Holding On to Hope

If there ever has been a time when we needed hope, it is now. People are searching for hope, wanting something steady to hold on to. This kind of hope is found in the Bible.

The Word of God encourages us with many scriptures about hope. One reason the Bible was written was to give us hope. Romans 15:4 (NIV) says, “For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.”

We need “Bible hope” today. Some Christians who have heard the faith message claim that those “hoping” for something are not in faith. That simply isn’t so.

Without hope, we could never have faith. Hebrews. 6:19 (NIV) says, “We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.” Hope is the spiritual force that sets goals for faith to achieve.

Some compare hope to a thermostat. It starts a process to achieve an end result. If I want to change a room’s temperature, I set the thermostat to the temperature I hope, or desire, the room to be. Then, I believe the system will operate, making my hope for a hotter or colder room a reality.

This process mirrors how faith works. Hope is the “thermostat” that sets in motion what we want our faith to accomplish. Then faith works to make it a reality.

Without the thermostat, the system will not produce the desired result, and without hope, faith won’t either. Some Christians think we must be in either faith or hope, not realizing that we need both. Hebrews 11:1 (NIV 1984) says, “Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.”

Hope is the anchor that secures us as our faith in God leads us on. Both are necessary for a stable life. Together, they hold us steady in difficult times. For faith’s sake, we must hold on to hope; it is vital for the day we live in.

TAKE JESUS TO THE WORLD

Let's not forget there's a lost and dying world out there.
PEOPLE ARE HURTING.... They are going to hell.
AND WE HAVE THE ANSWER.

I'VE SEEN IT happen before. A powerful move of God sweeps through, and instead of embracing it, people reject it because it doesn't fit their traditions. That's what happened with many Pentecostal churches and the Charismatic movement. Many Pentecostals rejected the Charismatic move and insisted that their way was the only way to receive the Holy Spirit. They told people, "You have to come to our church and do it our way." But those who were hungry for God followed where He was leading, and the Charismatic movement exploded.

I remember watching Pentecostal churches not accept Charismatics and thinking, "That's not going to be me." I wanted to stay open to whatever God was doing. But it wasn't always easy. When I first walked into a Charismatic meeting, I was used to sitting and singing from a hymnbook. Suddenly, I was expected to stand up for an hour to sing! But instead of rejecting it, I prayed, "God, if this is what You're doing at this time, I just want all of You."

Now, as part of the Word of Faith movement, I see the same danger creeping in. If we're not careful, we'll start rejecting what God is doing just because it doesn't look like what we're used to. There's nothing wrong with the way we do things—our three songs, our running and rejoicing—but we need to ask, "God, what do You want?"

STAY HUNGRY FOR MORE

God responds to spiritual hunger. He wants to move in miraculous ways, but we have to be hungry. His Word says, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled" (Matt. 5:6 NKJV). If we come to church already satisfied, expecting nothing, we won't receive anything. But if we come with open hearts, wanting more of Him, He will fill us.

Sometimes, God's presence moves us to shout and celebrate. Other times, He leads us to be still and listen. But no matter how He moves, we can't get comfortable. We can never have enough of Him.

It's easy to focus on the blessings God has given us. But let's not forget there's a lost and dying world out there. People are hurting. They're suicidal and hopeless. They are going to hell. And we have the answer.

Our prayer should be, "God, give me a passion like I've never had before. Give me a passion for the lost—to go out and tell others what Jesus has done for them."

CALLED TO GO

When God called my husband and me to come to Rhema, I had always loved pastoring. I had a pastor's heart. I wasn't an evangelist. I didn't like traveling. I liked being in my own bed, in my comfort zone.

But as I sought God, He made it clear in a supernatural way that we were called to evangelistic ministry. I had to be honest with Him. He knows our thoughts, so we might as well be honest with Him. I prayed, "God, I have a pastor's heart. So if this is where You're calling us for this season, You'll have to change my heart and give me a passion for evangelistic ministry." And He did.

In fact, when COVID shut everything down and we couldn't travel, I felt an urgency in my spirit: "I have to go! I have to reach people!" God had changed my heart. And the truth is, every believer is called to share the Gospel. This isn't just for pastors or evangelists. God wants every one of us to have a passion for the lost.

Our first assignment is to go and tell others what we have. It's true that God has given us so many things, and we have our rights and privileges in Christ. But it's time for us to quit concentrating on that and go to the world and tell them what they can have in Christ.

Jesus is coming back, but He won't return until we finish the work He gave us. There are billions of people who still haven't heard the Gospel. And there are people in your community, at your workplace or school, and maybe even in your family, who haven't heard about Jesus.

THE URGENCY OF THE GOSPEL

We take so much for granted. My daughter, Denise, once lived next to a woman in Texas who had never owned a Bible. She had to explain to her, "This is the Old Testament. This is the New Testament. These are chapters and verses." Can you imagine? Right here in America, someone had never heard.

The Apostle Paul told the Ephesian Christians, "Pray for me, that I will boldly proclaim the Word of God" (Eph. 6:19). We need that same boldness. God will give us opportunities to share His love—often when we least expect it. I spend most of my time around Christians, so God opens doors for me to share when I'm in a restaurant or a store, or when I'm busy and have my mind on my to-do list.

I remember one day, I was in a hurry, and I heard someone call my name. I almost ignored it. I was busy. But I had prayed, "God, send someone across my path." And He did.

That woman was a Christian, but she was struggling. She told me, "This morning, I prayed that someone would come across my path to minister to my hurting heart. You are my angel today."

I ended up standing there for two hours ministering to her. I could have rushed past her. I could have said, "Hi. I have a busy day. I'm sorry. Bye." But God redeemed my time. And He will do the same for you—if you put His assignments first.

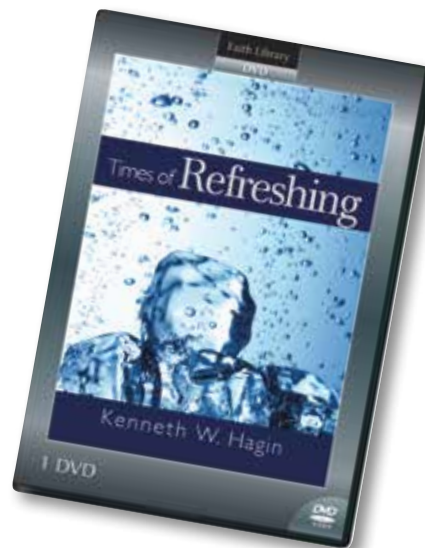

BE READY TO ANSWER

Every day, God is sending people across your path that He wants you to minister to. Are you ready to answer the call? Are you sensitive to His voice? The world is waiting. And we have the answer. Let's take Jesus to the world.♥

Rhema USA Graduates 51st Class

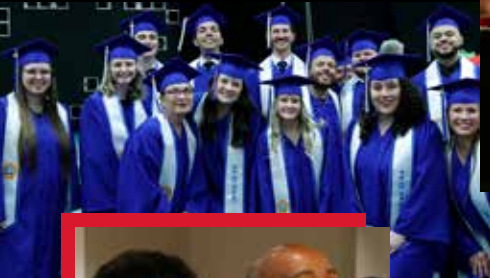

CHEERS FILLED THE Rhema Bible Church auditorium on Friday, May 16, 2025, as Rhema Bible Training College celebrated its 51st graduation ceremony. A total of 151 students crossed the stage, each receiving a diploma and a symbolic relay baton—an enduring Rhema tradition representing the call to carry faith and revival to the world.

Dean Tad Gregurich opened the ceremony with a prayer of gratitude, honoring the graduates' journey of sacrifice, obedience, and preparation. "These graduates are the answer to the question, What is that sound I hear? They stand before a congregation tonight, but tomorrow they will go forth to reach a generation."

The 2025 ceremony carried added significance as it marked the first year RBTC conferred religious degrees under Oklahoma's newly signed House Bill 4050. Graduates in red, blue, and black robes represented associate, applied studies, and—for the first time—bachelor's degree recipients. "This isn't about academic prestige," said Dean Gregurich. "It's about continuing the mission Rhema has always carried—to train ministers who change the world for Jesus Christ."

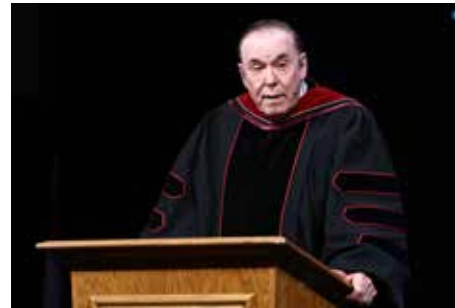

This year's commencement speaker was Pastor Mark Bohr, a 1989 RBTC graduate and senior pastor of Life Church in Boise, Idaho. Sharing both spiritual insight and personal joy as a proud father (his daughter Wendelin was among the graduates), Pastor Bohr reminded students, "You've been faithful to study and grow—that's worth celebrating. Now go use what you've been given."

Bohr urged graduates not to wait for dramatic direction but to be led by the Spirit in everyday decisions. "Many of us started with no dramatic vision—just an inward witness. It 'seemed good,' and that simple leading resulted in fruit that remains."

Pastor Kenneth W. Hagin, speaking for the 51st consecutive year, reminded the class that ministry takes many forms—from pulpits to mission fields to everyday workplaces. "Whatever role God places you in, endure hardship like a good soldier and fulfill your part in the body of Christ."

Each graduate received a baton engraved with a bold declaration:

"I COMMIT TODAY TO CARRY THE BATON OF REVIVAL TO THIS GENERATION. I WILL CARRY THE BANNER OF FAITH AND GOD'S POWER TO A LOST AND DYING WORLD. THIS IS MY TIME TO DO ALL GOD HAS CALLED ME TO DO."

As the ceremony concluded, graduates left the auditorium not just with diplomas, but with a deepened sense of mission. Equipped, empowered, and entrusted, the Class of 2025 now takes its place in the race of faith—ready to reach a world in need. 🇺🇸

Answered Prayer IN TURBULENT TIMES

• • • WORRY is designed to DISTRACT US from the Word of God. • • •

SAD TO SAY, far too many Christians are burdened by the negative influence of the world. They accept failure too quickly because they have let their faith become weak and their spirit grow faint from the negativity around them.

KENNETH W. HAGIN

Of course, it would be foolish to deny that we live in a negative world. Our world is full of trouble. Real problems exist everywhere. And if existing problems are not bad enough, we constantly face predictions of impending natural, economic, and political disasters.

So what is a Christian to do?

First, we can take comfort in knowing that nothing happening today is news to God; nothing is taking Him by surprise. In fact, He warned us that difficulties would come. John 16:33 (NIV) says, “In this world you will have trouble.”

These are the words of Jesus! He said trouble is sure to come—but that’s not all He said. He added these encouraging words: “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: BUT BE OF GOOD CHEER; I have overcome the world” (John 16:33).

The world needs us as Christians to be a positive influence. Jesus said in Matthew 5:16, “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”

It’s important to know that a positive influence glorifies our Heavenly Father! And if we are going to stay positive, we must commit ourselves to prayer.

THE POWER OF PRAYER OVER WORRY

We must never underestimate the importance of prayer. It enables us to stay in peace when we are surrounded by negativity.

PHILIPPIANS 4:6–7 (NIV)

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

In this passage, Paul tells us to present our problems to God instead of worrying about them—then God’s peace will come into our heart and mind.

We must resist the temptation to worry. Why? Because God told us not to be anxious about anything.

We were not designed to carry anxiety and burdens. If we’re not careful, we can allow our mind to become disappointed, discouraged, and depressed. We can let worry in instead of God’s Word.

Worry is designed to distract us from the Word of God. The devil tries to get us to spend our time worrying. If he succeeds, we will become more and more negative, and our faith and prayer life will be ineffective.

God wants to answer our prayers! He wants us to bring our concerns to Him. First Peter 5:7 (NIV) says, “Cast all your anxiety [worry, care] on him because he cares for you.”

In Mark 11:24 (NIV), Jesus Himself said, “Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

God gets the glory when we receive answers to prayer! And answered prayer is one of His greatest blessings. It enables us to remain in peace and stay positive.

Remember, Philippians 4:6 (NIV) says, “Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.” When we pray, we are to give God both our petitions and our burdens. In exchange, He gives us His peace that passes understanding. And He promises that He will take care of us and answer our prayers. He relieves us of the anxiety, worry, and care associated with our problem. That way, we can stay positive and thank Him for the answer while we expect it to come to pass.

PROOF OF GOD’S FAITHFULNESS IN PRAYER

Bible heroes of old won tremendous victories through prayer. They took their requests to God boldly and obtained mercy and grace from Him in their time of need. They judged Him faithful and held on to their confidence and godly hope until their answer came.

Modern-day leaders in the faith have also proved that God is faithful to answer prayer. Let’s look at one of them.

In the 19th century, George Mueller founded a great chain of orphanages on nothing but prayer. He lived by faith, refusing to tell anyone his needs. Instead, he mentioned them only to God in prayer. At one point in his ministry, he housed more than 10,000 orphans with no steady financial support. He trusted God daily to meet their needs.

Rev. Mueller estimated that God “had answered over 50,000 of his prayers, many thousands of which were answered on the day he made them and often before he arose from his knees.”¹ His fruitful prayer life can be traced to his commitment to God’s Word.

George Mueller performed exploits for God in his ministry. At times, there wasn’t a morsel of food in the entire orphanage for hundreds of children. But Mueller and his staff would pray. Again and again, he records “money or supplies had arrived with only minutes to spare before the children sat down at the table.”² Why do you think he (and others like him) could make such an impact? Because he was saturated with the Word and had a strong faith and confidence in his prayer-answering God!

PRAYING FOR OUR NATION AND LEADERS

In Second Chronicles 7:14, God told Israel, “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

This verse is no less true for us today. Considering the decisions made by our elected leaders every day, we should pray for our nation and for those in authority on every level—national, state, and local.

The Apostle Paul said, “I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty” (1 Tim. 2:1–2).

Far too often, Christians fail to pray for those in authority—those who make decisions that affect everyone. Yet Paul says to do it first when we pray! Many don’t fully comprehend the huge benefit that comes from such obedience: a quiet and peaceable life!

We must not neglect this important matter of prayer. We need to believe that God wants to answer our prayers, and then do something about it. We must pray!♥

KIRK DUBOIS

MOSES PRAYED A VERY prophetic prayer during the time when the Israelites had come out of Egypt and were living in the wilderness. The Israelites had complained to Moses many times about their conditions. They complained that they didn't have any meat to eat—that all they had was manna. And Moses finally told God that leading these people was too much for him.

To help Moses, God told him to choose 70 elders and bring them to the tabernacle. There God would take some of the Spirit that was on Moses and put it on them so they could help lead the people. When this took place, all 70 elders began to prophesy, including two who had not come to the tabernacle. Here is what happened next.

NUMBERS 11:27–28

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

Moses said to Joshua, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish all of God's people were prophets, and that He would put His Spirit upon all of them!” This was a prophetic prayer that wouldn't be answered until the Day of Pentecost.

A BLESSING FOR ALL CREATION

Later, in the Book of Joel, God gave us a prophetic promise concerning this wonderful blessing to come for all creation. God prophesied through Joel, “There's coming a time when I'm going to pour out My Spirit—not just upon the preachers, the priests, or Moses, or prophets, or kings, but upon all flesh! Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy. Your young men shall see visions. Your old men shall dream dreams.” (See Joel 2:28–29.)

So in God's plan there was no gender gap, no age gap, no gap between slave and free, rich and poor, no racial gap. God said He would pour out His Spirit on all flesh. And we see this promise beginning to be fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost.

ACTS 2:1–4

1 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

This was the beginning of the fulfillment of Moses' prophetic prayer and Joel's prophetic promise. The Spirit of God was being poured out upon all flesh.

GOD IS NO LONGER LOCKED UP IN A BOX BEHIND A CURTAIN; HE IS LIVING AMONG HIS PEOPLE. He's made us His temple.

A UNIQUE PRIVILEGE

Jesus said in John 10:4–5, “My sheep know My voice. They'll not follow another.” In Romans 8:14 it is written, “As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons [and daughters] of God.”

This is the unique privilege of every believer. No longer do we have to go to a priest and say, “Give me a word from the Lord.” Now, every believer can receive the power of the Holy Ghost and be led by God's Spirit. EACH OF US CAN HEAR FROM HEAVEN AND GET DIRECTION IN OUR OWN SPIRIT FOR WHAT GOD HAS FOR OUR LIFE.

Jesus told us that when the Holy Ghost comes, He will show us things to come and remind us of what He said. (See John 14:26; 16:13.) The Holy Spirit will direct our lives.

As the Apostle Peter said, we are all a royal priesthood unto God (1 Peter 2:9). The Lord has put His Spirit upon all of His people, and God can communicate with all of His people. This is the prophetic purpose of Pentecost. This is the significance of the Holy Ghost being poured out.♥

Faith Will Meet Our Praise

REJEANNA JOLLIFF

THE ENEMY'S TACTIC is to convince us that we're struggling alone. He wants us to believe that God will have to work extra hard to rescue us.

God is faithful, and His promises are simple. Living by faith is not complicated. He is a faith God, and we are His faith children. The principles of faith work from generation to generation, and they still work today. No matter how impossible our circumstances seem, God has made a way for us.

Years ago, I was in a season of struggle. Everything seemed to be going wrong. One day while driving, I felt frustrated and overwhelmed and cried out to God. But instead of finding relief, I sank further into the pit. Then I heard the Lord say gently, "ReJeanna, not that way."

My flesh argued, "Yes, this way!" But I knew there was a higher way—the way of praise.

PSALM 84:4-7 (AMP)

4 Blessed and greatly favored are those who dwell in Your house and Your presence; they will be singing Your praises all the day long. Selah.

5 Blessed and greatly favored is the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

6 Passing through the Valley of Weeping (Baca), they make it a place of springs; the early rain also covers it with blessings.

7 They go from strength to strength [increasing in victorious power]; each of them appears before God in Zion.

Praise shifts our focus from our strength to His. When our hands are lifted, we can't carry burdens. When our eyes are fixed on God, we see His goodness, faithfulness, and truth. We remember that He watches over His Word to perform it.

If we focus on our circumstances, we lose sight of Who He is. Instead of relying on His strength, we try to solve our own problems, like Sarah did. She took matters into her own hands and ended up with Ishmael. Instead of trusting in God's faithfulness, she devised her own strategy.

What did Abraham do? He believed God.

ROMANS 4:19-21 (NKJV)

19 And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb.

20 He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.

Because Abraham counted God faithful, the promise came to pass. We are of the same faith as Abraham, and we are to operate as he did.

Abraham's praise flowed from his relationship with the Father. That relationship made him fully convinced.

Likewise, when we look to God, our faith grows. It starts like a mustard seed, but as it develops, the impossible becomes possible. Even if circumstances don't change, we know that the truth in us is more real than what we see, taste, hear, or feel.

Faith sustains us and propels us to overcome. When we face a trial, our best response is praise.

Once the Holy Spirit told me, "There's something on the other side of your shout. If you knew what was there, you'd start shouting now!"

Whatever you're facing, now is the time to start shouting!

People often wait until their situation improves before they praise. But faith meets your praise, and the promise manifests. You won't be surprised when your answer arrives because you will have already received it by faith. Praise is the highway to your breakthrough.

We can take the long way and cry or travel back roads and go slow. But if we take the highway of praise, we'll reach our destination faster than we imagined.

Let's stay filled with joy by praising God daily. We don't need to be polished singers. As we sing, praise becomes the exit plan from our trial. When we choose praise, we choose victory.♥

THE MANDATE, “GO teach My people faith,” started with one man—my grandfather, Kenneth E. Hagin. But today it’s no longer the responsibility of one man or one family. The mandate rests on thousands upon thousands of people across the entire earth.

The mandate calls us to take the message of faith to the world. But with it comes a weight that must be taken seriously. When we embrace the mandate, we also sign up for some responsibilities. Here are four that stand out:

DENISE HAGIN BURNS

1. THE WEIGHT OF THE MANDATE IS LOVE

My grandfather talked a lot about love. First Peter 4:8 (NLT) says, “Most important of all, continue to show deep love for each other, for love covers a multitude of sins.”

The Apostle Peter is someone who understood this firsthand. Even after denying Jesus three times, he was met with love, not judgment. Correction without love leads to rejection, but correction with love leads to transformation.

Colossians 3:13 (TPT) urges us to “tolerate the weaknesses of those in the family of faith.” We are all human and have weaknesses. Instead of being quick to judge, we are called to be patient, compassionate, and merciful. Love makes us professional excuse-makers for others—choosing to be unoffendable in our patience toward other people.

2. THE WEIGHT OF THE MANDATE IS BEING SPIRIT LED

Our success is not in human strategies but in the guidance of the Holy Spirit. It's beneficial to have a plan. However, relying solely on what makes sense can cause us to miss the leading of the Holy Spirit. What He tells us to do often doesn't make sense, but it's what we need to do.

When the Holy Spirit gives us instruction, we can't engage our mind by questioning. Instead, we should obey immediately, even if His direction seems illogical. We have to remember that our obedience impacts people in the future. If we disregard what the Holy Spirit is telling us, we won't be in the right place to impact those people.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF CARRYING THIS MANDATE
DOESN'T END WITH US—
WE MUST PASS IT ON TO THE GENERATION
BELOW US.

3. THE WEIGHT OF THE MANDATE IS PURITY, NOT PERFORMANCE

God looks at our heart. Are we always going to get it right? No. But how's your heart? Is it pure?

King Saul is an example of misplaced priorities. When God commanded him to completely destroy the Amalekites, he obeyed only partially. He was trying to people-please. Saul was more concerned about his performance and what people thought about him than he was about obeying God. Saul's partial obedience made God really mad, and cost Saul his throne.

Contrast that with David. When you look at his life, David messed up a lot. Although he committed serious sins—including adultery and murder—his heart remained tender before God. Every time David messed up, he repented and ran back to God. That's why God called David "a man after his own heart" (1 Sam. 13:14).

4. THE WEIGHT OF THE MANDATE IS RELATING TO THE YOUNGER GENERATION

The responsibility of carrying this mandate doesn't end with us—we must pass it on to the generation below us. Instead of criticizing the younger generation for doing things differently, we must embrace, relate to, and invest in them. If we want to impact future generations, we have to build bridges, not walls.

If the Lord tarries, today's older generation will be in Heaven, and the younger generation will be left to lead. Our job is to pour into them now.

The Apostle Paul knew he had to invest in young people. What did he do? He mentored Timothy, taking him on missionary journeys, teaching him leadership and how to speak. He let Timothy see his day-to-day ministry challenges and learn how to overcome them.

We have to ask ourselves, who is our Timothy? Who are we investing in and encouraging to use their spiritual gifts?

I believe a revival is happening among young people—in our 18- to 30-year-olds. They crave spending time with God, and we need to make room for that. Yeah, they might not express their faith in a way we think it should be done or in a way we agree with. But it's their generation, their way, their time.

And that excites me. Because the future of the Church—the future of this mandate—is in good hands.♥

Help to Pray

Timeless Teachings
of Kenneth E. Hagin

About the Unknown

If we yielded more to Him and made ourselves available to pray in other tongues . . .

WE WOULD SEE MORE VICTORIES.

ONE BENEFIT OF speaking in tongues is, it enables believers to pray for the unknown—things their natural minds don't know about. Praying this way is crucial to operating in the full scope of praying in the Spirit.

Praying in tongues provides a way to pray for things that you are not aware of and that you would never think to pray on your own. That's why it's so important. You just don't know what to pray for as you ought (Rom. 8:26). Therefore, you need the Holy Spirit to help you pray out God's perfect will concerning people and situations your natural mind knows nothing about.

THE UNKNOWN BECOMES KNOWN WHEN YOU RECEIVE THE INTERPRETATION

1 CORINTHIANS 14:15

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

I think this verse has a twofold application. First, it literally means what it says: "I will pray both ways—with my understanding and also with my spirit." But I believe this verse has a further application. You don't always need to understand what you're saying in tongues. However, when it's necessary, the Holy Spirit will give you the interpretation of what you said in tongues. Then you will be able to pray by inspiration of the Holy Spirit with the spirit and with the understanding!

GOD LOOKS FOR AVAILABLE VESSELS TO USE IN PRAYER

The Holy Spirit will often alert you to pray in other tongues about a specific need or situation. Then once you yield to Him and get over in the realm of the Spirit, He may give you other things to pray for.

This happened to me one afternoon in Prayer School when I prayed for someone whose life was in danger. I had just gotten a note of victory after praying 45 minutes. Then as I kept praying, the face of a pastor I knew kept coming before me—a man who lived 1,200 miles away. I assumed I was praying for him.

In the midst of praying in tongues, I heard myself say a few words in English over and over: "Don't leave yet. Stay there a little while longer." Then I'd go right back to praying in tongues. I thought, "Maybe he's thinking about leaving his church." However, I didn't know anything about the situation in the natural.

A few days later, I happened to go into a staff member's office while he was talking on the telephone to this particular pastor. I said, "Before you hang up, let me talk to him."

When I got on the phone, I said to this pastor, "I don't know whether this will mean anything to you or not. If it doesn't, just forget it."

We should never accept a "word from the Lord" just because someone says it—people can miss it. The Holy Spirit is perfect, but He is manifested through imperfect channels.

I continued, “I was praying the other day in the Spirit, and your face kept coming up before me. Then a few words in English came out of my mouth. I kept saying, ‘Don’t leave yet. Stay a little while longer.’”

The pastor said, “Well, yes, Brother Hagin, I’ve already given my resignation to the church board. I believe it’s time for me to move on.”

I replied, “But God seems to be telling you, ‘Stay a little while longer.’”

The pastor said he would pray about it. I found out later that he stayed three more months at the church.

Later that pastor came over to me at one of my crusades and said, “Thank God for the Holy Ghost! When I resigned, I was supposed to leave in two weeks. However, I didn’t have a dime. I said to my wife, ‘I don’t know where we’re going. We have to move out of the parsonage, and I don’t know what we’ll do with our furniture. I don’t have enough money to store it.”

There’s no doubt in my mind that the Holy Spirit is continually searching for those He can use in prayer.

“But by staying three extra months, I was able to save $3,750 by the time we left the church. I would have been $3,750 short if I hadn’t stayed just a little while longer!”

I replied, “That’s good to know. I didn’t know if those words, ‘Don’t leave yet’ meant anything.” But the Holy Spirit knew, and He prompted me to pray about what was unknown to me for the benefit of that pastor.

You may try to figure out what you should pray about—but you’ll never fully know. Thank God, the Holy Spirit always knows the perfect will of God. And He will use you to bring about God’s will in specific situations and in people’s lives as you yield to Him, praying in other tongues.

There would be more testimonies like this if more people would pray in other tongues. Many believers pray a little in tongues to keep themselves in fellowship with God. But they don’t take time to wait in His Presence. That’s when the Holy Spirit can take hold with them to pray through on matters that desperately need to be prayed about.

There’s no doubt in my mind that the Holy Spirit is continually searching for those He can use in prayer. When He finds believers willing to yield to Him and pray for as long as it takes in other tongues, He helps them pray out His perfect will concerning matters they often know nothing about.

I believe the majority of Spirit-filled Christians haven’t yet realized the profound effectiveness of this kind of praying. If they had, they would be doing much more of it.

The Holy Spirit knows what we should pray for—we don’t. Yet so many times when we get a burden or an inward witness to pray, we go right on about our daily business instead of stopping to pray. If we yielded more to Him and made ourselves available to pray in other tongues, even when we don’t know what we’re praying about, we would see more victories. We would also see many more dramatic deliverances in the lives of those for whom we pray.

Our prayer life is one of the greatest areas in which the Holy Spirit is our Helper. He helps us in all areas. But one of the most productive and most miraculous areas He helps us in is praying out God’s perfect will in other tongues for what is unknown to our natural minds.♥

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."

— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

FAITH OVER FEAR!

A LADY ONCE approached evangelist D.L. Moody and told him she had found a wonderful promise in the Bible that helped her overcome fear. Her verse was Psalm 56:3: "What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee." Mr. Moody replied, "Why, I have a better promise than that!" And he quoted Isaiah 12:2: "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid."

It would be easy to be overcome with fear in our world today. Violent crimes are escalating, and natural disasters are occurring in many areas. Certainly we are living in the last days. I am so thankful that in the midst of perilous times, the Word of God gives us assurance that if we have made God the center of our lives, we do not have to fear. I often heard my father-in-law say, "Fear and faith cannot reside together. If you are in fear, you are out of faith."

It is so important to conquer fear. Fear will paralyze and enslave you. It will cause you constant worry and turmoil. God never intended for us to be enslaved by fear. In fact, when writing to Timothy, Paul said, "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind" (2 Tim. 1:7).

So often our fears are unfounded. My husband relates how as a young boy he was trying to go to sleep when suddenly outside his window he saw a shadow resembling a man's hand. He immediately became frightened and thought someone was trying to break in. After several minutes of shaking from fright, he decided to conquer that fear by opening the door and looking outside. When he did, he saw that the shadow was caused by a mimosa tree limb blowing in the wind. The enemy always brings the worst thoughts to your mind.

We must allow faith in God to replace fear. The Lord said many times in the Bible, "Fear Not." In Mark chapter 4 we read of a time when Jesus and His disciples got into a boat and He said to them, "Let us pass over unto the other side" (v. 35).

Jesus went to sleep and suddenly a great storm arose. The wind and waves began to beat on the ship. Afraid, the disciples woke Jesus up and said, "Master, carest thou not that we perish? And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?" (vv. 38–40).

The secret to victory over fear is faith in God. He is there to solve any problem in your life. Psalm 46:1–2 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea."

From the time our children were young, my husband and I taught them the 91st Psalm. Let me share some verses with you.

PSALM 91:1–2; 14–16 (NLT)

1 Those who live in the shelter of the Most High will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

2 This I declare about the Lord: He alone is my refuge, my place of safety; he is my God, and I trust him.

This psalm continues with many great promises of protection. Then at the end, the Lord speaks.

14 . . . "I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name.

15 When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue and honor them.

16 I will reward them with a long life and give them my salvation."

I encourage you to find scriptures in the Word of God concerning fear. Read them every day. Make them such a part of your routine that when a fearful situation arises, your immediate response is the same as D.L. Moody's: "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid." ♥

Jonah

the Dude With the Bad Attitude

Most people remember Jonah as the prophet who disobeyed God and got swallowed by a big fish. But even after he changed his mind and obeyed God, Jonah still had a problem . . . he had a bad attitude. He finally OBEYED God but he wasn't WILLING. Isaiah 1:19 says, "If you are willing and obedient you will eat the good of the land." Jonah found out that it isn't enough to just obey . . . his attitude had to be right, too! Maybe you have discovered the same thing. If your parents ask you to go clean your room and you obey them but you STOMP your feet in anger all the way to your room, chances are that your parents won't be very happy with you! God isn't much different from your parents in that respect. If He asks you to do something, He expects you to OBEY and HAVE A GOOD ATTITUDE too.

A Life Coach You Can Trust

DO YOU REMEMBER learning to ride a bicycle? Even with training wheels, there was usually someone by your side acting as your coach. Maybe it was a parent, sibling, or friend. They held on to the seat, walking with you and offering encouragement until you were ready to ride on your own. The training wheels stayed on until your confidence and skills grew.

Life works the same way. Learning to navigate its challenges requires coaching. We need guidance to avoid danger and maneuver safely through rough spots.

The good news is that the ultimate Life Coach—God Himself—is standing by ready to help. When you invite Him into your life by accepting His Son, Jesus, as your Savior, He promises to “never leave you nor forsake you” (Heb. 13:5 New King James Version). He will always be with you. Through His Word, the Bible, He will coach you to victory.

The Bible says, “If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved” (Romans 10:9 New Living Translation). If you’ve never received Jesus as your Savior, you can do so right now. Pray this prayer from your heart:

God, I need help with my life. I’m tired of trying to do it on my own. Please help me. I confess out loud that Jesus is my Lord, and I believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. You said that if I would do that, I would be saved. So thank You for saving me! Please coach me through life. You promised to never leave me or forsake me. I take You at Your word.

If you prayed this prayer, welcome to God’s family! You just made the most important decision of your life. From this day on, God will always be with you. And He really will coach you toward a victorious life.

Let us know that you’ve accepted Jesus! We want to send you some materials to help you grow in your new life with Him. Email us at PartnerService@rhema.org or call us at 1-800-54-FAITH (543-2484).♥
