curtailed. This is the longest that my husband and I have been at home in years. It has certainly been a different time. However, I have always found that quiet times help you to hear God's voice more clearly. It is a time to get clear direction from God. I trust you have used this time to draw closer to God, take inventory of your life, and see if changes need to be made.

I would like to share some of the things I have learned to appreciate during this time. Oftentimes, we take things for granted until they are not available. Because of our schedule and only being the two of us, we eat in restaurants the majority of the time. During the pandemic, that option was not available. I had to hone my cooking skills again. I got out recipes I had not cooked in years. Actually, one recipe was a dish I had not made in 50 years. It has been an enjoyable time at home reminiscing and cooking dishes I used to cook as a newlywed and talk about the memories. Rather than complaining over not being able to go out to eat, we were thankful we had food.

However, it was a wake-up call when you would go to the grocery store and find that many of the items of food that you normally bought were not available. Just finding bread, milk, and eggs became a chore. We, in the United States, never fathomed that some of these items would not be readily available or that we would be limited to one. That has never been our mode of operation here, as we have lived in a country where food has been plentiful. Facing some of these challenges made me realize that we need to thank God every day for things we have taken for granted. It also caused me to pray for people in countries that face these kinds of food challenges on a daily basis.

None of us would have ever thought we would rejoice at finding toilet paper, paper towels, Lysol, and sanitizer. One of my friends was trying to find a certain brand of paper towels. I happened to see one at the grocery store I was in and purchased the paper towels for her. When I gave them to her, you would have thought I had given her a diamond ring. She was so grateful. I thought, "Wow, what a difference a few weeks make in what we are thankful for."

Another thing I found during this pandemic was how important being with people and close friends were. Some personalities need the interaction of people more than others. My husband loves to be around people constantly. I love people, but I do like some alone time. However, I found that I longed to be around others. My life was incomplete without the interaction of people. God meant for us to have fellowship with others. He did not want us to be alone on the earth. In fact, that is why He created Eve. Genesis 2:18 says, "And the Lord God said It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him." I was so thankful when I could enjoy the fellowship of others again.

Another thing I had taken for granted was being in the house of God and worshipping with others. I have gone to church my entire life. Watching online is good when there is not another option. But worshipping God with other believers is so much better. And the Bible commands us to do that. Hebrews 10:25 (NLT) says, "And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near."

I'm reminded of Romans 8:28 (NLT) which says, "And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them." Though COVID-19 has not been a good thing, I believe we can use it as a wake-up call to be thankful for the privileges we take for granted on a daily basis. God will turn bad situations for good if we maintain the right attitude. We are not thankful for hard times, but we do know that God will turn them around for us. He will make something good out of bad situations.♥

BREAK-THE-CODE

Here are some coded names of Bible characters who worked together with God to accomplish His plans. To decode the names, simply choose the letters in the alphabet immediately before or after the letters shown below.

You gotta have . . .

To be able to work together with God, there is one thing you "gotta have" more than anything else. To discover the answer, find all the letters on this page that have a yellow circle around them and then unscramble the letters.

God's Part & Your Part

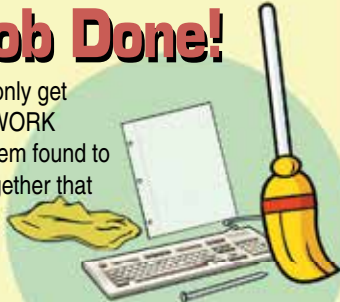

First Corinthians 3:9 says "For we are labourers [workers] together with God." So, what does that mean? F means that there is work WE do combined with work GOD does that gets the job done! In other words, God has a part to play and we have a part to play. Just think what a mess things would be in if God couldn't find people who would work WITH Him to get the job done! God gave David strength and courage to fight Goliath, but David still had to sling the stone. God made the walls of Jericho fall, but Joshua and the people of Israel had to do their part by walking around the city and letting out a shout. And the list goes on and on of times when God worked together with man to accomplish His plan. This still holds true today! GOD'S PART is to give you salvation, but you have to CONFESS AND BELIEVE (Rom. 10:9-10) in order to receive it. . . . That's YOUR PART! GOD'S PART is to provide you with healing, but you've got to have faith (Matt. 9:22) to receive it. . . . That's YOUR PART! God is always willing to do HIS PART. . . . Will you do YOUR PART?

See if you can match the GOD PART to the MAN PART of the stories below along with THE MAN whom God worked with.

GOD'S PART	THE MAN	MAN'S PART
Split the Red Sea	SHADRACH	Praised the Lord in front of his enemy
Defeated the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mt. Seir in battle	MOSES	Stood for God and didn't bow to idol
Protected from fire	JEHOSHAPHAT	Stretched out his staff over water
Protected from flood	PETER	Built a boat
Gave miraculous catch of fish	NOAH H	Threw his nets into the lake

Get the Job Done!

The items on the right can only get their jobs done when they WORK TOGETHER with another item found to the left. Match the items together that can "get the job done."
