Why We Need a Personal Knowledge of God

We frequently hear the term “the knowledge of the Lord.” According to Colossians 1:9–10, God desires that we are filled with the knowledge of Him and His will. When the knowledge of the Lord fills the land, the Spirit of God will manifest Himself mightily!

The Bible tells us that God chose to dwell in human vessels. So the human vessels He indwells need to be filled with the knowledge of God before it can fill the earth!

We all need to have a personal knowledge of God. You shouldn’t let someone stand behind a pulpit and tell you about God without your getting involved in knowing Him yourself. With your own eyes, read and devour the Word. Find out for yourself what God’s Word has to say about your life in Christ.

The Gospel is simple. Man’s theology and religion have tried to make it difficult. But in Jesus’ earthly ministry, He always kept His teaching simple. And yet in His simplicity, Jesus was profound. Man’s theology didn’t bring you into a personal relationship with God. The Word of God did. And through the knowledge of God and His Word, you can maintain a lifestyle of victory and success because you know the Victor and the Conqueror—Jesus!

Part of knowing God is meditating on His Word and putting it into operation in your everyday life. For example, you can know the keys on a musical keyboard. But until you actually begin to play those keys, no music will come forth. It’s operating in the knowledge you have that produces results.

We as the Body of Christ need to get a hold of the knowledge of God as we devour the scriptures for ourselves. Then we can each operate in our place filled with the knowledge of God. As we do, the whole earth will be filled with the knowledge of God, and mighty demonstrations of His power and glory will come upon the earth!

OBSTACLES OR OPPORTUNITIES?

FAITH IN ACTION

Possessing the Promises

God created us to rule and reign in life, not to be dominated and reigned over. Christ won the battle for us by defeating Satan. But we must “fight the good fight of faith” (1 Tim. 6:12) to receive the victory God has for us. This fight involves three basic areas:

- 1 You must fight to believe something. The devil will do everything he can to get you not to believe God’s Word. Fight for your beliefs by continually feeding upon the Word.
- 2 You must fight to say something. When the devil whispers something in your ear, refute those thoughts immediately by saying what the Word says.
- 3 You must fight to do something. It’s important that you act as though the Word is true. God wants you to act like the victor He created you to be—not cast down or defeated.

KENNETH W. HAGIN

IF SOMETHING CATCHES your attention when you're walking down the street, have you ever noticed that you drift in that direction? Someone might yell, "Hey, look where you're going!" But the problem is that you are going where you're looking!

The same principle is true in every area of life. WHATEVER WE'RE LOOKING AT IS WHERE WE GO. That will be our destination. This is why God wants us to focus on His Word and not our circumstances.

We see an example of this in the lives of the children of Israel. God promised the generation of Israelites who came out of Egypt that He would give them a land flowing with milk and honey. When they got there, they saw how good the land was. But they also saw giants and fortified cities. The vast majority of them focused on the obstacles. What they saw held them captive, and they stayed in the wilderness. Only Joshua and Caleb believed God's promise and eventually entered the Promised Land. (See Numbers 13:26-14:24.)

If the Israelites had focused on God's promise to give them the land, they would have entered it with Joshua and Caleb. God was giving them a great opportunity. But they focused on the obstacles instead of the opportunity. They continually looked at their circumstances and received nothing.

Every time an obstacle comes across our path, we need to say what my dad used to say: "This is just another opportunity to prove that God's Word works!" Every obstacle is an opportunity. Looking at life's obstacles that way will change our perspective. It will change how we feel and talk. It will change everything!

Joshua learned the secret of seeing things nobody else could see. God told him to "meditate on [the Word] day and night so you will be sure to obey everything written in it. Only then will you prosper and succeed in all you do" (Joshua 1:8 NLT).

Seeing things that no one else can see is what Paul talked about when he told us to look at the unseen realm (2 Cor. 4:18). WHEN OTHERS ARE LOOKING AT THE OBSTACLES, WE'RE LOOKING AT THE OPPORTUNITIES.

Joshua and Caleb saw themselves living in the Promised Land, and they eventually possessed the land. I've heard my dad say thousands of times, "See yourself with what you need. See yourself healed. See yourself without lack. See yourself blessed." In other words, see yourself possessing what God's Word says is yours.

When Joshua led the next generation of Israelites into the Promised Land to possess it, the circumstances and obstacles had not changed. Giants and fortified cities were still in the land. But this new group focused on God's Word instead of the circumstances.

When the Israelites crossed the Jordan River, the first obstacle they faced was the walled city of Jericho. But God told Joshua, "I have given Jericho into your hand" (Joshua 6:2 NKJV).

This generation of Israelites listened to God's instructions and obeyed them. He told them to march around the city once every day for six days. On the seventh day, they were to march around Jericho seven times, and seven priests were to blow trumpets. When the people heard the trumpets, they were supposed to shout, and the walls of the city would fall down.

The Israelites focused on the unseen thing God told them would happen if they obeyed His instructions. When they did as God said, the walls fell down flat. Then they went in and took possession of the city (Joshua 6:3-20)! They didn't look at the large, walled city as an obstacle. They focused on the opportunity God gave them by looking at the unseen, and they went on to take the land.

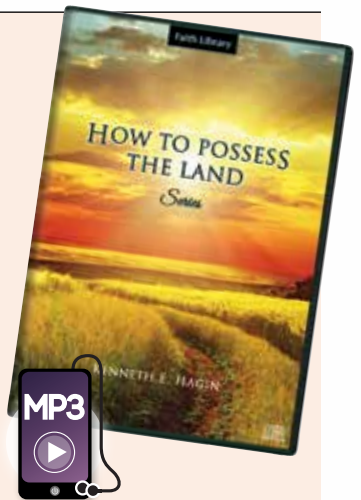

When Caleb was 40 years old, Moses promised him all the land where he placed his foot. Forty-five years later Caleb said to Joshua, "Give me this mountain of which the Lord spoke in that day" (Joshua 14:12 NKJV). The mountain he wanted had giants in it, but he didn't focus on the giants. Instead, he looked at the opportunity of having that beautiful mountain as his possession. He looked at the fruit growing there and imagined how nice it would be to build his house overlooking the plains where his relatives lived.

Caleb had meditated on having his mountain all the time he was in the wilderness. Forty years of wandering with that group of unbelieving people did not change his way of thinking. He didn't become discouraged; he kept looking at the promise. He saw the situation the way God saw it. And God gave Caleb his mountain!♥

Being Content in the Here

LYNETTE HAGIN

HOW MUCH OF the time do you concentrate on the “here”—on what is happening in your life right now? Or do you always think about the “there,” the future? When we’re not happy in the “here,” our thoughts tend to focus on what will happen next, because we believe it will be so much better when we get “there.”

You’ve probably heard the saying, “The grass always looks greener on the other side of the fence.” But so often when we get there, it’s not nearly as green as we thought it would be.

I heard a story about an airline pilot who was flying over the Tennessee mountains. He pointed out a lake to his copilot and said, “When I was a kid, I used to fish in that lake. Every time I saw a plane flying overhead, I wished I were flying the plane. Now when I look down at the lake, I wish I was down there fishing.”

People go after what they think will make them happy, but they often find out that it doesn’t. Contentment is never achieved by increasing our possessions or our status. Nothing will ever be enough.

In the natural, we have four seasons. Two are winter and summer. When it’s freezing in the winter, how often do we wish for summer? But when summer arrives and it’s super hot, we’re looking forward to winter.

Thinking about or wishing for the next season doesn’t cause it to come quicker. We must learn to enjoy our season of “here.”

The Apostle Paul learned that secret. He said in Philippians 4:11 (NLT), “I have learned how to be content with whatever I have.” Paul learned to be content regardless of the situation.

What does contentment mean? It is an inner sense of peace from knowing that God is in control of our lives.

Learning to be content is not an instant transformation. It’s a process. We learn to be content by walking and talking with God.

God is taking all of us on a journey. He says in Jeremiah 1:5 (MSG), “Before I shaped you in the womb, I knew all about you. Before you saw the light of day, I had holy plans for you.” Jeremiah 29:11 (NLT) says those “are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.”

KNOW THAT IN OUR PLACE OF “HERE,” GOD IS PREPARING US FOR OUR “THERE.” But if we don’t learn what we need to “here,” we won’t be successful “there.”

As I look back at how the Lord brought me through different seasons, I see how each one prepared me for a “there” season. Did I enjoy some of those “here” seasons? No. Absolutely not. I had to learn to be content in every season, knowing that Jesus was the answer.

God taught me to rely on Him and let Him bring things to pass in His timing. Waiting is not something we enjoy. Many people are impatient and want to take shortcuts. But God has a purpose and plan for each step of the journey.

I have no idea what “here” season you are in right now. But if you will follow the voice of the Holy Spirit, He will lead you and prepare you for your next season. So often, if you knew the future He has for you, it would amaze you.

As you trust in the Lord, learn to be content in the hard seasons, and pass the test “here.” He will bring you to the other side. But if you choose not to be faithful with what He has for you in this present time, you’ll never reach the ultimate of what He has for you to be and to do.

I encourage you to be content in your “here.” Allow your Heavenly Father to take you on a journey—to prepare you and train you for your future. Such joy awaits you! He has such satisfaction for you if you will just trust in Him.♥

Know that in our place of “here,” God is preparing us for our “there.”

PRACTICAL WISDOM FOR FINANCIAL PROSPERITY

Timeless
Teachings
of Kenneth E. Hagin

THE FAITH WALK does not ignore the natural laws of the universe, which actually are God's laws. As Christians, we need to apply biblical teaching and spiritual principles in day-to-day living. We also must not abandon practical wisdom and common sense in the financial area of our lives.

AS A RULE, GOD DOES NOT SUPERNATURALLY PERFORM WHAT WE HAVE THE POWER TO DO FOR OURSELVES. Most people discover that only after they have done all they know and have the power to do does God step in and do what only He can do. For example, there is no question that God can miraculously heal our human bodies. I personally was raised up from my deathbed and made completely whole. Over the years, I have seen many people healed of everything from headaches to cancers.

Just because God can and does heal doesn't mean that we shouldn't use common sense in taking care of our bodies, eating the right foods, exercising, working in a reasonable way, and getting proper rest. Nor should a person with a disease stop his medical treatment and abandon all reason and common sense. It would be folly, not faith, for a person with diabetes to keep eating large quantities of starchy, sugary foods, saying that he was trusting God to heal him.

In the same sense, it would be ridiculous for people to try to “look prosperous” by buying all kinds of luxurious items and charging them to credit cards that already have payments they can’t afford.

“I believe God is going to provide the money to pay off my debts somehow, some way,” they say. “I’m expecting a miracle blessing.” “Maybe He’ll help me to win the lottery!” Obviously these people’s expectations are based on mistaken understandings and wrong motives. There is no balance between faith and reality in their lives. With so little wisdom and spiritual discernment to draw upon, these people are easily deceived and led further astray by misguided or unscrupulous religious promoters.

IS GIVING THE ONLY KEY TO PROSPERITY?

In teaching prosperity, too many preachers seem to communicate the idea that receiving financial abundance is totally and exclusively tied to one thing—giving . . . and usually to them! Don’t misunderstand me. I believe in giving. I believe that giving is important. But it is not the only key to prosperity.

My son, Rev. Kenneth W. Hagin, is pastor of Rhema Bible Church in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. From time to time, he preaches about prosperity to his congregation, which includes a large number of young people, many of them students at Rhema Bible Training College.

Ken includes a lot of scriptures from the Word of God that define prosperity and show that it is definitely included in God’s will for His people today. As part of the Bible lesson, Ken teaches about tithing and giving as vital elements of biblical prosperity.

While God can channel blessings to us from many sources, much of the time He uses our job as the primary channel.

WE CAN MAKE OUR WAY PROSPEROUS

Ken stresses that knowing and doing what the Bible says has a direct relationship to our prosperity. Joshua 1:8 declares, “This book of the law [the Word of God] shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.”

The Bible doesn’t just speak about God prospering us. It also speaks of us making our own way prosperous. That’s why Ken doesn’t deal with only the spiritual aspect of prosperity. He also encourages young people to identify their skills and interests and then seek God as to how He might be leading them vocationally. They should get the best education they possibly can and gain a broad range of knowledge about the world they live in. He advises adults who would like to advance on their jobs to take classes and get extra training.

HARD WORK BRINGS PROSPERITY

Ken also teaches people to work hard and to be diligent in performing their duties on their jobs. In most cases, workers who take an interest in their work and do a good job are recognized and rewarded for what they do. It’s true that we should trust in God as our Source rather than placing all our confidence in a job or the economy. But that doesn’t mean that financial prosperity is totally unrelated to a person’s occupation.

While God can channel blessings to us from many sources, much of the time He uses our job as the primary channel. TYPICALLY, THERE IS A DIRECT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ONE’S PERSONAL FINANCIAL PROSPERITY AND THE AMOUNT OF RESPONSIBILITY HE OR SHE TAKES ON AT WORK. Folks who work harder and in more specialized, skilled fields—those whose abilities are in greater demand—receive a greater financial reward.

Paul told the Thessalonians, “Work with your own hands, as we commanded you; That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing” (1 Thess. 4:11–12).

He also declared, “And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men” (Col. 3:23).

Let’s strive to maintain balance in every area, including the area of finances and prosperity. Remember to look to the whole counsel of God’s Word while not neglecting practical wisdom and common sense. This will help us to stay in the middle of the road at all times.♥

RHEMA USA GRADUATES 49TH CLASS

Applause greeted Rhema Bible Training College's 49th class as the 262 graduates filed into the Rhema Bible Church auditorium on May 19, 2023. Each graduate received a diploma and a runner's relay baton. The diploma marked the completion of their training. And the baton served as a reminder to carry the banner of faith and God's power to a lost and dying world.

Rev. Josh Pennington, pastor of More Life Church in Newark, Ohio, and a 1999 RBTC graduate, delivered the commencement address. Rev. Pennington told the graduates that the world is waiting on them and gave them points that would help them finish their race.

AS I LOOK OUT at this sea of bright and eager faces, I see a future filled with limitless potential. You have the power to shape the world, to create a legacy and positive change, to leave an indelible mark on the lives of the people that you serve.

They are waiting on you. They're waiting on you to lead. They're waiting on you to innovate. They're waiting on you to inspire. They're waiting on you to make a difference. So as you walk across this stage and into the next chapter of your life, remember this: the world is waiting with bated breath.

So lean into authenticity. Be a servant leader. Cultivate curiosity. Demonstrate empathy. Practice patience. And seize every opportunity that lies ahead of you.

In front of me, I see a group of people who will answer the call. And as you do, the Spirit of God will empower you to preach the Gospel, heal the sick, cleanse the leper, raise the dead, remove burdens, destroy yokes, recover sight to the blind, heal the brokenhearted, bind up their wounds, proclaim liberty to the captives, and turn this world upside down.

Before you go tonight, I have one last thing I want you to do. Look as far over your left shoulder as you possibly can. Now look over your right shoulder as far as you can. Let that be the last time you ever look back, except to remember the faithfulness of God.

And remember, the world is waiting on you.♥

THINKING ABOUT GOING TO RHEMA?

Attending Rhema Bible Training College is life changing. But don't take our word for it. Here is what a few graduates had to say.

"Learning how to be led by the Holy Spirit and growing in relationship with God has impacted my life in a way that I'll never be the same." —Justin, Ministry Fundamentals

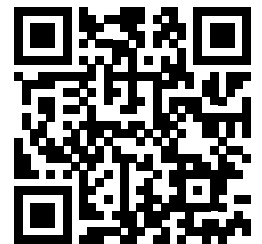

"Rhema was a renewal of life for me. A rejuvenation, so to speak. The Lord restored my foundation, my ministry, me, and my family." —Louis, Pastoral Ministry

"I've learned so much. The foundation of my life has been completely reset. I feel confident in going into the children's or youth ministry, whatever the Lord has me to do." —Dajah, Student Ministries

"The Word of God comes alive when you're in class. There are some things you think you know, but when you sit in class, you see it in another light." —Sunday, 2nd Year, Pastoral

"My favorite moment every week was always Exaltation. Developing a prayer life and those intimate moments with the Lord has completely changed my life." —Jeremy, Ministry Fundamentals

It's Not Too Late!

You don't have to be 100% ready, as long as you are 100% committed. Apply today to Rhema Bible Training College's 2023 fall semester. School starts September 5.

RHEMA IS A SPOKEN WORD, A PLACE, AND A WORLDWIDE FAMILY.

The Power of Your Words

KAREN JENSEN SALISBURY

GOD CREATED EVERYTHING we can see from something we can't see—words. From the beginning, God set change in motion by speaking. Hebrews 11:3 (GNT) says, “It is by faith that we understand that the universe was created by God's word, so that what can be seen was made out of what cannot be seen.” God has given us that same ability to set change in motion by speaking.

What are you not seeing in your life that you would like to see? Perhaps it's healing, peace, growth, harmony in relationships, or financial success. Whatever it is, God has already given it to you. He has given His children everything that pertains to life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3). And the Word tells us the way we obtain these things is by words, by what we say.

WHAT ARE YOU USING YOUR POWER FOR?

Everyone most likely knows the saying, “Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me.” Everyone also knows that saying isn't true. Words are powerful. And it's time we use that power to work for us and not against us.

Matthew 12:36–37 (PHILLIPS) says, “I tell you that men will have to answer at the day of judgment for every careless word they utter—for it is your words that will acquit you, and your words that will condemn you.”

If there is a void in our lives or things aren't happening the way we want, it's most likely because we are speaking words that are in agreement with the things we don't want. We need to ask ourselves, “What is coming out of my mouth all day, every day? Is it agreeing with God's Word?” Faith is voice activated. We can't speak God's promises and then speak the curse and expect the promises to dominate our lives.

Circumstances can talk mighty loud, and it's easy to agree with them. But we must talk back and say what God says and not what we see. To do that, we must have more of God's Word in our hearts and mouths than allowing the circumstance to consume us.

When a bunch of things are going wrong in my life, I get out a pad of paper and write them down. Then I write out a scripture that addresses each item. Finally, I ask myself what the best outcome would be, and I write out a confession based on what I want.

Ephesians 6:13–17 talks about the armor of God. Each piece of armor mentioned is defensive, except one—the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God (v. 17). Speaking God's Word is how we use the sword. We can't punch the devil in the face physically, but by speaking the Word, we can knock him out spiritually. If things are going bad in your life, or you want to see a change, start “swinging your sword” by saying what God says about you.

The Bible says you can have whatever you say (Mark 11:23). If you don't like what you have in your life now, start doing what God does when He wants to see a change—speak! Proverbs 18:21 (NKJV) says, “Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.” The power lies with us.

Do you know the devil can't take anything from you? He floats things by you to see what pushes your buttons enough for you to agree with him. He listens to your words. Every time you say, “What am I going to do? I can't take it anymore,” I'm convinced Satan goes, “There it is. That's it. Let's push that button a few more times.”

Don't allow yourself to be hung by your tongue. Jesus paid too much of a price for you to agree with the devil and use the power and authority God gave you for evil.

Are there things that need to change in your life, thoughts, and actions? I encourage you to use your power for good and start saying what God said so you can receive what He has for you. ♥

INSTRUCTOR HIGHLIGHT

True Worshipers

EARLIER THIS YEAR, the Lord began dealing with me about prayer and praise. We often separate them, but they work together. We see how they fit together in the following scripture passage.

PHILIPPIANS 4:6–7 (NLT)

6 Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done.

7 Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

There are three parts here. First, we pray about everything. Second, we thank Him. And then, we will experience God's peace.

I like to say that prayer and praise are like a Reese's Peanut Butter Cup. Chocolate is really good by itself. Peanut butter is awesome too. When you put them together . . . now that's something special!

Prayer and praise bring the peace. Oftentimes we are praying but not experiencing peace. And that's because we're missing the praise part.

Stop Whining!

Some people pray and pray and don't see results, so they start complaining. But that only gives the devil dominion in the situation. Praise is God's language. It gives Him dominion to move and change things.

Think about Joshua and the wall of Jericho. The Israelites marched around that city six times. When did their victory come? On the seventh time around when they shouted and praised. Praise brought the breakthrough. We're not missing it in prayer. We got that. We're missing it in our praise.

Practicing Praise

The Lord spoke to my heart and said we need to practice our praise. That seemed kind of odd to put together—practice praise. You wouldn't think we would have to do that. But praise doesn't come naturally to us. That's why we offer up the sacrifice of praise (Heb. 13:15). Sometimes we don't feel like praising the Lord and lifting our arms in worship. But that is where we're missing it, because praise is what brings the breakthrough and the victory. We have to get good at praising God during the hard times.

If you want to get good at something, you have to practice doing it. Both my sons played baseball, and every week I took them to BP—batting practice. For 30 minutes straight, somebody pitched a ball to them, and they hit it.

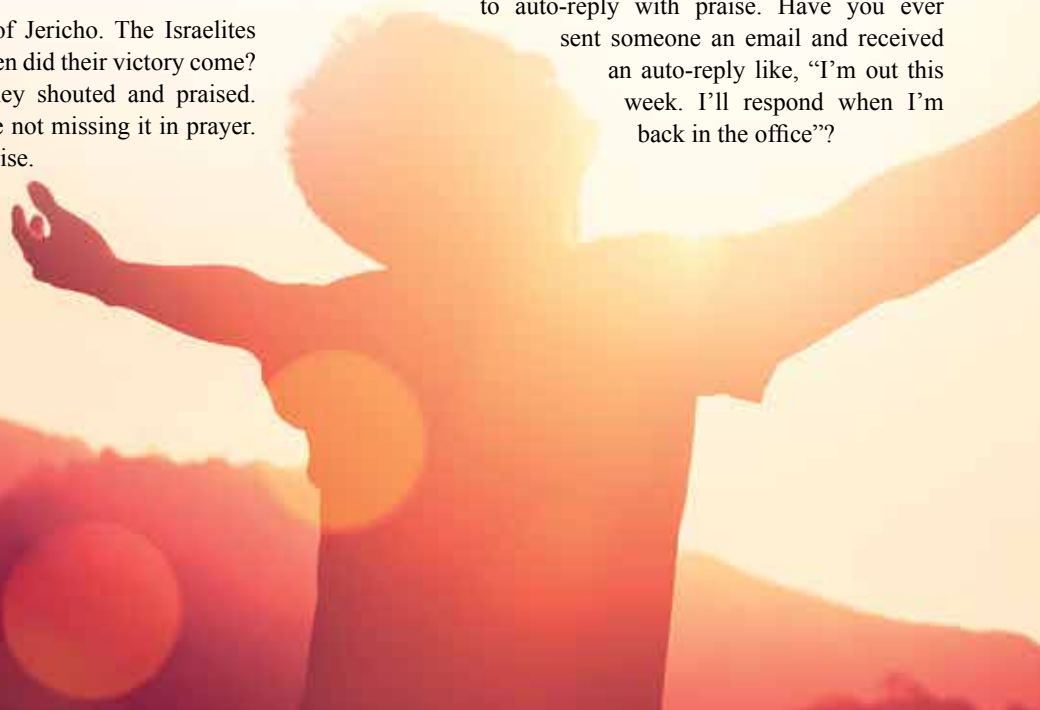

Why do baseball players practice hitting the ball so much? Because it needs to become an automatic response. On game day, they can't be thinking, "Is my stance right? Are my knees bent? Is my weight back so I can power through?"

Players don't have time to think about those things when the pressure is on. When they step up to the batter's box, the crowd is yelling. The pitcher is trying to intimidate them so they strike out. When that ball comes flying across home plate, they have to hit it without thinking. It must be an automatic response.

That's how we need to be with praise. We need to practice praise when our lives are calm and going well. Pressure situations come up all the time. When the devil is shouting, "I'm going to take you out," our automatic response must be praise.

Reply With Praise

When the pressures of life try to knock us down, we need to auto-reply with praise. Have you ever sent someone an email and received an auto-reply like, "I'm out this week. I'll respond when I'm back in the office"?

When depression comes, instead of saying, “I’m really sad,” let’s auto-reply with praise. During financial difficulties, auto-reply with praise. When marriage problems arise, instead of saying something ugly, auto-reply with praise!

True Worshipers

Jesus said to the woman at the well, “The time is coming—indeed it’s here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way” (John 4:23 NLT).

Notice the phrase “true worshipers.” That indicates there are different kinds of worshipers. If you can be a true worshiper, you can also be a non-true worshiper. The Father is seeking true worshipers. John 4:24 (NLT) says, “God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

God Is Looking

Do you remember playing hide-and-seek as a child? The seeker runs around trying to find the hiders. Seekers look everywhere—behind closed doors and under beds. When they find the hider, they get so excited.

God is like that too. He looks in one church asking, “Are there true worshipers here? No.” So He goes to another church and asks, “Are they worshipping Me in spirit and in truth here? No.” The Father keeps looking until He finally finds a church of true worshipers, and He gets so excited! He’s like, “Let me pull up a chair. These are the worshipers I’m seeking. I want to abide here.”

Old Testament saints didn’t have the Spirit within. They only had the Spirit upon. When the Spirit came upon them, they could only worship God in the flesh. We see that in Second Samuel 6:14 (NLT): “David danced before the Lord with all his might.”

Jesus said in John 4:23 (NLT), “The time is coming—indeed it’s here now. . . .” Today, we have the Spirit within.

Our spirit within us worships God spirit to Spirit—in spirit and in truth. Tremendous power is made available when we worship spirit to Spirit. Unfortunately, we don’t always worship that way. People are worshipping God in the flesh, and that’s not who He is looking for.

Praise

IS GOD’S LANGUAGE.

We have to create an atmosphere for the Holy Spirit to come in. I’m so tired of people putting Him in a box. I like to laugh, run, and dance as much as the next person. But that is not the only way the Holy Spirit moves.

It grieves the Holy Spirit when we say He has to move a certain way. How about we go to church and worship God spirit to Spirit? And however He shows up and moves, that is how He moves.

I’m convinced we have not seen some moves of the Holy Spirit because we’ve never let them happen. We’ve been putting Him in a box and limiting Him to move only in ways we have seen in the past.

But if we shatter that box and get into God’s presence and worship Him in spirit and in truth, He will do things we have never seen that will blow our minds.♥

Expectation:

The Key to Receiving From God

CRAIG W. HAGIN

IT'S TIME FOR us to begin expecting to receive from God. When we are full of expectation, we will see a greater move of the Spirit and a greater manifestation of the things of God. But we have to expect it. If we don't expect to see it, we won't see it.

THE LORD ONCE TOLD ME, "THERE ARE TOO MANY PEOPLE IN CHURCH SITTING AROUND AND WAITING. IT'S TIME TO STOP WAITING AND START EXPECTING!"

Many times Christians go to church services hoping they will see something but they are not expecting anything. In fact, it surprises many Christians when something does happen in a service.

Why should we be surprised? If we were expecting to see the supernatural, it shouldn't shock us when it takes place. If we anticipated great things to happen, we wouldn't be surprised when they did. We should expect the miraculous.

Mark chapter 5 tells the story of a woman who expected and received a miracle.

MARK 5:25-29 (NKJV)

25 Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years,

26 and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse.

27 When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment.

28 For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well."

29 Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction.

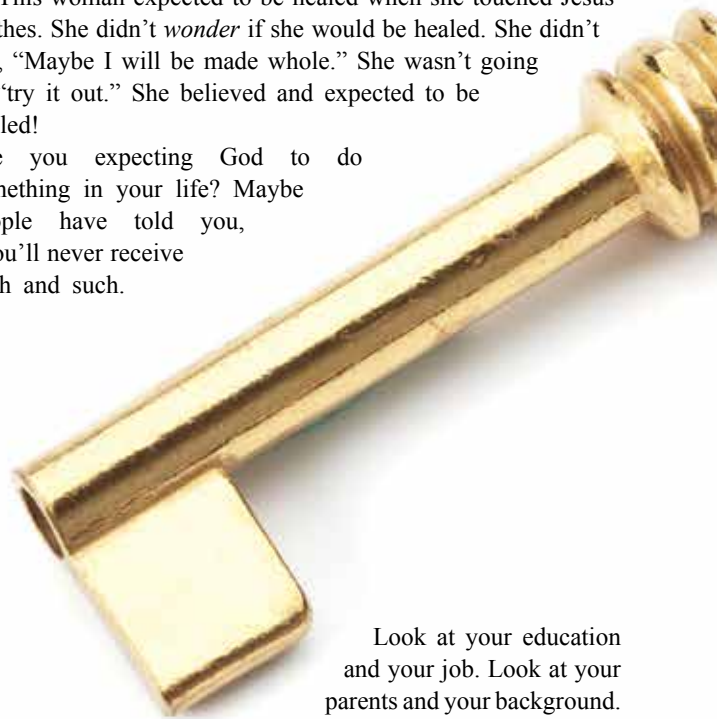

The woman with the issue of blood wasn't just sick; she was dying. She suffered for 12 years and had been to every doctor in the land. No one could help her, and she only became worse. Then one day, she heard about Jesus (v. 27). This woman probably heard testimonies of His healing power.

Romans 10:17 tells us that faith comes by hearing the Word of God. Evidently, this woman had heard that Jesus was anointed to heal. When she learned He was coming to town, she said, "If I can just touch His clothes, I will be healed."

This woman expected to be healed when she touched Jesus' clothes. She didn't wonder if she would be healed. She didn't say, "Maybe I will be made whole." She wasn't going to "try it out." She believed and expected to be healed!

Are you expecting God to do something in your life? Maybe people have told you, "You'll never receive such and such."

Look at your education and your job. Look at your parents and your background. You're only setting yourself up for disappointment."

Don't believe them. When you expect great things from God according to His Word, no one can talk you out of what you desire.

It doesn't matter where you came from. What's important is where you're going. Too many people never arrive at their destination because they're always looking behind them. Don't look back. Keep your eyes on what you're believing God for.

Some Christians think the woman with the issue of blood was healed because she lived when Jesus was on the earth. But it was harder for her to reach Jesus than it is for us to reach Him today. We don't have to wait for Jesus to come to our town. We don't have to fight our way through a crowd to reach Him. Jesus is always with us (Heb. 13:5). And He is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Heb. 13:8), so His power is still available to us today.

Regardless of the circumstances,
DON'T EVER STOP EXPECTING TO RECEIVE FROM GOD.

DON'T LET GO OF YOUR EXPECTATIONS

When you ask the Lord to meet your needs, expect them to be met. Even if they aren't met immediately, or within your time frame, keep standing in faith! God isn't in the "drive-through window" business. We're used to placing an order for fast food and receiving it two minutes later. We may receive instant answers from God on occasion, yet some answers don't always manifest instantly. But if something doesn't happen right away, that doesn't mean we should quit believing God.

REGARDLESS OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES, DON'T EVER STOP EXPECTING TO RECEIVE FROM GOD. And don't sit around, either! Put some action to your expectation. The woman in Mark chapter 5 didn't sit around saying, "If I could touch Jesus' clothes, I would be whole." She got up and put action to her faith; she went and found Jesus.

I encourage you to start putting action to whatever you are expecting. And I challenge you to start attending church with an expectation. When we go to church, a conference, or other special services, nothing out of the ordinary will happen unless we expect it to. Nothing will happen unless we go to the service ready to receive from God.

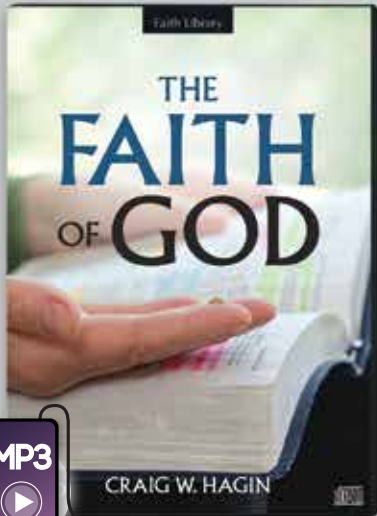

Church services aren't spectator events. They are expectator events. The success of the service doesn't depend only on the musicians or the preacher. We all have a part to play. We all have to go to the service expecting and ready to receive from God.

Are you expecting great things from God? Have you prayed and confessed His Word over a particular situation in your life? Ephesians 6:13 says that after we have done all to stand, we must keep standing. Don't give up. Keep believing. And keep expecting! ♥

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

PRAY WITHOUT CEASING

One of the topics I speak on frequently is prayer. I have found most people spend little time in prayer. For as long as I can remember, ministers described the proper method of praying as spending 30–60 minutes a day in uninterrupted prayer. I agree it would be awesome if our schedules would accommodate that pattern.

However, in the busyness of our lives, we don't always have time to apply that method of prayer. And it ends up that people feel guilty because they have neglected what they know is important. Many years ago, I found myself in that situation. I even apologized to God because my routine did not always allow me to spend that much uninterrupted time with God.

The Lord gave me information that I have ministered to people around the world. He brought several scriptures to me that I want to share with you.

First Thessalonians 5:17 (NKJV) says, "Pray without ceasing." The NIV says, "Pray continually." Ephesians 6:18 (NLT), "Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion." Romans 12:12 (KJV), "Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer." The New Century Version says it this way: "Be joyful because you have hope. Be patient when trouble comes, and pray at all times."

As I looked at these scriptures, I realized if we could not pray all the time, the Word would not encourage us to follow those instructions. I realized that my father-in-law, Brother Hagin, practiced this continually. On occasion, he would come into my office, engaging in a conversation. As I was replying to his question, I would see his lips moving. At first I thought, "How rude. He is not listening to my answer." But I realized because we were talking about decisions and projects that needed to be accomplished, he was listening to my answer but also praying about them as well.

I realized it was possible to pray at all times and while you were doing other things. So I set out to practice what the Word instructed us to do. For years, I have followed a routine I want to share with you. It will help you realize you can pray an hour or more each day.

I begin my morning praying the moment I get up. While I am getting ready, I am praying at the same time. I pray for my family and for anything I need an answer for. I thank God for His goodness that He has bestowed upon me. And finally I say, "Father, lead me and guide me today. Help me to be sensitive to your voice. And whatever decisions I must make, I believe You will show me the right one."

I pray while I am driving to work. From the time I awake and get to my office, I have spent two hours in prayer while doing other things. Again, another word of wisdom my father-in-law would say is: "Stay in an attitude of prayer and connecting to God at all times." One of the keys I have found in instantly connecting with the Lord is to play praise and worship music as I am getting ready and praying.

Many times, I find a song that addresses whatever I'm praying about. I love a song that David Ingles wrote: Part of the lyrics says: "My confidence is great in the Lord. Because I believe in God's Word, I'm going forth and doing great exploits. My confidence is great in the Lord. I'll keep meditating day and night. I'll continue fighting the good fight. I'll observe to do God's Word and all that's written there. To revelation truth I'll be aware. My confidence is great in the Lord."*

The Lord often gives me assignments I can't do in my ability. I will play this song over and over and declare, "My confidence is great in the Lord."

People often ask, "How do you manage everything you do?" My answer is always, "I could never do it in my ability, but every day I rely on God's ability." Remember, whatever you need—God's got it. The task ahead of you is never greater than the force of God holding you up. Rest in Him! Stay in communication with the Lord at all times. He will lead, guide, and strengthen you and give you the wisdom and ability to navigate your life every moment of the day.♥

Jesus was Amazed?!

Everywhere that Jesus went, people were amazed by the things that He did. But did you know that there were two times in the Bible when Jesus was amazed by something someone else did? Circle the two people or groups of people below that you think amazed Jesus.

- (A) Simon Peter (B) The Centurion with a sick servant
(C) King Herod (D) Superman (E) The people in His hometown

Read Mark 6:6 and Luke 7:9 in the New International Version to find the answers.

If a person without shoes is called "bare-footed," what is a bear without shoes called?

Can you ever pronounce the word "WRONG" right?

If a poisonous snake bites its tongue, will it die?

This Is Puzzling!

Place the puzzle pieces below in the right order and you will discover a word that no Christian should be without. Write the number order of the puzzle pieces in the circle above each piece. The first piece has already been put in the correct number order.

With this little object lesson, you will discover that some things that look like impossibilities really aren't.

- Get a piece of plain paper and cut it into a square about 6 inches wide by 6 inches long. Find the center of the piece of paper and place a dime in the center and trace around its edges. Cut out the hole in the center with scissors.

- Show your friends that a dime can easily go through the hole that was cut in the paper. Give them the opportunity to slip the dime through the hole.

- Then have one of your friends try to put a quarter through the same hole. They will be unsuccessful because the hole is too small. Announce that you can make the quarter pass through the hole without tearing the paper or doing any "hocus-pocus," but you will not do it unless your friends "have some faith" in you.

- When they show that they have faith that you can do it, simply fold the paper in half and place the quarter into the hole. A small edge of the quarter will appear through the hole. Then hold the folded paper on both ends of the fold and gently bend the edges upward as shown in the picture (4). The hole will widen as it is stretched and the quarter will easily drop through the hole. Tell your friends that Jesus faced a situation just like yours. He had the ability to do things that to others seemed impossible, but He couldn't do it in His hometown because they didn't believe Him.

HAVE SOME FAITH!

ANSWERS:

Jesus Was Amazed?!
B. The Centurion with the sick servant—Luke 7:9
E. The people in His hometown—Mark 6:6
Jesus was amazed at the great faith of the Centurion, but He was also amazed at the unbelief of the people in His own hometown. The Bible says that Jesus couldn't do many mighty miracles in His hometown because of the people's unbelief. What about you? Would Jesus be amazed by your faith or your unbelief?

The Way Home

“MY DAD KICKED me out for being a pain,” Amanda began. “What will he do when he finds out I am pregnant? He’s a stern giant of a man. I’m afraid.”

“My dear, God’s love takes away fear,” answered Loana. “When people hear the Gospel, and accept Jesus into their hearts, God pours so much love into them that fear does not have to dominate them anymore.”

The next morning, at breakfast, Amanda said to Loana, “I don’t want to steal or be a pain anymore. I want to go back home and tell Dad how sorry I am for all the pain I’ve caused him and our family. And I want Jesus in my heart right now. I see you talk to God like He’s right next to you. I want a relationship like that, one that never breaks up. Is that possible?”

“Yes, my dear,” replied Loana.

“Do I need to kneel?”

“You can if you want to. Hold my hand, let’s talk to Jesus.”

That evening, Amanda went back home with Loana right beside her. Amanda pushed the doorbell lightly. She had expected to feel dread at the prospect of seeing her dad, but she was not afraid. God’s love was bubbling inside her.

When the door opened, Amanda came face-to-face with her father for the first time in months. His 6’4” frame filled the doorway. His expressionless face gave away nothing as he looked from his clearly pregnant daughter to the older woman beside her.

Amanda searched for words to say but none came. She stepped forward and threw her arms around her father.

Instantly, his large arms circled her as he bent low to return her embrace. She sobbed into his chest, telling him how sorry she was.

It felt like hours had passed when he finally muttered, “Oh girl, how I’ve missed you!”

Do you want to have a relationship with God like Amanda? Then pray this prayer from your heart:

God,
I come to You in Jesus’ Name. I believe in my heart that Jesus is Your Son and that You raised Him from the dead. I confess Jesus as my Lord. Therefore, I am saved! Thank You!

If you prayed this prayer, welcome to God’s family! We want to send you some materials to help you in your new life with God. Email us at PartnerService@rhema.org and or call us at 1-800-54-FAITH (543-2484).
