God’s Definition of Success

To be successful Christians, we must stay diligent to obey the Holy Spirit’s leading in every situation of life. And we must trust God to prosper whatever we put our hands to (Joshua 1:8; Ps. 1:1-3).

We cannot try to measure our success by comparing ourselves with other people. The Lord doesn’t measure our success in life by comparing us with our peers or fellow church members. He accepts us and works with us where we are in our Christian walk. God sees us as successful if we are obeying Him and doing what He has told us to do. That’s why it is so important to learn how to obey the inward witness and follow the Holy Spirit’s leading in our hearts.

There was a businessman in Texas who rose from poverty to great wealth. He earned his fortune by making investments. Over a period of many years, he never lost one penny on any investment! When asked about the key to his success, he said, “I learned to listen to what the Spirit of God speaks to my own spirit. If I don’t get an immediate answer on a particular deal, I spend time in the Word and prayer until I know what the Holy Spirit is saying to my spirit.”

This man never lost money on any investment because he followed his spirit in business matters. He learned how to stay sensitive to the inward witness of the Holy Spirit, and he prospered.

You can be the successful Christian God designed you to be. You can train your spirit to be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit in you. In every situation you face, you can learn to respond from your heart instead of from your head or physical senses. You are the temple of the Holy Spirit. And He will faithfully guide you in every area of life as you learn to hear His voice and follow His leading.

HOW YOU CAN

KNOW

IS SPEAKING

GOD HAS A purpose and a destiny for all of His children. He has prepared great things for us. But too many Christians fall short of God’s plan. This happens when His children do not know how to clearly recognize the voice of the Holy Spirit.

First Corinthians 2:9–10 (NIV 1984) says, “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him—but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit.”

We can see from this passage that the Holy Spirit wants to show us God’s plans and purposes for our lives. It’s up to us, however, to be sensitive to His voice and follow His leadings. We do this by spending time reading God’s Word and communing with Him through prayer.

During our times of communion with the Lord, we will rarely hear an audible voice when the Holy Spirit “speaks” to us. What we will sense is a strong leading to do something. Or we might feel strongly about going in a certain direction.

When I was young in the Lord and learning to recognize the Holy Spirit’s voice, I often wondered, “Is that the Holy Spirit speaking to me, or is that just me thinking about these things?”

My heart’s desire above anything else was to not do anything motivated by my flesh. In other words, I didn’t want to do things that Lynette wanted to do if they weren’t things that God wanted me to do.

I wanted to be a vessel for the Lord and do whatever God had for me to do. I wanted to make sure that I was acting on His will and not mine. And to obey God’s will, I knew I had to hear His voice clearly.

It’s also God’s desire for us to be able to recognize His voice so He can lead and direct us in every area of our lives. John 16:13 says, “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.”

In addition to God showing us His plans and purposes for our lives, He also wants to protect us. He wants to warn us of harmful events, as well as people we should be wary of.

Consider the following examples of how these warnings might occur: While driving home from work

AND PURPOSES
FOR OUR LIVES.

one day, you begin to feel you should take a different route than you normally take. And in doing so, you are spared from being in a traffic accident. Or when planning a vacation, you might really want to go to a certain place. But as you plan the trip, you get the feeling you should not go there at this time. Or you may be considering going into business with someone, but on the inside—in your spirit—you’re getting a “check.” Although it may appear in the natural that partnering with that particular person would be a good thing, you’re sensing the Lord telling you to watch out—perhaps because that person’s motives are not pure.

In situations like this last one, when another person is involved, you want to know that what you are sensing is the Lord and not your own imagination. You don’t want to falsely accuse someone—especially when you don’t have any proof of what you’re sensing but only have a “gut feeling.”

At times in my life, I’ve gone back and forth in my mind wondering if what I was sensing about another person was me or God. The Bible says we have not because we ask not (James 4:2). So one day I asked the Lord to give me some guidelines. You see, God doesn’t want us to wonder. He wants us to know with certainty when the Holy Spirit is speaking to us.

Here are the guidelines the Lord gave me. He instructed me to ask myself the following three questions.

1 DO YOU HAVE ANYTHING AGAINST THAT PERSON IN THE NATURAL? Sometimes your personality clashes with another person’s. When that happens, it doesn’t mean God is warning you about him or her. You just don’t like that person.

2 ARE YOU JEALOUS OF THAT PERSON? Maybe the person is very successful and what you are really feeling is jealousy of his or her position and success.

3 HAVE YOU ALREADY BEEN THINKING ABOUT THAT PERSON? When thoughts about someone come from out of the blue, it’s usually an indication that the Holy Spirit is bringing this person to your mind.

It’s not our place to judge anyone. And we never want to hold a grudge against someone or be angry with them. It is our responsibility to judge our hearts and motives (1 Cor. 11:31; John 7:24; Luke 6:37). But if you are undecided about teaming up with someone in a joint venture, ask yourself these questions. You will be better able to discern what to do. If you can answer “no” to all three of these questions, then you’re probably not con-

Follow Peace

When following the leadings of the Holy Spirit, one of the best indicators of whether you are on the right track is your level of peace. Romans 14:19 instructs us to “follow after the things which make for peace.”

Allow peace to be your guide and boldly step out in what God is telling you to do or say. When you obey, the right door will open and the right words will fill your mouth.

cluding up what you are sensing in your spirit. Rather, the Holy Spirit is trying to warn you.

The devil wants to get us off track from God’s plans and purposes for our lives. But God did not leave us alone or defenseless while we are here on the earth. The Holy Spirit, who was sent to live inside born-again believers, is greater than the devil and all of his forces who seek to devour us (1 John 4:4).

God reassures us that we are more than conquerors in every situation of life (Rom. 8:37). As we spend time communing with the Lord, He will clearly show us things to come and what direction to take. And as we follow His leadings, we will walk on the path that leads us to our God-given destiny.♥

RHEMA IS A SPOKEN WORD, A PLACE, AND A WORLDWIDE FAMILY.

The Purpose of Pentecost

KIRK DUBOIS

MOSES PRAYED VERY prophetically during the time when the Israelites had come out of Egypt and were living in the wilderness. The Israelites had complained to Moses many times about their conditions. They complained they didn't have any meat to eat—that all they had was manna. And Moses finally told God that leading these people was too much for him.

To help Moses, God told him to choose 70 elders and bring them to the tabernacle. There God would take some of the Spirit that was on Moses and put it on them so they could help lead the people. When this took place, all 70 elders began to prophesy, including two who had not come to the tabernacle. Here is what happened next.

NUMBERS 11:27–28

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

Moses said to Joshua, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish all of God's people were prophets, and that He would put His Spirit upon all of them!” (v. 29.) This was a prophetic prayer that wouldn't be answered until the Day of Pentecost.

A Blessing for All Creation

Later, in the Book of Joel, God gave us a prophetic promise concerning this wonderful blessing to come for all creation. God prophesied through Joel, “There's coming a time when I'm going to pour out My Spirit—not just upon the preachers, the priests, or Moses, or prophets, or kings, but upon all flesh! Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy. Your young men shall see visions. Your old men shall dream dreams.” (See Joel 2:28–29.)

So in God's plan there was no gender gap, no age gap, no gap between slave and free, rich and poor, no racial gap. God said He would pour out His Spirit on all flesh. And we see this promise beginning to be fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost.

ACTS 2:1–4

1 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

This was the beginning of the fulfillment of Moses' prophetic prayer and Joel's prophetic promise. The Spirit of God was being poured out upon all flesh.

God is no longer locked up in a box behind a curtain; He is living among His people. He's made us His temple.

A Unique Privilege

Jesus said in John 10:4–5, “My sheep know My voice. They'll not follow another.” In Romans 8:14 it is written, “As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons [and daughters] of God.”

This is the unique privilege of every believer. No longer do we have to go to a priest and say, “Give me a word from the Lord.” Now, every believer can receive the power of the Holy Spirit and be led by Him. Each of us can hear from Heaven and get direction in our own spirit for what God has for our life.

Jesus told us that when the Holy Spirit comes, He will show us things to come and remind us of what He said. (See John 14:26; 16:13.) The Holy Spirit will direct our lives.

IN GOD'S PLAN THERE WAS NO GENDER GAP, NO AGE GAP, NO GAP BETWEEN SLAVE AND FREE, RICH AND POOR, NO RACIAL GAP. God said He would pour out His Spirit on all flesh.

As the Apostle Peter said, we are all a royal priesthood unto God (1 Peter 2:9). The Lord has put His Spirit upon all His people, and God can communicate with all of us. This is the prophetic purpose of Pentecost. This is the significance of the Holy Spirit being poured out.♥

INSTRUCTOR HIGHLIGHT

“HEAVEN MUST BE FULL OF ANSWERS FOR WHICH NO ONE HAS EVER BOTHERED TO ASK.”

—CAMERON THOMPSON

KENNETH W. HAGIN

JUST ASK!

LIFE IS A series of expectations. We're expecting something either good or bad. Some people are pessimistic. They're always sure the worst will happen. Others are optimistic and look for the best, no matter what is going on around them.

Our expectations are based on words. If someone said, "Hold out your hand. I have something for you," most people would immediately extend an eager hand.

Parents have said to their kids, "If you get the yard work done, we'll do such-and-such." The children then look forward to what they've been promised.

The same is true when we are told we're getting a raise. As soon as we receive our paycheck, we look to make sure the extra money is there! Some people have even bought something new before they saw the raise. They did this because they believed what their supervisor told them. Before they saw an increase, they acted like they already had it.

God Is a Good Father

Based on what God promised in scripture, we can expect good things. We can also be sure that He is always ready, willing, and able to pour out His blessings on us.

Most earthly fathers help their kids and grandkids as much as they can. I have five grandsons, and if they want something, they call Poppy. And you know what Poppy says? "OK." Why? I love those boys. If it's within my power, I am going to make it happen.

Our Heavenly Father is the same way. Sad to say, some fathers don't help their kids. God is not like that. He wants to help His children more than any earthly father does. Scripture says, "As bad as you are, you still know how to give good gifts to your children. But your heavenly Father is even more ready to give good things to people who ask" (Matt. 7:11 CEV).

You Have to Ask

Notice the last part of Matthew 7:11 says that God will give good things to "people who ask." Matthew makes it clear that we have to ask. Cameron Thompson said, "Heaven must be full of answers for which no one has ever bothered to ask."* That is a powerful statement! God is both able and willing to help you. All you have to do is ask for what He promised you in the Bible.

One time many years ago, I was making plans to go to a baseball game with some guys I worked with. One of the men really wanted to go but didn't have the money. Someone in the group preached a mini sermon to him on believing God for finances.

When it came time to collect the money for the tickets, the guy who preached the mini sermon didn't have it. Only a few days earlier, he had preached to his friend, but he ended up not having the money!

This shows you can know all about a subject but not be able to apply it to your own life! Until you open your mouth and ask God for what you want or need, you won't get anything.

I have had people say to me, "I just can't understand why so-and-so is always getting stuff!"

In talking to them, I learned that they have never prayed and asked God to meet their need. They thought He knew what they needed, so they never bothered going to Him about their situation.

Some people think God is moved by our need, but He isn't. He's not moved by our emotions or tears either. Faith is what moves God to perform His Word.

Many people have heard faith preached and taught, but they are not receiving from God. They have faith in their heart, but they aren't putting it into action. They want others to pray and believe that God will do something for them. They don't understand that they can pray and God will hear them.

You can go to your Heavenly Father the same way you do your earthly father. You can ask God for what the Bible says belongs to you. Here are five practical ways to increase your faith and raise your expectation level so you can receive what is already yours.

1 MAINTAIN A DIET OF GOD'S WORD
Meditate on scriptures that talk about the goodness of God and tell you who you are in Christ. Remind yourself of scripture that covers what you are asking for. As you meditate on these scriptures, you are building your faith and you will have a solid foundation to stand on.

2 PRAY IN THE SPIRIT
Spend time praying in tongues. The Holy Spirit will tell you things to do that will help you receive from Him.

Praying in tongues helps us be more sensitive to what God wants us to do. We learn to recognize the inward witness of the Spirit more easily. One way to describe that inward witness is that we have an inner peace. As we learn to follow that peace, it will be a governing factor in our lives.

3 REMEMBER WHAT GOD DID
It's good to remember what God has already done for us. If He did it once, He will do it again. Relive the times when God helped you accomplish something everyone said was impossible. It will help build your faith.

4 READ THE STORIES OF OTHERS
The Bible is filled with stories of how God helped people. If He helped them, He will help you too. Seeing how they persevered will help you remain steadfast and strong until you receive. The inspiration you will get from reading these Bible stories will help build up your faith and expectation.

5 GET IN A CORPORATE ATMOSPHERE OF FAITH
God doesn't want any of His children to stand alone. Anytime you are experiencing challenges, church is where you need to be. There is a corporate atmosphere of faith in a body of believers.

You may come to church feeling down and caught up in your situation. But when you come together with your brothers and sisters in the Lord, your faith is joined with theirs. Instead of wondering how you are going to make it, you are encouraged and your faith is strengthened.

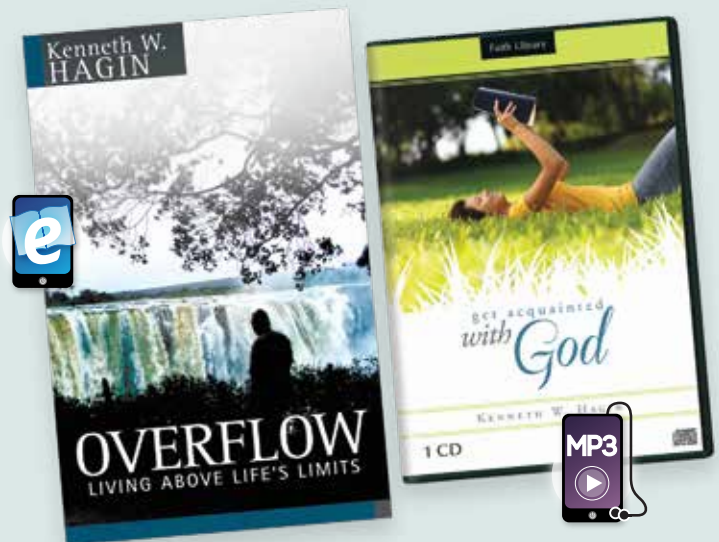

As you lift up your eyes toward God in faith instead of focusing on your circumstances, you will begin to see what He has for you. Then you can confidently ask Him for the things you need and receive what you ask for.♥

TODAY—NO MATTER what part of the world you may be in—you need to remember the Word. Whatever you are going through, whatever issues you are dealing with, remind God of His Word (Isa. 43:26). God honors His Word so faithfully that He even repented to Moses for wanting to kill all the Israelites. How powerful is that?

Israel's Immediate Downfall

After the Israelites left Egypt, Moses brought them to Mount Sinai. The mountain was quaking and covered with fire and smoke. God was letting the children of Israel know, "This is where I am now."

And it was at Mount Sinai that God gave the Israelites the Ten Commandments. He was laying the groundwork to let them know that He is a jealous God.

EXODUS 20:4-5

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God

He was basically saying, "In case you forget, I'm the man. I brought you out of Egypt. And besides that, I'm a jealous God. So let Me tell you right now, I don't want you worshipping anybody else. I don't want to see any graven images."

But only a few chapters later, the children of Israel did forget. Moses was on the mountain fellowshiping with God. And because he was gone for a long time, the Israelites made a calf out of gold and worshipped it. They said the calf, not God, brought them out of Egypt!

How quickly we can forget the goodness of God if we don't keep the Word before us. Needless to say, God was mad! So mad that He wanted to destroy everyone except Moses.

EXODUS 32:10

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

God, Remember What You Said

Moses immediately said, "Wait a minute, God. What's the deal? You brought Your people out with a mighty hand. We bankrupted Egypt. And now, you're going to kill us in the wilderness?"

Moses then said to God, "Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people" (Exod. 32:12). Oh my! You better know who you are in Christ before telling God to repent!

Moses, however, only did what God said to do. God wants us to remind Him of what He said. Moses reminded God of His promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And look what God did.

EXODUS 32:14

14 And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

Standing in the Gap

Somebody has to stand in the gap, make up the hedge, and intercede (Ezek. 22:30). Because of the price tag God put on His children and His Word, He did not consume the Israelites. He changed His mind because He remembered what He had promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

I guarantee you that everyone is going through something. That's not the issue. The real issue is, how are you handling the problems of life?

If you know who you are in Christ, you have a position to stand before God and put Him in remembrance of His Word. When Moses reminded God of His Word, the Israelites were saved from destruction.

God is no respecter of persons. When you remind God of what He promised concerning your situation, it will be turned around.♥

God wants us to remind Him of what He said.

The training college is an intensive, on-campus school designed to prepare people for full-time ministry. The correspondence school is a home-study course intended to give laypeople basic Bible knowledge.

Multiplying KINGDOM LEADERS

THE WRAY FAMILY

EARLY DAYS OF PASTORING

BRAZIL IS ON fire for God. Often when a local pastor asks his congregation how many feel His call or want to be missionaries, they fill up the altar. They're hungry for Him and excited about His things.

It's easy to see how the ministry Bud and Jan Wright (1983 RBTC grads) founded has contributed to what is happening in Brazil. Since Verbo da Vida (Word of Life) started in 1985, over 400 churches have sprung up across the country. In 2000, the Wrights' Bible college came under the RBTC umbrella. Today, over 110 Rhema campuses are spread across Brazil.

DARREN AND EDMA WITH BUD AND JAN WRIGHT.

Darren and Edma Wray began working with the Wrights in the late '90s. After spending a year pastoring in Mindanao, Philippines, Darren (a '96 Rhema USA grad) went to Brazil and began helping Bud and Jan.

Edma grew up in Aracaju, the capital of Sergipe, Brazil's smallest state. She graduated from Rhema Brazil in 1997. The couple married in 1999 and six months later began pastoring Igreja Verbo da Vida (Word of Life Church) and heading up Rhema Brazil in Aracaju. Over time, their responsibilities have steadily increased.

Starting with 75 people, the church has grown to around 1,500 members. In the 23 years that Darren and Edma have been pastoring, leaders in their church have stepped out to pioneer 13 other churches and four Rhema campuses.

A Modern-Day Barnabas

"I've always had in my heart to open new works," says Darren. "But I always do it with a person." He feels his call is similar to Barnabas's, the Apostle Paul's mentor. He helps others find their own call and get into their place.

"Over time, as we're working with leaders in the church, some of them have come and talked to me," says Darren. They've told him about a city or place God has put on their hearts. Darren works with them, and together they start a church.

Leo was a teenager when he came to Verbo da Vida. Eventually, he became the youth and young adult leader. One day he came to Darren and said, "I have Argentina on my heart." Darren immediately said he would help. Nine months later, Leo, his wife, and Darren were on a plane to Argentina to spy out the land. They first started a church and later established Rhema Argentina.

Darren admits that it's emotionally hard when a leader steps out to start a work. Those who leave are the ones producing the most fruit in the church.

"There's a degree of sacrifice," says Darren. "But at the same time, we understand the law of sowing and reaping. And we understand that part of what God has called us to do is multiply. That's why I believe it's so important to be constantly raising up leaders. If we don't, eventually there won't be anyone left."

Lead With Your Successor in Mind

When an individual steps into a ministry position at Verbo da Vida, Darren instills in them the importance of mentoring their successor.

"If a department or ministry is worse off after someone leaves, that person wasn't a good leader," he explains. "They need to leave a ministry better than when they arrived. And it needs to continue operating after they've left. That's when you know you were a good leader."

PASTOR GARY HOFFMAN

On-Fire Youth

With all Verbo da Vida's outreaches, Darren and Edma won't have any problems raising up new leaders. Church members are ministering in prisons, nursing homes, hospitals, delinquent centers, and schools.

But what excites Edma in particular are the youth. "I see this next generation on fire to evangelize," she says.

On one evangelistic outreach, the youth went to a college testing center. (In the U.S., this would be similar to places where SAT tests are given.) The team brought water and sweets for the test takers and offered prayer before the exam. In addition to having their nerves calmed before the test, several young people accepted the Lord.

Sharing Christ Through the Arts

This past year, Verbo da Vida put on a Christmas play written and directed by a church member. More than 130 new visitors came to watch the performance, and over 20 people gave their lives to the Lord.

Something interesting happened one night. The play's main character was named Emily. The story focused on the loss of her parents and what she went through afterward. It just so happened that a girl named Emily was in the audience. She, too, had recently lost her parents and was experiencing much of what the main character did. Emily was profoundly impacted as she watched the details of her life play out in front of her.

Expansion

In 2018, the Wrays completed the first phase of their building program. They were holding four services every Sunday in their original building. Verbo da Vida bought two pieces of land and built their new facility debt-free. Bank loans to build a church are not available in Brazil. But God provided everything they needed.

Darren and Edma have plans to purchase adjacent buildings to continue the expansion of the children's and youth departments and administrative offices. Being in the city, "we have to take advantage of the space and build up," says Darren. "Maybe three or four floors high for classrooms and administration."

Giving Honor Where Honor Is Due

When Darren went to Brazil in 1998, he had prayed that God would connect him to a mentor within the country. "When I was in the Philippines," he says, "I was pretty much on my own, and it was kind of tough." Those mentors were Bud and Jan Wright. The Lord connected Darren's heart to theirs when they met.

"Pastor Bud was a father. He took care of us," says Edma. "He and Momma Jan invested in us when we were young. Pastor Bud would say, 'I was a truck driver and didn't know a thing, but God does. So go ahead. You can do it. Don't be afraid.' I would encourage those in the ministry to be fathers and trust their people."

Edma credits their success to connection. "All of this growth and everything that has happened in Aracaju goes back to the Verbo da Vida ministry," she says.

Darren adds, "My pastor in Virginia, Gary Hoffman, has been a true father to me. When I was young, he helped me find my place in ministry. He invested in me to go to Rhema and the Philippines. And he has supported Edma and me the entire time we've been in Brazil."

That is what ministry is all about—connecting with, investing in, and helping others. The more we sow into people and help them reach their calling, the more God's love will manifest on the earth. Through that sowing and helping, we will see the exponential growth of the Church in Brazil spread to other nations. 🇧🇷

PRAYER POINT

- » For Igreja Verbo da Vida to REACH 1 PERCENT of Aracaju's population. (That would be 6,500 people. In two campuses, they serve around 2,000 people.)
- » To ESTABLISH A CHURCH in the 10 largest cities of Sergipe state. (Currently, seven churches have been started.)
- » MORE leaders
- » MORE buildings

THE CHOSEN ONES

RHEMA USA SENDS OUT 48TH CLASS

RHEMA BIBLE TRAINING College graduated its 48th class on Friday, May 13. Nicknamed “The Chosen Ones,” the 253 graduates entered the Rhema Bible Church Auditorium to a rousing standing ovation from those in attendance. The moment capped off several years of preparation for God’s call on their lives. They now join over 110,000 Rhema alumni worldwide as they enter the earth’s harvest fields and run their race for the Lord.

Rev. Mark Bintliff, pastor of New Creation Church in Glenwood Springs, Colorado and a 1982 RBTC graduate, delivered the commencement address. Rev. Bintliff reminded the students that God has prepared them for this time, this hour, and this generation.

I want to talk about the faithfulness of God. You have learned about faith, but our faith in God has to do with His faithfulness. In Philippians 1:6, Paul tells us that God will be faithful to complete the work He began in you. God is a good finisher. He will perform whatever He has promised you. If He started it, He will finish it.

God has been preparing you for what He has prepared for you. He has been at work preparing you over the last few years at Rhema. He wants you to occupy the places He has prepared for you instead of those places occupying you.

The world is filled with much darkness and difficulty. But God has put in you what you need to face whatever tomorrow may bring. You have been made ready for this time and season—for this generation. God has prepared you for:

1. NEW PLACES.

God has prepared you to confidently go into places with His Word and the power of the Holy Spirit. People will try to discourage you. They will tell you that certain places are dry, dark, and “hard ground.” But that’s why God sent you! You are the light of the world. He sent you to start an outpouring of the Spirit to wet the land. Wherever God calls you, He will be faithful to you. No matter what it looks like, be confident that He is with you wherever you go.

2. NEW PEOPLE.

God has prepared you for new people. Ministry is about people. Isaiah 52:7 says, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news.” Your feet are beautiful because they carry you to people who need what you have.

God is calling you to those who are wounded, lost, and hurting. You will go to places where people have been broken by life. They are groping in the darkness and don’t know what to do. But God has prepared you to approach every person with His love. When you reach out to people with compassion, you open up avenues for God’s supernatural power to make them whole. Rhema has prepared you to change their lives.

3. NEW POSITIONS.

God has given you feet like a deer to maneuver through life with skill. (See Psalm 18:33.) He has been preparing you to live above your circumstances and rise to new heights. God is bringing a new thing to this generation that goes beyond pulpit ministry. Some of you are called into places of business, education, and government. The Lord will place you in positions of influence to minister to people who otherwise might not be ministered to.

God is calling you to rise up. The Church has a greater and new influence upon it. Keep your focus on the prize. Don’t look to the right hand or to the left. Keep your focus on Jesus, Who is the author and finisher of your faith.

As commencement ended, graduates walked out of the auditorium holding a lit candle in one hand and a baton in the other. Each baton bore the inscription: “I commit today to carry the baton of revival to this generation. I will carry the banner of faith and God’s power to a lost and dying world. This is my time to do all God has called me to do!”♥

“God is calling you to those who are wounded, lost, and hurting. You will go to places where people have been broken by life.”

FRESH OIL!

GOD'S END-TIME plan includes restoration of His glory, restoration of His power, and restoration of His gifts and ministries to the Church.

Through my years of ministry, I've seen occasional manifestations of the glory of God. I've watched God's presence, appearing like a cloud, come into the building. And I've observed what looked like waves roll in from the back of the building and hover over the people. Although it looked like waves, it was a white cloud—a manifestation of God's glory.

I'm convinced we'll see more of these manifestations in the end times. We're going to move into a greater manifestation of signs and wonders than we've seen before. I believe we'll see a revival of the supernatural.

Ephesians 4:10–12 says when Christ ascended on High, He gave gifts to men: some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers for the perfecting—or maturing—of the Body of Christ.

Our mistake has been that we've recognized only three of these ministry gifts: the pastor, the evangelist, and the teacher. For the Church to be what it should be and for us to do the work God intended, we must have the manifestation of the fivefold ministry. We must recognize the ministry gifts, honor them, and permit them to function in the way God wants them to.

We must also recognize the gifts or manifestations of the Holy Spirit: the word of wisdom, the word of knowledge, faith, gifts of healings, the working of miracles, prophecy, discerning of spirits, divers kinds of tongues, and interpretation of tongues (1 Cor. 12:8–10).

First Corinthians 12:11 says, “But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.”

Notice He is not dividing the gift. He is dividing the manifestation of the gift.

The gifts of the Spirit belong to the Church. They've always existed but have been lying dormant. The manifestation of the gifts is given to individual members of the Body of Christ as the Spirit wills.

We also need to understand that those who stand in the fivefold ministry offices are equipped with some of these spiritual gifts to function in their offices. For instance, to stand in the office of a prophet, one must have a consistent manifestation of at least two of the revelation gifts (word of wisdom, word of knowledge, or discerning of spirits) plus prophecy.

A prophet is one who has visions and revelations—the word of knowledge operates in prophets. On the other hand, any believer can have a manifestation of the word of knowledge as the need arises.

We'll see a renewal of the spiritual gifts in the end times. They'll be in manifestation even more.

Fresh oil!

THAT'S WHAT WE NEED TODAY: A FRESH ANOINTING OF OIL—THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Let's look at another portion of scripture.

LUKE 5:36-38

36 And he [Jesus] spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles [or wineskins]; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

We must understand the illustration Jesus is using. These wine “bottles” were made of skin. Once the wine was put into them, they would swell up and change shape. But as the skin became old, it grew brittle. An old skin would burst if wine were put into it.

Therefore, they would renew those old wineskins. First, they soaked them in water for a long time. Second, they'd rub olive oil into the skin until it became soft and pliable. The skins were like new again. New wine could be put into them without the skin bursting.

Jesus was saying that individuals, local churches, and denominations are often like those wineskins: old, empty, dead, and brittle.

How can we be soaked in water to be renewed? Paul, talking about the Church, said in Ephesians 5:26, “That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word.” We become saturated by the washing of water by the Word!

Many of us have been freshly saturated with God's Word. Others need to be. Unless they are, they'll never be able to hold the new wine.

After the skins were soaked in water, they were rubbed with olive oil until they became soft and pliable. Oil is a type of the Holy Spirit. The psalmist said, “I shall be anointed with fresh oil” (Ps. 92:10).

Fresh oil! That's what we need today: a fresh anointing of oil—the Holy Spirit—and it's coming. Smith Wigglesworth held a meeting right before he went home to be with the Lord in 1947.

During the meeting, Wigglesworth said, “In our day, we've had a move of the gifts of the Spirit but very little teaching of the Word. A revival of the teaching of the Word of God is coming. After that revival, a fresh anointing of the Spirit will come. The combination of the two revivals will bring the greatest move we've ever seen!”

Is a new wave coming? Some people are looking for something brand-new—something that has never happened before. In that sense, there will never be a new wave. God is going to do everything He's ever done.

Go to the ocean and watch the waves come in. You may say, “That's a new wave.” Yes, it's a different wave from the one before. But it's still the same water, even though it's higher than the first wave.

The move of God often comes gently. But it keeps pushing in until it covers an entire territory.

The wave of the teaching revival started in the '80s. It's been gathering momentum and will sweep in a greater move of the Spirit, power, authority, and character of God.

You can receive a fresh anointing right now!

Confession

Thank You, Lord, for the rain—the outpouring of the Holy Ghost—the early and the latter rain. Thank You for the harvest—the precious fruit of the earth.

The revival and the new wave are not coming. The revival—the refreshing—is here now. I'll walk in it, and I'm a part of it. And the work of God will be done.♥

We Need a Spiritual Tune-Up

KENNETH W. HAGIN

WE ALL WANT to receive the best God has for us. But having that happen may require us to make adjustments. A car can seem to be working fine and go awhile without getting an oil change or a tune-up. But when it is fine-tuned, it will get better gas mileage, have more power, and operate at peak performance.

In our personal lives, we can get by pretty well but still fall short of God's best. That is an indication we need fine-tuning. One area we can go wrong in is criticizing and complaining.

It's easy to criticize others and complain about what we don't have. But in Philippians 2:14, the Apostle Paul admonished us, "Do everything without complaining or arguing" (NIV 1984).

Be Honest With Yourself

To make sure we don't fall into this trap, we must be honest with ourselves. It's easy to see where someone else can improve. But it's another story to recognize the improvements we need to make.

If everything we said during a day was recorded, what would we hear when listening to the MP3? Would it be filled with griping, complaining, arguing, and criticism? LET'S PAY ATTENTION TO WHAT WE SAY AND MAKE THE NECESSARY CHANGES.

Don't Sin With Your Mouth

Complaining is not just a bad habit; it's a sin. In First Corinthians 10:10, Paul wrote about how the children of Israel murmured against God. They witnessed many miracles in the desert, but they still complained. And those complaints were one reason they didn't go into the Promised Land.

Complainers and critics cause strife among believers. And we see in Proverbs 6:16–19 that God hates people who do that.

Stop the Blame Game

Another area that can need fine-tuning is blaming God and others for our problems. Some people never take responsibility for anything that happens. It's always somebody else's fault.

We need to realize that no one twists our arm when we make a decision. IF WE ANALYZE OUR CHOICES, WE WILL SEE THAT WE ARE OFTEN RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CONSEQUENCES.

People fall into three categories: accusers, excusers, and choosers.

Accusers always blame someone else. Adam was an accuser. He blamed Eve and God for what happened in the Garden of Eden. He said, "It's because of this wife that You gave me" (Gen. 3:12).

Excusers say, "I'm a product of my environment." Their situation is never their fault, and they can always give you a reason why.

Choosers accept responsibility for their own decisions. If they make a wrong move, they are willing to reap what they sow. And if they need to ask God for forgiveness, they do and move on.

Excusers and accusers move nowhere.

Focus on What You Have

Many people complain because they focus on what they don't have. Scripture tells us, "Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thess. 5:18 NIV).

We are not told to give thanks for the circumstance but in it. In other words, WE SHOULD DEVELOP AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE. We can learn to be grateful for what we have. It's hard for us to be thankful if we're always complaining. The two don't mix.

Choosers accept responsibility for their own decisions.

Think Before You Talk

Paul told us in Philippians 2:15 (NIV 1984) not to complain or argue so we may "become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe." When we develop a positive outlook and don't complain, we will stand out from others.

Ephesians 4:29 (NIV) says, "Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen." Before we say something, let's ask ourselves,

- 1 IS IT TRUE?
- 2 DOES IT NEED TO BE SAID?
- 3 WILL IT HELP ANYBODY?
- 4 IS IT UPLIFTING OR EDIFYING?

Let's fine-tune ourselves and put a guard over our mouths. Let's determine not to complain or criticize. As we do, we will shine like the stars and receive God's best.♥

SEED

Thoughts

// LYNETTE HAGIN

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

HEAR AND OBEY

IN THE LAST issue of "Seed Thoughts," I wrote about the importance of shutting out the distractions in the world around us. I reminded readers to listen to the Holy Spirit Who is there to lead, guide, and direct our lives. I want to continue on that same subject this month.

My father-in-law, Kenneth E. Hagin, taught on this subject often. He referred to it as listening to your spirit. Years ago, when I was learning this, I first endeavored to decipher how to listen to my spirit.

People often think the thoughts that come to them are their thoughts and not the Lord speaking. Of course, we know the devil can bring thoughts to you as well. His thoughts are always negative. Thoughts like, "You are not going to make it this time" are thoughts from Satan. So know when those negative thoughts come, they are not from God but from the enemy.

The Lord wants to help you in your everyday life. I often ask people, "Have thoughts ever come to you such as 'You might want to go a different direction home today,' and you ignored them?" You thought those were your thoughts, so you went your usual way.

Then you encountered a traffic jam caused by an accident, and you were an hour delayed in getting home. I then tell them, "That was the Holy Spirit trying to assist you."

I have learned to pay attention to impressions and thoughts when I have not been thinking in that direction. I have come to realize that it's the Holy Spirit nudging me, leading me, and protecting me.

Many years ago, the houses of two well-known ministers in Tulsa caught fire, and the damage was tremendous. One family had just bought smoke detectors but had not installed them yet. One was lying in the laundry room when the alert went off in the middle of the night. That alarm actually saved their lives.

Several months later, I was going about my normal routine for the day. I wasn't thinking about the fires that had happened. I wasn't even praying. But I always have a listening ear to the voice of the Holy Spirit. Out of nowhere, these thoughts came: "The enemy is trying to destroy the lives and homes of ministers in your town. Take authority over your house."

When I saw my husband that day, I relayed to him those thoughts. We very calmly proclaimed Psalm 91. We quoted verses 9–11 (NIV '84), "If you make the Most High your dwelling—even the Lord, who is my refuge—then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways."

I would encourage you to read the entire 91st psalm. My husband and I apply many verses of that psalm often.

Several months after that prayer, Ken and I were awakened in the middle of the night by our alarm company. A phone call in the middle of the night is, of course, alarming. When I answered the phone, the person said, "Your smoke alarm is going off." There was no smoke in our bedroom, but I could smell smoke. You can usually tell the kind of fire by the smell of the smoke. We recognized the smell as an electrical fire. We looked around the house and could not see where a fire was, but the smell was strong.

We finally called 911, and the firemen came to do a more thorough investigation. They looked and looked to find the source. Finally, they located it. A fire had started in the motor of our furnace unit, which was in our laundry room. The laundry room was adjacent to our bedroom. The firemen said, "An electrical fire started here but it mysteriously extinguished itself."

Of course, we knew the real reason. The Lord had warned us ahead of time, and we had taken authority over any fire that would try to come to our dwelling. John 16:13 says, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come."

I encourage people to learn to pray offensively rather than defensively. It's better to pray before something happens than after the event occurs. The Holy Spirit is there to warn you. I encourage you to instantly heed and obey His instructions.♥

GOD'S DISPLEASURE!

Hebrews chapter 11 tells us the one thing that PLEASES God the most, and that is FAITH. But Numbers chapter 11 tells us one of the things that DISPLEASES God the most. To find out what it is, simply take the first letter of each picture below and transfer it to the blank below each picture. The answer will appear.

EXACT OPPOSITES

Listed below are 14 things you can do with your tongue . . . 7 are positive things and 7 are negative things. Put a circle around the 7 positive things and then put a square around the negative things. When you've done that, then draw a line from each circled word to the squared word that is the exact opposite.

Break the "BAD TONGUE HABIT"

The children of Israel had a "bad tongue habit" and it showed up quite a lot on their journey through the wilderness. Read the passages below to discover a "bad tongue habit" that the children of Israel had . . . and quite a few children of today have.

Exodus 15:23-24 (NCV)—"Then they came to Marah, where there was water, but they could not drink it because it was too bitter. . . . The people grumbled to Moses, and asked, 'What will we drink?'"

Exodus 16:2-3 (NCV)—"Then the whole Israelite community grumbled to Moses and Aaron in the desert. They said to them, 'It would have been better if the Lord had killed us in the land of Egypt. There we had meat to eat. . . .'"

Numbers 14:2-3 (NCV)—"All the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron, and all the people said to them, 'We wish we had died in . . . this desert. Why is the Lord bringing us to this land to be killed with swords?'"

Did you figure it out? The "bad tongue habit" that the children of Israel had was GRUMBLING AND COMPLAINING! And, if you'd be really honest, you might confess that you have the same "bad tongue habit" sometimes! It's time to break the "bad tongue habit" of grumbling and complaining. But, how do you break the habit?

BREAK THE CODE TO BREAK THE HABIT

There's a Scripture verse that tells us how to break the "bad tongue habit" of grumbling and complaining. Use the pink CODE KEY below to substitute letters for the symbols under the blanks and you will discover the answer.
